The recipe for this medicine has been obtained from an Aurist of great kinds of reputation, who has found, from long observation, that deafness, in nineteen cases out of twenty, was produced either from a want of action in the nerves of hearing, or a dryness in the ears; his object, therefore, was to find something that would create a healthy condition of those parts. After a long series of experiments his efforts were at last crowned with success, in the discovery of this preparation, which has received the name of SCARPA's COMPOUND
