What the Farmers say: A late writer says that "the various species of vermin are multiplying at a fearful rate throughout the land. Their ravages have become a matter of serious dred." A Postmaster in Illinois, writing to "Costar's" Depot, says. The country is literally overrun with them. (rats, mice, &c.") Another, from the same State, says, "The rats positively ganw the halters off my horses while in the ctable." An Ohio Correspondent remarks, "They (the rats) are everywhere—in the house, the barn, and under every stump in the field." In the South it is still worse. A inte order from the Navy
