

HERR'S HOTEL,
Harrisburg, Pa.

I BEG leave to inform the Public that I have left Philadelphia, and am now located in Harrisburg, the seat of the Executive and State Government of Pennsylvania, where I now occupy the recently kept by Mr. MATHEW WILSON.

HOTEL,

This spacious building having been purposefully planned and erected for a Hotel of the first class, is not surpassed, if equalled, by any establishment in Pennsylvania, and having undergone a thorough renovation, the Parlors, Rooms and Chambers are now fitted up in a style that combines elegance with comfort and convenience.

My Table is pledged to be supplied with the best fare the Markets can produce; the charges at the same time being as moderate as any of the best regulated establishments elsewhere. In short, no exertions shall be spared on my part, or on the part of every member of my household, to make it what it should be, in the Capital of one of the most populous, wealthy and interesting States of the Union.

With these promises, accommodations and facilities, and the fact that the Hotel is most eligibly situated, with confidence I most respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

Great Literary Enterprise!

Smith's Weekly Volume.

Second year.—The Cash System carried to its utmost limit—ten copies for $2 50 per annum each!

THE WEEKLY VOLUME,

A Select Circulating Library—For Town and Country.

On the first Wednesday of January, 1846, commences, at Philadelphia, the second year of "Smith's Weekly Volume," a Select Circulating Library for town and country, on the plan of Wadlee's, at a greatly reduced price, of a larger size, and new type. Conducted by the original, and for the first seven years, sole Editor of Wadlee's Library.

THE publisher has the pleasure of announcing that the success of this periodical is such as to insure its continuance upon a permanent footing. A probation of one year, during which more than one hundred thousand of our Weekly Volumes have spread over the land, has established us, we believe, in the good opinions of many; we hope to be confirmed in this pleasant position, and to acquire new friends and well-wishers.

We may venture to assert, that there have been included in our past pages many books and essays of first-rate merit; there have been displayed wisdom, and wit, and humor—true poetry and story; knowledge has been mingled with lighter matter, and we trust made agreeable. We may the less hesitate to ascribe to the various works these eminent qualities, since they are mostly not productions of our own, but from the pens of authors of admitted talent, many of whom are well known, and some of them enjoying a high and undoubted celebrity.

Our plan embraces the publication of the newest and best books in the various departments of TRAVELS, VOYAGES, SKETCHES, BIOGRAPHY and MEMOIRS, in short, the whole range of polite literature, and including translations made expressly for the work. The editor does not, however, sacrifice at the shrine of mere novelty in any of these departments. When a new book does not offer of the required character, he will as before, extend his research among the numerous works which he has already within his reach, besides the many which are afforded by his regular importations from Europe. From the arrangements now completed, all books of merit or popularity come under his inspection, by the regular steam-ships, and his situation as Librarian to the Philadelphia City Library, still the largest in America, with his collateral connections, give him access to, and a knowledge of, the best and most extensive public and private collections on this continent. In addition he has the aid of many judicious literary friends to assist in pointing out suitable fare for his readers, who he has no doubt will be of that judicious class which will make it imperative on him to use the utmost diligence in furnishing good & wholesome literary aliment.

TERMS—"The Weekly Volume or Select Circulating Library," is printed on a double super-royal sheet, twenty-seven inches by forty, sixteen pages quarto, three columns on each, and mailed WEEKLY, with great care, so as to carry with perfect safety to the most distant post-office.

"The Journal of Belles Lettres." By thus increasing the size of the paper, we occupy, without decreasing the quantity of book matter, the two first pages as a Journal of Belles Lettres, formerly printed as a cover. This leaf while it becomes an introduction to the work that follows, contains also original literary matter and news, criticisms, lists of new books, with a guide to their respective merits, and in fact embraces what might properly be called the LITERARY MARKET. This mode of introducing the Journal matter is rendered necessary to pass the entire two periodicals through the post-office at the price of a single newspaper postage.

The whole is printed and finished with the same care and accuracy as book work. The fifty-two numbers form two volumes truly worthy of preservation, of four hundred and sixteen pages each, equal in quantity to twelve hundred pages, or three volumes of Rees's Cyclopaedia. Each volume is accompanied by a title page & index.

The weekly numbers are put up in a paper-cover, in Quarterly parts, for those who prefer that form; and mailed in that shape. The price is Four Dollars for fifty-two numbers of sixteen quarto pages each.

But, to facilitate the circulation and increase its public utility, the publisher offers the following extraordinary inducements to individuals to procure their friends and neighbors to unite in clubs and remittances, viz. I. A club of three individual subscribers, uniting their payments or remittances, shall receive three copies of the work for a year for Ten Dollars, or $3,33 each.

II. A club of five individual subscribers shall receive five copies of the work for Fifteen Dollars, or $3 each.

III. A club of ten individuals shall receive ten copies for Twenty-Five Dollars, or $2,50 each.

But in no case can the publication be forwarded unless the order is accompanied with the remittance, which may be made in notes of any solvent bank.

Subscribers' names for the new volume should be immediately forwarded. A limited number must be printed, and no disappointment can occur to those who remittantly forward a specimen number will be forwarded, without charge, to all who request it, post-paid; or may be procured at the publication office.

SUPERIOR COOK STOVE.

THE attention of the public is respectfully called to S. BENTZ'S FAMOUS COOK STOVE as an article superior to any yet offered to the public for cooking purposes. It was got up expressly to answer the wants of the Farmer, and will not fail to please all who may require a good sized COOK STOVE. One of the many advantages possessed by this Stove, is, that water, apple-butter, clothing, &c. can be boiled in a large copper kettle at the same time, whilst cooking is doing for 20 or thirty persons. It is decidedly superior to the various heating apparatuses used in the control of the cook, who can apply it to the bottom as well as to the top of the oven, and thus bake with perfect regularity. It is unnecessary to give any further detail of its advantages. Please refer to the subjoined certificate from Wm. F. Elliott, Esq., Patent Agent, of Washington City—Many testimonials equally flattering could be furnished, but this will suffice. Those who want a superior Cook Stove, will do well to try this article—they are warranted or no sale.

S. BENTZ,
Boonsboro', Md., May 19, 1843.

"WASHINGTON," May 3, 1843.

To Samuel Bentz, Esq.

Dear Sir—I have tried the Cooking Stove that you sent me, and am well pleased with its performance. My expectations are more than realized. I believe it will perform more cooking in less time, and with less fuel than any of the various Cooking Stoves that I have tried during 25 years' connection with the Patent Office. Yours truly, WM. F. ELLIOTT, Patent Agent.

TO SAMUEL BENTZ, Esq.
