COUDERSPORT, POTTER COJNTY; PA, TLUERSDAY, JANUARY 14, 1853

VOLUME X X NOMBER. 28.

THE POTTER JOORNAL,

For the Potte
Ssow soxG.

From the Americta Presbyterian.
LPTTERS ONY CHILI.-NO. $\mathbf{I}$.
 Provincts-Rivers-Future Lettcrs.
Messks. Envors:-Most fof you and gone, aud budding Spriuge tiue eren now just rady to give place to earl Summe Yox.

 sults of ny observations in Soutl Ameri cas, and especially in the so styled Repul ca, and esspecial lic of CuI.I. lic of Cuini.
Muct that I have myself obserred in Chili since 1854 has, iudeed, been al ready described by other writers. I have, in fact, been surprised to find that so much has been rritten in Figlish, regard mag that add oher Spanish Awerican ing that and other Spanish Awericau coutries, during the last guarter of century. Still fuller, but not so reliable century. Stil fullef, but not so reiabble or valtuble eacounts of Chilian affar, have been given in Spanish, French, Ger man and Italian. . thable you with even But I will not trab the names of these vriters at present.- Capt. Wilkes (1839) and Lieut. Gilliss, Capt. Wilkes (1839) and Lieut. Gilliss (18+2-52) in their Narratives, have In their visits and explorationsing South ed Capt., Herndon to the "Villey of the Amazon." Amazon," (1851-53) and recently in that of Lieit. Plage to the La Piata and its adjacett countrie, the Narvivepart ment of the United States are descrvin of our warnest of our wannest gratitude. Thesc ecruan ly have mine, as has each of the rentle men who have this contributed to en marge the bound of our kuowledge in re gard to the countries they have visited.
Unfortunately, the published account Unfortunately, the published account of these travellers, being in the form o of these traveliers, being in the form of roluminous "Reports" to the Unite States States. Govermment, or to the .Naval Department, are not circulated amoug thie pirtment, are not circulated amoug the people as they should be. I am happy people as they should be. I am happy sto be able to vouch for their acarary, as far as Chili is concerred, and only wish that what Capt. Willes ana Lieut. Gil. liss have witten concerning Chili coild be reed as extensicels as possillc. It the regioa and shadorv of death," and us, who evioy $50^{\circ}$ many pivileges ns, Who evioy $50^{\circ}$ many mivileges an Hessingz in orat own nore favored home if the condition of thipgs in a countr like Chili could be accurately mad known.
I do pot pretend to ary that a, risiter as Capt. Wilkes was in Chili, iif 1839 chan know or tell all about ecerything there. This has nit, as yet chere. This has not, as yet, been as to any country in the world. A Ad yet the accumulated testinony of travellers, frow any country in he worla. Acd yet the accumulated testinony of travellers, from Herodotus down, has furnished ws witl

Eflecter fitistillamy

| as well stop business, and put business in the hands of the doctor. He who brouds the hands over redhot plans will end his days in a lunatic asylun. Both sleep and food are greatiy under the control of the will tory children, who refuse to cat when sct-   can't,', you are to say, ' You shat, must!' Then, bctuare of substituting stimulunts for nitrinent? This time, is one which wilk make ten thousand men go down to a drunkard's gmve. Brandy may take you through, bat it will be out of the wrong gate. Beware; too, of nervoussess. A hok brain is hite a nem candle put into a hot candlestick. It burns off at one cud, and melts off at the other; and is all mone ir a moment. "Don't iall tioo mutch. ut is wondefful how much a man may tulk hinself azay. Men talk over their troubles going up. Broadway-talk them over going over the fury-tall in their houses. Meet your ficiend with. a cheerful face. De not make a reel of your mind, to wind and unwind your business upon. every dily, Never let Yew York cross the ferry with you. Nerer let it cross your threshold, any more thanfyou would a wolf. Rest yourselves at hone. the curreatiof your life every night, in tho company of your wife and children. If do you good to bathe every day, some of you. Bathe in nusic. Try that. If you have no piano, no band of chorded instruments is half as sweet as the voice of an afiectionate wite and the prattle of chii- dren. Don't go bome to buriom in your bed as an auinal burroms in the, earth to hidt yourself. lipou hate bern in the habit of riding cut, don't sell your horses. Take your ride as you have bcen accustomed to- do-morning, afternoon; and evening. Love umsic. Find recreation. buy tickets to them, if the tines are hard , musie will do you good. Bevecre of un- sociableness. Now is the time to let the bucket go down to the very bottom of the well of friendship, and let it bring up cooling draughts." |
| :---: |

