FROM MEXICO_THE REVOLUTION COM. THE SPAD & BANDER.

By letters from New Orleans, and pers, we have further accounts from Mexico. The Revolution which was comnenced by the movements of Paredes, has been consummated, a new government formed, at the head of which he is placed, with a Cabinet as follows : Gen. Almonte, ate Minister to the U. States, of War; Lewis Panas, of Finance; Joaquindel Castello and Lanzas, (formerly Minister to the U. States,) of Foreign Affairs ; and the Bishp Beccova, of Justice.

Paredes was elected President by a convocation of Notables, two from each department. A Congress is to be called but no essential change is to be made in the guarantees of the Republic; "the actual ouncil to remain, to consult with the President in all serious state affairs; the authorities of the departments to remain, ex- a number of articles designed for this week's paepting those opposing the present plan; per. the judicial power to continue in the exercise of its faculties, as heretofore; previous political opinions to be respected.'
