Chances of Lecompton.

Correspondence of the Philadelphia Press.

WASHINGTON, March 1, 1858.

The fate of Lecompton is sealed beyond redemption. The Southern men refuse peremptorily to concur in the President's declaration that the people of Kansas, under the Calhoun Coustitution, will have the right to modify and change its provisions previous to the prescribed time of 1864, not to say anything of a condition precedent affixed to the act of admission; and the Northern Democrats who have, up to this time, supported the Administration on this question, will go no further, unless such condition is agreed to and embodied in the law unmistakably.

Strenuous efforts have been exerted, day after day, to compromise these conflicting and fatal differences, without any apparent, or, indeed, so far as I can learn, without any real success. The consequences seem inevitable that these distractions will weaken the Lecomptonites. Already half of the South Americans, it is stated, are with Walker and Douglas, that the question may be referred back to the people of Kansas for a fair and final determination.

The Hon. Horace F. Clark will, I am told, vote against Lecompton as it is now presented. Other Democrats who opposed Mr. Harris's resolution of inquiry are expected to go with him.

The Kansas Investigating Committee will soon bring before the House the fact of their inability to go on with the duty imposed upon them. Their minutes will be spread before the public, that it may be seen in what manner the order of the House was defeated. Attempts will be made immediately to have an addition of two members to the Committee to be provided for by resolution, with the members to be named by the House instead of by Speaker Orr.

The New York Mercury,

THE

LARGEST TWO DOLLAR WEEKLY IN THE WORLD!

FIFTY-SIX COLUMNS OF CHOICE ORIGINAL MATTER IN EACH NUMBER.

Splendidly Illustrated.

TWENTIETH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.

A Golden Enterprise!

No other paper can boast of such a galaxy of talented and celebrated authors as the contributorial corps of the NEW YORK MERCURY, who furnish its columns, weekly, with the most absorbing and fascinating romances and stories ever perused.

DR. J. H. ROBINSON,
NED BUNTLINE,
LIEUT. J. FOSTER BRANDON,
T. HAMILTON VARANDA, and
R. H. NEWELL,

who are well known as the most successful and popular romancers of the age, constantly contribute their brilliant novelettes, for the mammoth pages of the MERCURY. And each number also contains more complete original stories and sketches—to say nothing of an immense amount of news and general miscellany—than any other two newspapers in America, without exception. In short, the NEW YORK MERCURY defies competition, and invites the most searching comparison. Its immense superiority over the little six-by-nine mushroon publications of the day will be apparent at the first glance.

We now offer, in addition to a paper fully one-third larger than any of its contemporaries, and replete with an unprecedented variety of interesting reading matter, the following

The Washington correspondent of The Chicago Times says:

Flippant letter-writers and journalists whose pens are employed in the interests of Lecompton, keep asserting that the admission of Kansas under the unsubmitted Constitution is a fixed fact, a thing already as good as eccomplished, that the Administration can and will press it through Congress immediately. Let not the public be humbugged by these assertions. Winter will close and Spring will come and go, and Summer too, for that matter, before the abomination will have passed over the Senate. The Opposition will dispute every inch of ground. The debate will be the most scorching which ever took place in Congress. I predict that before it is closed the most violent Lecomptonist will be ready and willing to withdraw from the conflict. The issue which will be presented to the American people will awaken the popular indignation to a hight which will make it uncomfortable to face."
