REPUBLICAN BANNE

G. WASHINGTON BOWEN, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

"The liberty to know, to utler, and to argue, freely, is above all other liberties."-MILTON.

CBTTTOBORG, PAG, TOBODAY, MARCH 15, 1342.

WHOLE SPO. 021.

Office of the Star & Banner COUNTY BUILDING, ABOVE THE OFFICE OF THE REGISTER AND RECORDER.

I. The STAR & REPUBLICAN BANNER is published at TWO DOLLARS per annum (or Volume of 52 numbers,) payable half-yearly in alvance: or TWO DOLLARS & FIFTY CENTS, if not paid until after the expiration of the year.

II. No subscription will be received for a shortor period than six months; nor will the paper be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the Editor. A failure to notify a discontinuance will be considered a new cugagement and the paper forwarded accordingly.

III. ADVERTISEMENTS not exceeding a square will be inserted THREE times for $1, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion—the number of insection to be marked, or they will be published till forbid and charged accordingly; longer ones in the same proportion. A reasonable deduction will be made to those who advertise by the year.

IV. All Letters and Communications addressed to the Editor by mail must be post-paid, or they will not be attended to.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

VALUABLE South Branch Parvi FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale a Tract of Land, containing

150 ACRES,

fifty of which are first-rate BOTTOM LAND-about thirty of second Bottom, or un-land, and the residue well timbered, on which is erected a comfortable

DWELLING,

STABLING, &c., with two Springs of Water and a fine piece of Meadow.

This Land, lying on the South Branch of the Potomac, river, about one mile from is junction with the North Branch, and about the same distance from the Bultimore and Ohio railroad, and Chesapeake and Ohio canal, renders it now very valuable, with an almost certain prospect of its value being materially enhanced when the rail road and canal shall have been completed to Cumberland; which lies 18 miles west. It is also convenient to several villagesbeing distant from Oldtown, Md. 8 miles. and from Springfield. Va. 7 miles. Terms of Sale, one-third cash, and the balance in one and two years without interest. .

Any person wishing to view the farm will please call on Mr. WM. HARNESS .-For further particulars apply to the subscriber, at Winchester, Virginia.

ROB'T B. HOLLIDAY March 1, 1942. 2mo-49

TAVERN LICENSE.

To the Honorable Court of Quarter Sessions of Adams County:

TIME Petition of John Burkholder of Menallen township, in saidicounty, respectfully represents that he is well provided with house room and conveniences for the accommodation of strangers and travellers, at the house heretofore kept by him as an Inn in Menallen township, (formerly Hapke's Inn.) he therefore prays the Honorable Court to grant him a License for keeping a public Inn or Tavern, and he as in duty bound, &c.

JOHN BURKHOLDER.

We the undersigned citizens of Menallen township, in which the above mentioned Inn or Tavern praying to be licensed is proposed to be kept, do certify that the above applicant, John Burkholder, is of good repute for honesty and temperance; and is well provided with house room and conveniences for the lodging and accommodation of strangers and travellers, and such Inn or Tavern is necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travellers, &c.,

John Hewitt, Wm. Rex, M. Detrick, John Boyer, Philip Long, Jacob Rex.

March 1, 1842.

ly, that he has

L. Yeagy, Daniel Rice, Samuel Johnson, John Quickel; Barnbart Wort, Daniel Heiges, Frederick Wolf, Geo. Taylor, sen. Henry Koser, sen. II. Shrouder, sen.

BEMOVAL.

H VANORSDEL, Tailor. of Gettysburg and the public general-

REMOVED HIS SHOP

to the building occupied as the Post Office, released from a dangerous snare; he con- Mr. Willis was a plain honest man, and next door to the American Hotel (Kurtz's) soled himself by reflecting that she was did not altogether like the proceedings of and directly opposite the Bank of Gettys: unworthy of his love—and, if he was not the day, but his daughter was old enough ful, quick and selfish!—he was a model the Allegany Mountains and robbed him of scurvey, when other remedies have failed. kinds of work in his line of business in the not so unhappy as he expected to be. He when he essayed to give her advice. neatest and most durable manner, and at vory moderate prices.

stantial manner, and on the most accommodating terms.

