GRAND JURY REPORT.

Grand Jury Room, Nov. 18, 1846.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of Adams County.

The Grand Jury of the November Sessions of 1846 beg leave to report, that after examining the last-Report of the Grand Inquest of the County, the present Grand Inquest feel much regret in not being able sented to them of a criminal character," or "that our County Jail is tenantless."and the present Grand Inquest is compelithe march of morals, and has since the aforesaid last Report of the Grand Jury, fallen far behind the age of morality which tinguish her as one of the most enlightened among her sister counties. This we said Court at Gettysburg, the 21st day of are bound to confess as honest and truthtelling citizens, and as men sworn to do their duty; and this we confess in all sorrow and regret. Our Courts, since the Report spoken of, have been crowded with Sessions cases, which are a disgrace to our morals and a foul blot on our commuwhat this bad state of affairs can be imputhere is something rotten among us is not but also the Court and all moral citizens, to assist in finding out the causes which in our power to endeavor to root out the man, deceased. cancerous epidemic from among our peo-
