

valleys of the Washab and Ohio, you, the Democracy of Indiana, will stand as one and undivided...

Thanking you for the kind manner in which the committee, through you, have been pleased to speak of my humble services in behalf of the great Democratic doctrine of State and popular sovereignty...

ANOTHER 'SHRIEK'

Great News From Washington.

THE ADMINISTRATION DEFEATED. LECOMPTON REJECTED AGAIN.

The House Adheres to its Amendment. THE DEFICIENCY BILL REJECTED.

Two Administration Defeats in One Day.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE S. TRIBUNE. From Our Own Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, April 8—1 p. m. The Clerk is now calling the Yeas and Nays on the Deficiency bill...

WASHINGTON, Thursday, April 8—1 30 p. m. Mr. Montgomery has the floor, and will move to adhere...

WASHINGTON, Thursday, April 8—2 p. m.—Montgomery asks unanimous consent to take up the Kansas bill...

WASHINGTON, Thursday, April 8—2 30 p. m.—The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The plan of the Leocomptonites as disclosed to-day, is to take up the Kansas bill...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 9, 1853. The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious...

tion case, Mr. Marshall applied to Mr. Boyie, who declined releasing him, as he had made arrangements for his own absence...

The bill did not reach the Senate, and cannot be received before Monday, in consequence of that body's adjournment over...

The proposition for a conference would not be so resolutely resisted but for Speaker Orr's course in appointing the Committee of Fifteen...

The Deficiency bill was beaten by eighteen majority, and the House adjourned pending a motion to reconsider...

Bon McCulloch, an old Texas Ranger, and ex-Gov. Powell of Kentucky start immediately for Leavenworth...

Gen. Sam Houston has been mainly instrumental in getting Commissioners appointed, which plan was abandoned several months ago...

Col. Beaton is very feeble to-day, and is failing fast.

The Anti-Leocompton men feel glorious, and the Administration sad.

The plan of the Leocomptonites as disclosed to-day, is to take up the Kansas bill in the Senate on Monday...

The Administration is using its power to the full extent to insure success in this final struggle...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

The House, apparently contented with having shown its independence, yesterday reconsidered its vote deferring the Deficiency Appropriation bill...

person who has ought to buy will have it bought before that hour: Or if necessity should compel them at any time, by something unforeseen turning up, they can call upon you at your dwellings...

No merchant would refuse to open his store in cases of necessity. There is nothing more needed to bring this about than for the merchants themselves to agree to shut up at the proper hour which is universally practised to quit work...

Will Mr. Albert Palmer, Publisher of the New York Excelsior, (a pretty good paper, by-the-by,) be kind enough to answer two letters we have recently written to him?

We are invited to attend a State Editorial Convention in the Musical Fund Hall, Philadelphia, next Wednesday.

We are indebted to the publishers of "Littell's Living Age" for a copy of No. 1 of the new enlarged series.

The exchange is a movement on their part we have long desired to accomplish, but did not know how to get about it without subscribing regularly.

Littell's Living Age is published weekly at $6 per year, by Littell, Son & Co., Boston, Mass., and Stanford & Delisser, 637 Broadway, New York.

THE TRIUMPH COMPLETE. We print in another column the details of another great victory for FREEDOM at Washington.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Isaac Benson Esq., our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

The Potter Journal.

COUDERSPORT, PA., Thursday Evening, April 15, 1857.

T. S. CHASE, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

We regret that our friend O. CHAMBERLAIN, late of the Ellisburg Hotel, has moved out of the county.

We regret that our friend O. CHAMBERLAIN, late of the Ellisburg Hotel, has moved out of the county.

We are invited to attend a State Editorial Convention in the Musical Fund Hall, Philadelphia, next Wednesday.

We are indebted to the publishers of "Littell's Living Age" for a copy of No. 1 of the new enlarged series.

The exchange is a movement on their part we have long desired to accomplish, but did not know how to get about it without subscribing regularly.

Littell's Living Age is published weekly at $6 per year, by Littell, Son & Co., Boston, Mass., and Stanford & Delisser, 637 Broadway, New York.

THE TRIUMPH COMPLETE. We print in another column the details of another great victory for FREEDOM at Washington.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Isaac Benson Esq., our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our representative in the State Legislature gets the following clever and deserved compliment from the Harrisburg Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

chosen the straight-out Free-Soil ticket by about 1,000; while Debuque, usually two to one "Democratic," has elected a "People's Ticket" over the regular "Democratic" by 500.