The Subscriber feels grateful for past encouragement, and respectfully solt. ful Edward, thought herself entitled to se- It appeared that he was not only a married Talleyrand were given to the grave. A- him up in the fed clothes, and, while he matter, and the claim was referred to Const cits a continuance of the same. August 10, 1841.

THE CARLAND.

- "With sweetest flowers enrich'd

From various gardens cull'd with care."

FOR THE STAR AND REPUBLICAN BANNER.

TO A WILD DEER.

BY MRS. LYDIA JANE PEIRSON.

Thou standest on the mountain side,

And might'st defy the world to shew

Where laurel boughs entwine,

A fairer form than thine.

And in thy full dark eyes

In heauty's bosom lies.

The trembling dove of innocence

The limbs as fine and free?

Who to the music of the breeze

Can lithely dance like thee?

Rear'd in her holiest bow'rs;

Where are the feet as light as thine,

Thou'rt lovely Nature's loveliest child,

Thy drink is of her brightest streams,

The zephyr fraught with balm, and light,

Thy food her sweetest flow'rs.

And living melody,

This is the spirit of thy life

Thou beautiful and free.

Yet innate fears all undefin'd

And thou hast many cruel foes

All eager for thy life;

Are throbbing in thy breast.

Thy fleet foot is thy sole defence,

Thou art not armed for strife.

Yet guardian spirits it would seem

And whisper warning to thy soul

Thou nippest daintily the flow'rs

Whose incense round thee flows,

And glittering rills from mountain springs

Thou'rt nerv'd and strong for flight.

Thine ebon hoofs are gen'd with dew

Fresh from the mountain rose.

The metody of singing birds

Is all around thee thrown.

Send forth their lute-like tone

Yet if a wing come on the wind,

This world has many a timid fawn,

Who might escape life's bitterness

To drink of nature's own pure streams

Where the free light and dew of heaven

And feed amongst the bowers

Expand and teint the flowers.

If they would heed the spirit voice

That warns them soft and low.

And flee the hunter, and the wolf,

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE FIRST OFFER.

DY MISS WINCHESTER

The error and the woe.

Linearr, Tioga co., Pa.

Young, beautiful and free,

If they would copy thee;

However soft and light,

With warning of a coming

Come ever to thine ear,

Of every danger near.

Sure harmless innocence like thine

Should dwell in peace and rest,

Inimitable is thy grace.

to reflect a little sorrowfully on the un- world beside. kind treatment she had given him. He almost as a superior being, and no one her conduct towards himself. "Then," came to be paid, which was ten dollars, nor to call out the militia of t spoke higher in his praise than Susan Wilreplied he with a bitter smile, "yeu have Jonathan requisted the boot to score it until counties to suppress the mob. lis, for be passed her window every day, learned that the sincere affection of a poor be returned from his voyage, promising veat a ball-and what was her ecstacy of to forbear. "I have ever prayed for your sixed on the cash, which was at last relucattentien during the evening, he very poand the disdainful looks she cast on those heart's fervent hope has been broken, and Jonathan remarked, shrewdly, that "it was waiting at the door, and when she thought she was in another world, and fan Littleton, who was now a widower, and er's house until she had gained the hope arm so as to cover that also. Having in that county. lover promised her when he should take bear the stigma of an old maid, she married business, he directed him to remain so un-at the house of Mr. Willis for the accommodation of a large party. Susan's lover had sent to the city to purchase a suit of val the very sun itself; he also gave orders to have a maid accompany it, who should be capable of waiting on his soon to be new bride in fashionable style. The young people began to say among themselves-"Miss Willis is about leaving us, and why should we part with unfriendly feelings? 'Tis true she has some faults, and who among us has not? Yet I must confess I always thought hera fine girl on the whole, and it is a downright shame that we have so long Susan Willis was a sprightly, cherry-reglected her; it is no more than just for us cheeked girl of seventeen when she made now to make amends for our past conduct." her conquests. Edward Littleton loved It was, therefore, unanimously agreed upon her with all the sincerity of a young and among the young villagers to go, on a parardent soul, and made her honorable pro ticular day, and make Miss Willis a formal the world she had made a conquest; but reached this rural hamlet-and so, all of a he would have a decided unswer, she laugh. mission. After waiting for the usual salu herself would become the wife of a poor me. them. After many ceremonies he introhis eyes on her face with a determined lis was siting, and immediately retired .look, he asked her if she was in earnest -- At the expiration of half an hour he re-'Susan," continued he, "you ought to who, when she had courtisied very ceremohave told me so before-why bave you niously to the ladies, informed them that received my attention so loug, and by she was going to take an airing and would had no sooner left her than he felt himself them:

had some sense, before they should choose

Splendid preparations were now making a companion for life.

