Important Notice!

COBEAN'S NEW PATENT COOK STOVE.

THE Subscriber has just finished and put in operation, a NEW PATENT COOKING STOVE, which he considers equal if not much superior to any other article of the kind now in use. The wants of the community have been the cause that induced the inventor to take this matter in hands, and he flatters himself that he has accomplished what others have failed to do, by producing an article which must and will be a great saving to every family that uses it. This Stove will suit large or small families and can be kept up with LESS FUEL and LABOR than the Hathaway or any other Stove now being used. Washing, baking, ironing, cooking, and in fact all the culinary operations of a large family can be kept going at one and the same time, without any extra trouble to the person attending it. Besides the saving of fuel, the difference in the prices of this stove is a material consideration, being at least TWENTY PER CENT LESS than the Hathaway! A. COBEAN. September 20, 1845. 1c

DIAMOND TONSOR

S. R. TIPTON. FASHIONABLE Barber and Hair-Dresser, has removed his "Temple" to the Diamond, adjoining the County Buildings, where he can at all times be found prepared to attend to the calls of the public. From long experience he flatters himself that he can get through all the ramifications of the Tonsorial departments, with such an infinite degree of skill as will meet the entire satisfaction of all who may submit their chins to the keen ordeal of his razor. He hopes, therefore, that by attention to business and a desire to please, he will merit as well as receive a liberal share of public patronage. The sick will be attended to at their private dwellings. Oct. 17, 1845. 1f

SUPERIOR COOK STOVE.

THE attention of the public is respectfully called to S. BENZ'S PATENT COOK STOVE as an article superior to any yet offered to the public for cooking purposes. It was got up expressly to answer the wants of the Farmer, and will not fail to please all who may require a good sized COOK STOVE. One of the many advantages possessed by this Stove is, that water, apple-butter, clothing, &c. can be boiled in a large copper kettle at the same time, whilst cooking is doing for 20 or thirty persons. It is decidedly superior for BAKING—the heat being completely under the control of the cook, who can apply it to the bottom as well as to the top of the oven, and thus bake with perfect regularity. It is unnecessary to give any further detail of its advantages. Please refer to the subjoined certificate from Wm. F. Elliott, Esq., Patent Agent, of Washington City—Many testimonials, equally flattering could be furnished, but this may suffice. Those who want a superior Cook Stove, will do well to try this article—they are warranted or no sale. S. BENZ. Boonsboro', Md., May 19, 1843.

WASHINGTON, May 3, 1843. To Samuel Benz, Esq., Dear Sir—I have tried the Cooking Stove that you sent me, and am well pleased with its performance. My expectations are more than realized. I believe it will perform more cooking in less time, and with less fuel than any of the various Cooking Stoves that I have tried during 25 years' connection with the Patent Office. Its merits need only be more generally known to insure its fame throughout the country. I am at length satisfied in the culinary department of my domestic establishment—for which I acknowledge myself indebted to your genius and enterprise. I remain very respectfully, yours, &c. WM. F. ELLIOTT, Patent Agent.

THIS DAY APPOINT J. D. PAXTON & Co., MY AGENTS for the State of Pennsylvania, for the sale of Territory and otherwise, of my Cook Stove. SAMUEL BENZ. September 17, 1843.

FARMERS AND OTHERS

Are respectfully informed that the undersigned have now on hand, and are manufacturing the above Stoves, so that they are now prepared to fill all orders with which they may be favored, upon the shortest notice. J. D. PAXTON & Co. Caledonia, Franklin co., Sept. 29, 1845. 1c

The Ladies' National Magazine, FOR 1846!

EDITED BY MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS! Under the new law the Postage on this magazine is less than on any other: there is a saving, from the old rates, of fifty cents a year. Why pay three dollars, and heavier postage, for the other magazines when this, in every respect, is their equal!

SAVE YOUR MONEY! The press says that, for 1845, we have rivalled the three dollar books. Our aim shall be, in 1846, to surpass them. Capital, long experience in the business, a large subscription list, and the most talented corps of contributors, will enable us to make the BEST LADIES' PERIODICAL IN THE WORLD. The improvements for the year 1846 will be of the most extensive and costly character. The fashion plates will be executed in a style of elegance never before attempted in this country. The January number will be a gem, rivaling the annuals in the splendor, if not in the number of its plates. Besides a superb mezzotint by Sartain, the prettiest affair he has yet engraved, there will be an ILLUMINATED TITLE PAGE, after the style of the gorgeous manuscripts of the feudal ages. This elegant illustration is the first thing of the kind attempted for a magazine, either here or abroad: in this, as in other matters, we anticipate all others. It will be executed in five colors, and be of rare and surpassing beauty. This embellishment alone will be worth a half a year's subscription.

