THINK OF ME.

When pleasure's cup is sparkling high, When friends around thee throng; When hearts are light with play or mirth, And lighter wakes the song When counting o'er thy many joys, Recalled by memory,

If 'twill not dim thy pleasure then, Oh, give one thought to me.

At dawn, when first Aurora's light Reflects o'er hill and dale, And gilds the dew-washed lily's head, That sleeps within the vale; When first the lark shall plume his wing, And soar from bondage free. To warble forth some merry notes, Then give one thought to me,

And when the shader of evening are Fast falling into night-An hour that seems well made for thought-And quiet is delight; At midnight's dead and solemn hour,

When on thy bended knee. Thy hands upraised to heaven in prayer, Oh, then, THEN think of me If I could claim the richest gem,

That now lies in the sea. I'd rather far than have that pearl, Have one kind thought from thee; If all the joys of this bright world Were now spread out to me,

And I were told to make a choice. I'd ask one thought from thee. MOTIVE.

Woman is In infancy a tender flower— Cuultivate her; A floating bark in girlhood's hour Softly freight her. A fruitful vine when grown a lass, Prune and please her; Old, she's a heavy charge, alas!

Support and ease her.