applied himself closely to business, and in About this time a covered carriage ar-In the mean time Susan, proud of her and returned, having the city beau in close conquest, and dreaming herself as much custody. They conveyed him to the juil 1f-20 from among the village beaux; but her on other goods, for which crime he was Prince and died as such.

and the young men were so disgusted with Miss Susan. The rillage girls, of course, so, from the time allotted to such a disdisposition, no one, either old or young, not harm poor Susan-she had other and He made himself necessary to the raling thought any better of her on that account. heavier troubles: Many weeks passed power, whether it was Republican, Impe-Time rolled rapidly along and Susan away and she was seen by no one except riel, Despotie, or constitutionally Monarchiconsulting her. There was, also, some she remembered with agony the first offer, never did so until he could no longer save stranger in the village who would, per and thought she was pursued by the just them, or until his support would only have chauce, bow politely, if not significantly, to judgment of heaven for her treatment of runed himself. If he betrayed the govsometimes ask her to take a morning ride and had not her pride and love of admira-creating, he never did so until they began ger shot off. in his carriage - but what of this? No one tion been so great, she certainly would to totter beneath their own weight. Forprofessed what Edward had, and she began have married him in preference to all the tunately his interests kept pace with the sometimes be seen riding in his own car the parlor but Edward himself. A faint ray crushed him beneath its ruins!" riage with his wife and two blooming of hope crossed her bosom at the sight of well on the splenders which her new less age of thirty-five, when rather than thus got the unsuspecting Dutchman into her to the city. She thought much on a widower, without fortune, good nature, til he cut two spigots for the holes, and thing to behold a family in their devotions. the difference between her first and second or anything else to recommend him, except walking out to his wagon, jumped in and Who would not be moved at the tear that offer, and very gravely said she had always an ugly person and a large family of chil. was off, leaving his cicdulous friend to trembles in the mother's eye, as she looks to believed it best for girls to wait until they dren. It was now that the unhappy Susan make wine of his cider the best way he heaven, and pours forth her fervent supplibegan to feel in reality the consequences could, and to get back the ten dollars cations for the welfare of her children't of her first errors, poverty and the unkind-when he caught him.

Who can look with indifference upon the ness of her sorrows; yet she sometimes thought if she could forget the past, she should be comparatively happy. Fresuspended.

the first offer!" TALLEYRAND AND HIS TIMES. to be admired; she rode with him to show sending compliments, cards, &c., had not rock, washed by a thousand parting billows, iron worked up for him by a blacksmith -and there too, dies his military glory, in the vicinity. your conduct taught me to hope that my not return until late in the evening, but her great who leave behind them immortal this individual. warm affection was reciprocated?" "Ha! father would entertain them. They all monuments of high, generous deeds, or of The corroboration being thus strong, er great, but stand as giant models of de former residence, as a murderer!

ultogether so happy as he might be, he was to act for herself—as she used to tell him of untiring watchfulness; was ungrateful $400 or $1400—says the "chap" said he This discovery was made in France. It when it suited his purposes-pious when it had $3000 with him, but after killing him is singular that boiled potatoes do not seem tended to his advancement—forgiving he found, one convict says $400, another to have the same good effect. the course of a few months married an rived at the village, and three strangers when he could gain by its influence-un- says $1400. Crater at this time owns a He carnestly invites his nountry amiable woman, who brought him not only alighted from it. They were seen conver- compromising when necessary-and disso- large farm, worth from $7,000 to $12,000. friends to favor him with a call—they may much personal worth but a handsome esting with some of the inhabitants, when late when left to himself. If he was esting with some of the inhabitants, when late when left to himself. If he was esting with some of the inhabitants, when late when left to himself. If he was esting with some of the inhabitants, when late when left to himself. If he was esting with some of the inhabitants, when late when left to himself. If he was esting with some of the inhabitants, when late when left to himself. If he was esting with some of the inhabitants, when late when left to himself. If he was esting with some of the inhabitants, when late when left to himself. If he was esting with some of the inhabitants, when late when left to himself. If he was esting with some of the inhabitants when left to himself. If he was esting with some of the inhabitants with a call—they may be a second with the proceeded to the house of Mr. Willis, sential to his day, God grant that we may never see his day again!

