

HERR'S HOTEL,
Harrisburg, Pa.

I DEB leave to inform the Public that I have left Philadelphia, and am now located in Harrisburg, the seat of the Executive and State Government of Pennsylvania, where I now occupy the WELL KNOWN recently kept by Mr. MATTHEW WILSON. This spacious building having been purposely planned and erected for a Hotel of the first class, is not surpassed, it is equalled by any establishment in Pennsylvania, and having undergone a thorough renovation, the Parlors, Rooms and Chambers are now fitted up in a style that combines elegance with comfort and convenience.

My Table is pledged to be supplied with the best fare the Markets can produce; the charges at the same time being as moderate as any of the best regulated establishments elsewhere. In short, no exertions shall be spared on my part, or on the part of every member of my household, to make it what it should be, in the Capital of one of the most populous, wealthy and interesting States of the Union.

With these promises, accommodations and facilities, and the fact that the Hotel is most eligibly situated, with confidence I most respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

DANIEL HERR,
Late of Herr's Hotel, Chestnut st. Phila.
Harrisburg, Pa. Nov. 7, 1845

GRAND JURY REPORT.

[PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE COURT.]

GRAND JURY Room, Jan. 27, 1846.
To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Adams County.

The Grand Jury for the January Session, 1846, beg leave to offer the following Report:—

That it is with feelings of unalloyed pride, gratification and pleasure they are enabled to state, that while our sister counties are rejoicing over their prosperity and happiness, and the gradual decrease of vice and immorality in their respective communities, we, of little Adams, can be still more grateful in being able to say, that in our population, numbering some twenty-five thousand souls, not a single case has been presented before the present Grand Inquest of the County of a criminal character—that our County Jail is tenanted, not having a solitary prisoner to answer to the calls of Justice—that not even a case of assault and battery has been presented to the present Grand Jury! Such a state of affairs is surely a cause of gratulation to every moral and peace loving citizen in our beloved county. The philanthropist and the Christian can warm his heart and cheer his soul with the reflections, that outrage, debauchery, drunkenness, quarrelling and every other crime, constituting vice and immorality, are taking their flight from amongst us, and that order, usefulness, and every kindly feeling of social order are taking their places.

The Grand Jury beg leave further to state, that they have visited the County Prison and that every thing about the establishment is in complete and ample order, and that the neatness and clearness every where displayed throughout the buildings and yard, reflects much credit on the Sheriff and his family.

They would also state, that, having visited the Alms House and Hospital, they find every thing in that department to be in good order, and the care and attention displayed upon the old and destitute poor now there, shows that the present steward (Mr. Cobean) is a humane and kind man.

In addition to these facts, the Grand Jury would also state, that the finances of our county are in the most flourishing condition. Not one dollar of debt now rests on the shoulders of the citizens of our County as a County. Our State taxes have been most promptly met by the action of our energetic Board of County Commissioners and our equally prompt tax-paying citizens—and the Commissioners now hold in their possession the receipt in full from the State Treasurer of all taxes against the County. Our county matters are also in the same desirable condition. No debt resting upon her, and without any extraordinary occasion of expenditure, she will be enabled to meet the annual expenses for the present year, by the least possible per centage (20 cents on the $100) on the Assessors valuation.

These facts are such, that we deem it our duty (and a pleasant one) as the Grand Inquest of the County, to make public, through a report to the Court and the people, from our body, and trust that the interest which all must feel in such a state of our affairs, will excuse this unusual course at present adopted by the Grand Jury.

The Grand Jury having no other subject to present to your honors, respectfully ask to be discharged.

LITERATURE FOR 1846.

The South's Literary Messenger is a monthly periodical, devoted to every department of Literature and the Fine Arts. It has been established more than 11 years, during which time it has stood at the head of American periodicals. It is published in the neatest style, and contains a great variety of interesting and instructive reading;—differing widely from a majority of our publications, in the solidity and utility of its contents.

Novels, Tales, Poems, Travels, Essays, Critiques, Reviews, Historical and Biographical Sketches, Papers on the Army, Navy, General Politics, and other National interests adorn its pages.