The January number will appear in new type, cast expressly for us; and, in every respect, the mechanical execution of the work will be improved.

THE WASHINGTON FAMILY. The February number will contain two superb mezzotints; and either in that number, or in one immediately after, will appear a mezzotint of the Washington Family; to possess this picture ought to be a sufficient inducement for every patriotic American to subscribe. In a word, we shall take our readers by surprise, next year, with the beauty, costliness and utility of our illustrations. SARTAIN'S GLOUIOUS MEZZOTINTS.

The Mezzotint style of engraving will be the principal one employed by us for 1846. We have made such arrangements that no other magazine can rival us in this department. We have excelled all others, in the number and splendor of our mezzotints for 1845; but we shall do far greater things in 1846. Besides a series of mezzotints, we shall give Line and Stipple Engravings, Scriptural Illustrations, A Gallery of Beauty, A Portrait of Mrs. Stephens, &c.

In its Literary Department this Magazine gives ORIGINAL articles, unlike the namby-pamby catch-pennies, which copy old stories from newspapers. All the best female writers of America contribute to its pages; it is a work of PATRIOTISM! therefore, to subscribe for this book instead of the others, which are re-prints of English ones. Our Editor is Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, the FEMALE SCOTT OF AMERICA!! She is assisted by Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, Mrs. Osgood, Ellet, Dimmes, Pierson, Orne, and by the unrivalled author of "Conquest and Self-Conquest." The best WRITERS OF BOTH SEXES contribute to the variety of our pages. A prize tale of the South, founded on incidents in the Revolution, will appear, by the author of "Marion's Men." Our Domestic Stories, by Ellen Ashton, F. E. F., and others, inculcating useful morals, which have been so popular, will be continued. As a proof of the superior character of our literary contents, we may mention the fact that more articles are copied from us by the press than from any other Magazine. This is because no other periodical is so exclusively a mirror of woman's mind, or so thoroughly devoted to her tastes or interests.

FASHIONS FROM PARIS. This Magazine has long maintained the reputation of giving the most correct fashions, accompanied by full letter-press descriptions; and this, to country subscribers especially, is a great desideratum. We get our Fashions in advance from Paris, so we can never be beaten in this department, but will always remain ahead! Each month, from a variety of Patterns, the Fashions are selected, engraved, and colored for us ahead of all rivals! To each plate is added a full letter-press description, besides information on all the latest styles. The other Magazines have long been mere copyists of this one, which has now become, in our eastern cities, the Text-Book of Fashion! So energetic are we in this department, that we have often actually published the Fashions here before LONDON Magazines. Of these assertions we challenge denial!

THE HOME DEPARTMENT. To render our periodical a FAMILY Magazine, as well as a lady's book, we give every month, New Receipts for Housewives, Patterns for Embroidery, Lace Work, &c. &c., thus making a sort of vade mecum, indispensable to every female, but especially to those in the country, who would learn the latest improvements in the city.

A USEFUL HINT. All the other Magazines are intended for amusement: They have no higher plan in view. This one, on the contrary, supplies a want long felt, for it gives the sex, monthly, the Latest Fashions, the Newest Receipts, the City Chat, and every New Improvement. This it does, alike to the lady in the Atlantic States, and the one in the far West, and on the same day in the month. What lady can do without this Magazine? Fitted for a "Home Book" and "Boudoir Companion" alike, it is already perused by tens of thousands, and will be, eventually, in the hands of every American woman.

THE TERMS. By a rigid adherence to the cash system, we are enabled to publish this Magazine at the very lowest rate compatible with merit, viz: Two Dollars a Year. A trashy affair, not to be relied on in the fashion department, with old plates and nothing original, might be got up cheaper, and people gulled out of their money; but we issue a work of reputation, and expect to perform what we promise! To induce large numbers to subscribe in the same neighborhood, we offer the following terms to clubs:— 3 Copies, --- $5.00 | 7 Copies, --- $10.00 5 Copies, --- 7.50 | 10 Copies, --- 20.00 PREMIUMS.

To repay persons for getting up Clubs, we offer the following premiums: For a club of three or a club of five, our "Annual, with Washington's Portrait in it." For a club of seven, or for a club of sixteen either the Annual, or an extra copy of the Magazine. A specimen number sent when desired.

Address, Post Paid, C. J. PETERSON, No. 98 Chestnut St., Philadelphia. Old clubs renewed on old terms! Where money is remitted by a draft on the Philadelphia Post Office, a notice to the P. M. here, as well as a draft to us, must be forwarded.

N. B.—One copy of the Ladies' National" and one copy of "Sear's Family Magazine" for three dollars. Two copies of the "National" and one of either of the weekly newspapers of Philadelphia, for five dollars.