changes of the time; and he was never so

Susan began to think in good earnest that that had occurred since she there last part. his way to the West with a two horse she would be under the sad necessity of ed with him, she burst into a flood of tears. load of notions, put up at the house of an the county, and examined their persons and living a life of "single blessedness," when He approached and seated himself near her honest Dutchman, between Harrisburg and papers. This is about the substance of a new personage came to pass a few months |-inquired in a voice, not of reproach but! Wheeling, and as it happened, was detained the report, as we heard it. We trust it is in the village. He were a gold watch, pity, how she had enjoyed herself since there three or four days by a heavy rain, not so had as is represented. We still rode in an elegantly gilt chaise, and what they had last conversed together. She which made the roads and streams impas was more than all, he came directly from freely confessed all her folly; and acknowlessble. At last the sky brightened up, and the city. The villagers looked upon him edged she had felt deeply condemned for he hitched to, but when the reckoning has gone on with a petition to the Goverand always took particular pains to make mechanic is not to be despised." His words ry honestly to discharge it then. This did her a fashionable bow. She once met him cut her to the heart, and she entreated him not suit the Dutchman, however, who indelight when, after having shown her much happine s, Susan," he said, looking in her tantly paid him. It was then a custom as face with an expression of tenderness that it is now, to treat a traveller upon the paylitely offered to escort her home. This was induced her for a moment to believe that ment of his bill, and the tavern keeper was around her as he conducted her through its best and most intense feelings suddenly would make fine wine, and said he had a

From the Auburn Journal of Wednesday. A PAINFUL TRANSITION .- On Monday quently when the carriage of Edward Lit- last the term of service of one of the conapparel, which he declared would out ri tleton passed, she would retire and weep, victs in the Auburn State prison, named bosom is not awakened the finest feeling. until the faculties of life seemed almost Phillip Crater, came to an end. But by on beholding a tender child, in the beauty fore he had been suffered to taste for a of its innocence, folding its little hands in At length she left her husband and re- moment the breath of freedom in the open prayer, and imploring this invisible, yet turned to her father's house, where she air, an officer was ready to take him again passed the remainder of her days Ever into custody. It seems that he was sent brothers and sisters, and its playmates? after, when conversing with young people here four years ago from Tioga county, on the subject of matrimony, she would say having been found guilty of theft; and that to them with a heavy look-"Look well to during his term of service, he had told three said a comical fellow to an old "young of the other convicts, either by way of confession or braggadocia, we know not of parliament by which all ludges with which, but likely the latter, that he had, small mouths are to be provided with hus-"This world have called him great!- while keeping a tavern about twelve years bands?" Who are the great? The hero of a gory since, murdered a pedlar-that his body field? The lion slays with milder cruelty, had first been deposited under his wood The victor of the castles of the sea? The bouse, but was afterwards burried near the ardent soul, and made her honorable pro ticular day, and make Miss Willis a formal silent rock is more effective in its might. Susquehanna river, about six miles from wag—and another clause of the act proposals; she was pleased with his prefer. visit—the ladies in the afternoon and the The conquerer of a thousand thrones?— Oswego. And that the pedlar's wagon vides that all those who have large mouths ence, allowed his visits, because she loved gentlemen in the evening. The custom of Where died Napoleon? On a sea girt had been by him broken to pieces, and the shall have two busbands each!"