Marbied Life.-The folloming bean tiful and true sentiments from the pen of that charminy writer, Fredrika Brener, :nhose observations might well becoue rules of life, so appropriate are they to Las, betre nuif, diturbed a whole inaried ife, a sinall cause has often great counsequeaces. Fold not the arms together and sit idie. Laziness is the devils eushaion Do ion,", Do not ruan much froun home.
Oue's own hearth is of more worth thai gold. Mauy/a marriare, ruy fricnds, be. gins ilke. rocy moruing, and then falls anay like a stow-wreath. And rify, my friends? Beauue the married pair ueg.

 throyghts. Lavisis not all your lore to day, for remember that mariage has it to to-morrow, likewise, and its day after tomorrow, too. Spare, as cne may say, fuelfor whe wine fuel for the winter. Considet, my daught ers, what the word wifo expresses. Ith maried woman is the husbind domestic taith; in her hand he must be able to condide house and family; be able to entrust her the ley of his heart, as well as the key of his eating reom. His honor and his honate uader uer keeping-Hhis mell-bei:g is in iner hard. Think of this: rel-being is in her hard. Think of this.
Ind you, sons, be faithfal husbinds, and ood fathers, of fanilites. Act so that our wires shail esicem and love you The Art of Conversing. Madun. De Stael, one of the nost elenomn, was by no meazas an handsoune woman, so tar as nere beauty of feature is concerncd; but Byron, the most fastidiou concerncd; but Byron, the unost fastidious do za her face in fifteen ninutes, at the end of which time slye became positively beautiful. The art of concersation is a rare gift, and to be cultivated as one would cultivate. any desirable art. With some.
it is spontaneons faculty with all, it cin it is spontancons faculty; with all, it can perfection. An wid boak opon etiquette, aroong an innmense deal of twadde, contians some grians of ssund sense, which would proft all to heed. On the subject cate ivithout display, not to interrupt gate without proitabe speaker, nor dosire aubitiously to put in is wotd of one's own, to be to put in an wodd of one's own to bs anhanid of recering, or to be grudging

 And, also; that " one should reffect first What he is going to say, and then give it utterence.; be courteouis whici addressed, ap amiable in sociat intercourse, notainiming

Hatancition wate

 Leasing mecting before it is closed Whispering in mesting Gazing at strangers. Leaving a stauger, without, a seat A wint of reverence for supross Reading aded A wain of reverence for superiors Reading aloud in egapany ##ithoitt 10. Pheceiving a present without some II. ATe Rakion of gratitude.
Rourself tie
 Cokiug others in company. 15. To commence talking before others the througn. thers. 17. Commencing to eatas soon as you 18. In not listening to what onefsea gh in company-uniess you dogire io $\underset{\text { A Short Stont br Drckens. - Dic }}{\text { Dichself to it: }}$ A tells the following story of an A mori-un ca cisptain lat torate home the captain hai

Miswegots-The Red Wing SentiI says that in grading near the crossing skills and bones have been thrown up Day befire yesterdays, aú Indiar with his dian uound. HE stopped, and for hey rudely cast its contents out of their wiy, but suou orcrcome by his emotion, he conucneed sobbiug, aind then bat he comucnced sobbing, aid then sat down apon the ground, dreir hhis wifa and littic one to him, and wept like a ciila. The kind hearted laborrers in in pfy for his gain and, covered the: in the mond tose who witnessed it Love for the De.id.-The love that survives the tomb, says Irving, is one of he noblest attributes of the souil: It liais Its woes, it has likevise its delights naid whien the overvishelining burst of grief is allmed into the gentic tear of recollection, hen the sudden anguish and convulised ny is over, the present ruins of those most loved are softened away intopeniz day of its loveliness. Who would the metimes throw a passing clondover the ho Fould ore hour of grooni? Yet han song; there is remembinace of the harm of the liviag.
IN relation to rents, (says the Boston grearly ope-fialfof their income in this Erefore the denand for conomise, $;$ and as greatly fallen off. Fie heart of one co pir annum, for his pay the rent, hovise vacint, offered tor let than toh keep II shook present at 6300 . The tenant Hent was m höuse until per year.