Jefferson City, the capital of Missouri, also elects Free-Soil municipal officers, and the Michigan town elections, as well as several in our own State, have resulted in Republican triumphs.

But the victories are not entirely municipal—even States are "speaking out" against the great iniquity—Slavery which have heretofore gone with the minority of the present election.

Little Rhode Island also rebukes Senator Allen with a Republican Governor, Legislature, &c. "All is well that ends well."

The Journal is always ready "to speak out" upon any question interesting to the public.

On the duty of Republicans in the coming campaign we have already indicated our position.

On the duty of Republicans in the coming campaign we have already indicated our position.

On the duty of Republicans in the coming campaign we have already indicated our position.

On the duty of Republicans in the coming campaign we have already indicated our position.

On the duty of Republicans in the coming campaign we have already indicated our position.

On the duty of Republicans in the coming campaign we have already indicated our position.

On the duty of Republicans in the coming campaign we have already indicated our position.

On the duty of Republicans in the coming campaign we have already indicated our position.

On the duty of Republicans in the coming campaign we have already indicated our position.

On the duty of Republicans in the coming campaign we have already indicated our position.

On the duty of Republicans in the coming campaign we have already indicated our position.

On the duty of Republicans in the coming campaign we have already indicated our position.

On the duty of Republicans in the coming campaign we have already indicated our position.

him, as they have united in Congress to defeat Leocompton, we are with them. It is quite time the race of Douglasians was extinct.

The Hon. Simon Cameron on the Army Bill.

We think Mr. Cameron is not very fortunate in his votes, and still less so in his reasons for those votes.

We gave last week his excuse for failing to vote on the great measure of the session—the Leocompton bill.

In a speech made in the Senate on the House Army bill, Mr. Cameron among other things said:

"I voted for the original bill providing for raising five regiments of regular troops. I did so with a protest against their becoming a portion of the standing army; but I voted for it because my course always has been to give the Administration no power such troops as they think necessary to defend the country in time of war."

They say there is a war in Utah, and they say it is necessary to have a certain amount of troops to protect the honor of the country.

We are astonished at such talk. If all the Senators and members of the House were to vote by this standard, the whole Legislation of the Nation would be in the hands of the President.

The Constitution provides that Congress shall have power to declare war; but the Mexican war was commenced by the President, and now, the Utah war has been commenced in the same way.

Mr. Cameron thinks the war wrong, he will do nothing to check it. He will let the President commence a war whenever it suits him, and vote to increase the army as the President may desire.

It is well known that the expenses of army are enormous, and that they are increasing at an alarming rate.

Read the following brief description of what occurred in the House on the 6th, and they say if it is not quite time Mr. Cameron should oppose the President's war plans and expenses.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Deficiency Appropriation bill.

The debate was strictly confined to this measure. While several saved the necessity of the passage of the bill including the heavy terms for the Utah expedition, others earnestly condemned the incurring of debts to be discharged by appropriations to supply deficiencies.

Mr. Stewart (Ga.) did not think that there was any necessity of getting into difficulty with Brigham Young.

Mr. Taylor (Ca.) said that nothing had occurred to justify the President in acting in such a manner in sending the army to Utah.

Mr. Tappan (N.H.) condemned appropriations for the Utah expedition, and would not endorse the Executive usurpation of making war without the authorization of Congress.

The Meville Sem Weekly Spirit of the Age, (shade of Gatterborg, what a name!) a Crawford County paper, under the administration of our esteemed friend, HARPER MERRILL, Esq., has just donned a new dress, and looks well.

Death of Col. Benton. WASHINGTON, Saturday, April 10, 1857. Col. Thos. H. Benton's spirit took its flight gently and tranquilly this morning at about thirty minutes past seven o'clock.

The supposed time of Mr. Benton's death was 7:35, though he glided off so gently that it may have been a few minutes earlier.

These points settled, the next was upon seconding the call for the previous question, which was sustained by 118 yeas in its favor, given through the tellers.

Mr. Clingman then manifested some disposition to filibuster, but Mr. Stephens promptly rose and said that the House had agreed to take the vote to-day, and he hoped that it would proceed without delay.

These points settled, the next was upon seconding the call for the previous question, which was sustained by 118 yeas in its favor, given through the tellers.

These points settled, the next was upon seconding the call for the previous question, which was sustained by 118 yeas in its favor, given through the tellers.