when, after having frequently urged her sudden full fifteen or twenty belles stood at upon the subject of marriage, he told her the door of Mr. Willis, knocking for admight have been regarded as a meteor of by the convicts to the keeper, who therethe sky, flashing a moment in its fiery upon took some pains to inquire into their ed, and told him she hoped he did not think tation of "come in," the door was suddenly course, then lost forever. Men are to be truth. On searching on the spot designa king of the advance of the age in knowlthat one so young and so much admired an opened and the city beau stood before judged like deeds-by their effect, and those ted as the one on which the corpse had edge of which so much boasting is made. alone are good and great which have a been buried, the shin bones of a man were intimates the belief that if people generally chanic. He blushed deeply, then fixing duced them into the parlor, where Mr. Wil- tendency to mankind. He alone is great found, the river having so far washed a would act up to what they know already, who rises by his moral force above the way the bank as to exhibit them about fif a more satisfactory and substantial imchance of fate; who builds himself a pedes. Item inches below the surface,—the feet provement would take place. "If to do," "never more so," she earnestly replied. turned, with Susan leaning on his arm, tal, against whose base the surges of mis bones were washed off and gone; and on says Shakspeare, "were as casy as to fortune waste their strength in vain, and on inquiring of the blacksmith it, was ascer- know what t'were good to do-then chapels whose surface sleep the rays of melting tained that he had, not far from the time had been churches, and poor men's cottatemptation without effect. Those men are designated, worked up old wagon iron for ges, princes' palaces;" or again with the ESPECTFULLY informs the citizens you trust every smile, then," she sneemed instantly rose without replying, and hurried their genius, which may serve as beacon the sheriff of that county was here, and ly replied. Edward felt his heart break- from the house, each secretly promising lights to posterity. And those who have by a little after eight on the morning of his teaching." ing-and, after wishing her a long and hap herself nover again to bestow her attention by acts, however bold or renowned, virtue, release he was moving out of the village in py life, he hurried from her presence. He on one whom she knew to be unworthy of honor, religion and of human life, are nev- the Ithica stage towards the place of his

> This same being boasts (to the convicts) "Talleyrand was not great-he was art. also of having "knocked over" a fellow in employed as a specific against the sea mouth, (N. H) who had been ill used by treasury for payment for the bloodhounds "And here we leave him. A few years her husband, on finding him enjoying the used in the Florida war. The department admired by all as she had been by the faith- for safe keeping until they should depart - only have elapsed since the remains of comforts of a sound sleep, quietly sewed declined having any thing to do with the ect such a husband as she should prefer man/and a bankrupt, but had put his hand mong his other honors he was created was in that defenceless situation, gave him gress. So it seems the "allies" are not paid la wound thrashing.

vanity soon became obvious to every one; now arrested. This was a mighty blow to | "Thus we have bastily, and necessarily | A Mon in Arkansas.-Madame rumor, says the Batesville News of the 10th her airs of coquetry that they all forsook laughed a dittle about the wedding party course, followed this dissolute boy to an instant, gives us an account of an outraher; it was also known that she had ill treat which was to come from the city, and aged grave-crowned with public honors grows mob in Van Buren gounty. The ed Edward Littleton - and, as he was bethey also binted bout the waiting mand at every step, yet ever mistrusted and feer circumstances, as we have learned them, loved by all for his steady and amiable and the dress like the sun; but all this did ed. What was the secret of his success? are as follows:--Some three or four weeks since, at the Court of Van Buren, a young man of the name of Riser was engaged in a fight with one of Samms, when Butram found herself twenty two years of age, with- her kindred, and they spoke doubtfully of cal. To what can we liken him? To threw a rock and broke his skull. Butram out having had the second offer. It is true her recovery from the dreadful shock which nothing but himself. Whatever may be was arrested and committed for trial, but that a narrow faced bachelor of fifty once she had received. At length however, she and of him, he certainly pursued a course subsequently made his escape. A mon asked her father's consent to address her, appeared again-but it was with such a most beneficial to his country. When then of some fifty persons gathered up and and she fretted a whole week and would look of humbled pride that not even her di- France was entrusted to his care he ever intempted to commit violence upon the not go to meeting, because her prudent pa- rect enemy felt a disposition to upbraid carried her through the diplomatic contest father of the young man who was killed. rent gave him a negative answer without her, or hough at her misfortunes. Now with honor. If he betrayed his friends, he The old man then with some his friends, barricaded his house, and the mob commenced firing into it, which they riddled . considerably with their balls-n female her as he passed her window, and even the faithful Edward. She had loved him, ernments he had been instrumental in child, daughter of Mr. Kiser, had her fin-

