Significant .--- Under the head of "DEATHS" the Bradford Argus notices a stated meeting of the Bradford county Medical Society.

We would call the attention of our read-wrs to an article on our last page, on of the Association, and stated its object to be "House Gardens," by Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe. It was evidently written for City folks, but there is but little of it that cannot be turned to account in beautifying homes in villages and farm-houses.

Our fair readers who are approaching "the shady side" of their years, -whether ton, John W. Forney, John M. Laird, George they are married or single,-the unmarried ones particularly-will find much sembled in the afternoon, when the Business .consolation, as well as good advice, in an article on our first page. We commend It to our readers generally, and hope all will give it a careful perusal.

Fun should be cultivated as a fine art, for it is altogether a fine thing. Who ever knew a funny man to be a bad one? On the contrary, is not he, nine times out of ten, generous, humane and good? To be sure he is. Fun-it is a great thing. It smooths the rough places of life, makes a round, jolly countenance; makes all the girls as pretty as June roses and makes all the beget the happiest results.