To the South and West it confidently appeals for support. Whilst it is distinctly the friend and advocate of the South and West, it is not sectional, having always circulated quite widely in the North and East, and having imparted a higher National Character to the Periodical Literature of the United States. Its motto is—

"In the Union and for the Union! In the South and for the South!"

But the South and West should especially cherish it as it is the only Literary Journal of long and high standing, within all their wide borders, and has vindicated and promoted their rights and interests. During another year it will seek to extend its usefulness and fame, and solicits the increased patronage of the public; and also invokes the aid of its present patrons in extending its circulation.

Its contributors are numerous—embracing professional and Amateur Writers of the first distinction. To the present efficient corps, new writers will be added, and neither trouble nor expense will be spared to make the work eminently worthy of patronage.

The twelfth volume of the Messenger, number CXXXIV, will commence on the 1st of January, 1846. Each number contains 64 Super Royal Octavo pages. It makes during the year a large and elegant volume.

REDUCTION OF POSTAGE.—In order to reduce the postage as much as possible, the Messenger will be published on lighter paper; but of the best quality. Subscribers are invited to send in their orders on the following liberal terms:

Single copy, $5 per annum.
Club of Two, 9 or $4 50 per copy.
Club of Five, 29 or 4 00
Club of Ten, 35 or 3 50

The Messenger for nothing.—Whoever will procure us 4 new subscribers and send $20, shall receive the Messenger gratis, or $4 in Money; and in the same proportion for a larger number of subscribers.

DAIMOND TONSOR

S. R. TIPTON,
FASHIONABLE Barber and Hair-Dresser, has removed his "Temple" to the Diamond, adjoining the County Buildings, where he can at all times be found prepared to attend to the calls of the public. From long experience he flatters himself that he can go through all the ramifications of the Tonsorial departments, with such an infinite degree of skill as will meet the entire satisfaction of all who may submit their chins to the keen ordeal of his razor. He hopes, therefore, that by attention to business and a desire to please, he will merit as well as receive a liberal share of public patronage. The sick will be attended to at their private dwellings.

SUPERIOR COOK STOVE.
Attention of the public is respectfully called to S. BENTZ'S FARMER'S COOK STOVE as an article superior to any yet offered to the public for cooking purposes. It was got up expressly to answer the wants of the Farmer, and will not fail to please all who may require a good sized COOK STOVE. One of the many advantages possessed by this Stove is, that water, apple-butter, clothing, &c. can be boiled in a large copper kettle at the same time, whilst cooking is doing for 20 or thirty persons that I have tried during 25 years' connection with the Patent Office. Its merit need only be more generally known to insure its fame throughout the country. I am at length satisfied in the culinary department of my domestic establishment—for which I acknowledged myself indebted to your genius and enterprise.

I remain very respectfully, yours, &c.,
WM. P. ELLIOTT, Patent Agent.

THIS DAY APPOINT J. D. PAXTON & Co., my AGENTS for the State of Pennsylvania, for the sale of Territory and otherwise, of my Cook Stove.

Protection against Loss by FIRE.
The "Cumberland Valley Mutual Protection Company," being incorporated by an act of the Legislature and fully organized and in operation under the direction of the following board of Managers, viz: Thomas C. Miller, John Moore, David W. McCullough, James Weakly, William Moore, Samuel Galbraith, Thomas Paxton, A. G. Miller, Philip Spangler, Samuel Woods, Abraham Kurtz, George Brindle, and Scott Caryl, call the attention of the inhabitants of Cumberland and Adams counties, to the cheapness of the rates, and the many advantages which this kind of insurance has over any other:

1st. Every person insured becomes a member of the company and takes part in the choice of officers and the direction of its concerns.
2d. For insurance no more is demanded than is necessary to meet the expenses of the Company and indemnity against losses which may happen.
3d. The inconvenience of frequent renewals is avoided by insuring for a term of five years.
4th. Any person applying for insurance must give his premium note for the cheapest class at the rate of 5 per centum, which will be $50 on the $1000, for which he will have to pay $2 50 for five years, and $1 50 for survey and policy, and no more unless loss be sustained to a greater amount than the funds on hand will cover, and then no more will be required than a pro rata share. These rates are much cheaper than those of other companies, except such as are incorporated on the same principles.