Mr. Kiser, by some means, got a messenger off for aid to this county, to assist him in getting off with his family, but on Her mind was occupied with these blind to danger that he did not desert the their arrival Mr. Kiser and five other of was now in easy circumstances, and might thoughts one day, when who should enter edifice whose approaching fall would have his friends, who were in the house with him, were missing. What has become of them no one knows. The mob, at the children. Three years passed away, and him; but when she remembered the scenes YANKER STORY .- A Yankee pedlar, on last account, were still in arms, and had stopped a number of persons passing through hone that the matter may be greatly exaggerated. A messunger, we understand, nor to call out the militia of the adjoining

From the Pittsburg Gazette.

WONDERFUL CONTRAST -- About 47 years ago, in 1796, Allegheny, Washington and Fayette counties, were full of distileries, and an immense quantity of whiskey was made and sold. The United indeed a moment of triumph to the neglect he would forget her faults, and his former never backward in following the custom - States, in order to raise a revenue, made a ed Susan. She had caught the city beau, affection would return. But when the But on handing out a mug of clear cider, law to tax it. The people refused to pay, rebelled and raised an army called the Western Insurrection army, and marched the crowded room, were such as could not wrecked, it is like a blasted tree, seared secret by which, through a short process, to Pittsburg. Gen. Washington sent an easily be misunderstood; the fine gilt chaise with the high lightning of heaven, and can be could convert cider into the best of wine. army of about 3000 U. S. troops and volnever again be verdant! Edward felt sen- This put mineherr on the nettles, possess unteers to suppress it. They urrived when found herself seated within it, and the sible of this, and, although he could freely it he must, so finally he took up the Yan-the Whiskey army disbanded. In the wheels running merrily around, she almost pity and forgive the repenting fair one, he kee upon his offer of putting the cider in year 1615 and '16, the United States put could never love or trust her more. After to process of wine-making for ten dollars on a direct tax, and perhaps then we had cied herselfan angel. From this evening giving her some salutary advice he left her down, and fifty dollars more when he 1500 stills in Washington and Alleghony the stranger was an almost constant visiter to the bitterest reflection, that it is casier to returned, if it succeeded to the land-counties. Now there is not perhaps 15 at the house of Mr. Willis-and Susan lose than regain a lover. Some months after lord's mind. Jonathan was accordingly still houses in the two counties. A few was often heard to draw comparisons be he married again, and his second choice conducted to the cellar, and having days ago a gentleman, who was United tween the manners and the equipage of the was not in error to his first. Susan's cup procured a half inch auger, bored a hole in S. Deputy Collector in Washington county city beau and those of the rustic youth of of disappointment was now full, for she had one end of the hogshead of cider, and did in 1816, informed us that there was then her own village. She was seen frequently all along secretly indulged the hope that rected mincherr to apply his thumb to it 976 still houses taxed, and $78 000 colriding in the gilt chaise, and then she loved she should yet win him back to her love. while he bored a like hole in the other end, lected of taxes for the United States; and to pass the neat white mansion of Edward She lived a solitary being in her fath. and then ordered him to stretch his other now perhaps there is scarce ten distilleries

FAMILY DEVOTION -It is a beautiful aged father, surrounded by his family, with his uncovered locks, kneeling in the presence of Almigthy God, and praying for their happiness and prosperity? In whose eternal Father, to bless its parents, its

Husbands - "Miss Lucretia Elvira," maid," "have you heard of the recent act

"Indeed! no,"-replied the lady, screwing up her mouth with a pucker.

"It is a fact, however-continued the

"O my!" exclaimed the lady, epening her mouth as big as a bucket, "what a cu-

A writer in the Louisville Journal, speafair Portin-"I could more easily teach twenty what were good to be done, thin be one of the twenty to follow mine own

A potatoe diet is found greatly in improve the quality of the blood. Hence roasted or baked potatoes are successfully

The Broodnounus-The New York Express says,-We hear that a demand has been presented to the United States