{ FOUR CENTS!

VOLUME X.--NUMBER. 44.

COUDERSPORT, POTTER COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 20, 1858.

TERMS.--$1.25 PER ANNUM.

THE POTTER JOURNAL PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING, BY Thos. S. Chase, To whom all Letters and Communications should be addressed, to secure attention. Terms--Invariably in Advance: $1,25 per Annum.

Terms of Advertising. Square [10 lines] 1 insertion, --- 50
" 3 " --- $1 50 Each subsequent insertion less than 13, L Square three months, - - - - -" six nine 5 50 Rule and figure work, per sq., 3 ins. 3 00 Column six months, - - - - ----- 10 00 per year. ---- 30 00 16 00 Double-column, displayed, per annum six months, 3 00 three " 16 00 one month. per square of 10 lines, each insertion under 4, Parts of columns will be inserted at the same Administrator's or Executor's Notice, Auditor's Notices, each, - - - -Sheriff's Sales, per tract, - - - - -Marriage Notices, each, - - - - -1 00 Divorce Notices, each, Administrator's Sales, per square for 4 1 50 insertions, Business or Professional Cards, each, not exceding 8 lines, per year, - - 5 00 Special and Editorial Notices, per line,

1 00

All transient advertisements must be paid in advance, and no notice will be taken of advertisements from a distance, unless they are accompanied by the money or satisfactory

Business Cards.

JOHN S. MANN,

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW Condersport, Pa., will attend the several Courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All business entrusted in his care will receive prompt attention. Office on Main st., opposite the Court House. 10:1

F. W. KNOX,

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Condersport, Pa., will regularly attend the Courts in Potter and the adjoining Counties.

ARTHUR G. OLMSTED, ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW.

Condersport, Pa., will attend to all business entrusted to his care, with promptnes and fidelity. Office in Temperance Block, second floor, Main St.

ISAAC BENSON.

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Condersport, Pa., will attend to all business entrusted to him, with care and promptness. Office corner of West and Third sts.

WILLISTON,

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Wellsboro', Tioga Co. Pa., will attend the Courts in Potter and 3. Kean Counties.

R. W. BENTON,

SUSVEYOR AND CONVEYANCER, Rav-Mond P. O., (Allegany Tp.,) Potter Co., Pa., will attend to all opsiness in his line, with care and dispatch.

W. K. KING,

SURVEYOR, DRAFTSMAN AND CONVEY-ANCER, Smethport, Mikean Co., Pa., will attend to business for non-resident landholders, upon reasonable terms. References given if required. P. S.—Maps of any part of the County made to order.

O. T. ELLISON.

PRACTICING PHYSICIAN, Coudersport, Pa., respectfully informs the citizens of the village and vicinity that he will promply respond to all calls for professional services.

Office on Main st., in building formerly occupied by C. W. Ellis, Esq. 9:22

COLLINS SMITH.

E. A. JONES. SMITH & JONES, DEALERS IN DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS, Oils, Fancy Articles, Stationery, Dry Goods, Grecerics, &c., Main st., Coudersport, Pa.

D. E. OLMSTED,

DEALER IN DRY GOODS, READY-MADE Clothing, Crockery, Groceries, &c., Main st., Condersport, Pa.

M. W. MANN,

and Third sts., Coudersport, Pa.

E. R. HARRINGTON, MEWELLER, Coudersport, Pa., having engag-

on the shortest notice—all work warranted.

HENRY J. OLMSTED,

(SUCCESSOR TO JAMES W. SMITH,) DEALER IN STOVES, TIN & SHEET IRON independent nation. WARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court House, Coudersport, Pa. Tin and Sheet Iron Ware made to order, in good style, on short notice.

COUDERSPORT HOTEL, D. F. GLASSMIRE, Proprietor, Corner -Main and Second Streets, Coudersport, Pot-ter Co., Pa. 9:44

SAMUEL M. MILLS, Proprietor, Colesburg dersport, on the Wellsville Road.

Poetry. Selected

WHEN I SAW SWEET NELLY HOME.

In the sky the bright stars glittered, On the grass the moonlight fell; Hushed the sound of daylight's bustle. Closed the pink-eyed pimpernell, As a-down the moss-grown wood-path-Where the cattle love to roam— From Aunt Patty's quilting party,

I was seeing Nelly home Jetty ringlets softly fluttered O'er a brow as white as snow; And her cheek-the crimson sunset Scarcely had a warmer glow; 'Mid her parted lips' vermillion, White teeth flashed like oceen's foam; All I marked with pulses throbbing,

As I saw sweet Nelly home. When the Autumn tinged the greenwood Turning all the leaves to gold, In the lawn by alders shaded, I my love to Nelly told. As we stood together gazing On the star-bespangled dome, How I blessed the August evening,

White hairs mingle with my tresses, Furrows stand upon my brow, But a love-smile cheers and blesses Life's declining moments now; Matron in the snowy kerchief,

When I saw sweet Nelly home.

Closer to my bosom come— Tell me, dost thou still remember When I saw sweet Nelly home?

From the Home Journal SONG OF THE SEWING-MACHINE. BY GEORGE P. MORRIS.

I'm the Iron Needle-Woman! Wrought of sterner stuff than clay; And, unlike the dradges human, Never weary night or day; Never shedding tears of sorrow; Never mourning friends untrue, Never caring for the morrow, Never begging work to do. Poverty brings no disaster!

Merrily I glide along, For no thankless, sordid master, Ever seeks to do me wrong: No extortioners oppress me, No insulting words I dread I've no children to distress me

I'm of hardy form and feature, For endurance framed aright : I'm not pale misfortune's creature Doom'd life's battle here to fight : Mine's a song of cheerful measure, And no under-currents flow

With unceasing cries for bread.

To destroy the throb of pleasure Which the poor so seldom know. In the hall I hold my station, With the wealthy ones of earth, Who commend me to the nation

For economy and worth, While unpaid the female labor, In the attic-chamber lone, Where the smile of friend or neighbor Never for a moment shone.

My-creation is a blessing To the indigent secured, Banishing the cares distressing Which so many have endured: Mine are sinews superhuman, Ribs of oak and nerves of steel-I'm the Iron Needle-Woman Born to toil and not to feel.

Selected Miscellanu.

Perils of the Border.

While reading recently an account of the frightful massacre of several white families by the Black-foot Indians. we were reminded of a thrilling event which time subsequent to the Revolution, in which a highly accomplished young lady, DEALER IN BOOKS & STATIONERY, MAG- is known as Lord Dunmore's War, was offered his hand to the different females, settled without argument. DEALER IN BOOKS & STATIONERY, MAG- is known as Lord Dunmore's War, was offered his hand to the different females, settled without argument.

AZINES and Music, N. W. corner of Main fought one of the fiercest and most des- to assist them on board. The hand of When Colonel Bertrand removed to the run over to the Knintuck shore, and tie volved in a dense fog; and in spite of our state of the fiercest and most des- to assist them on board. The hand of when Colonel Bertrand removed to the run over to the Knintuck shore, and tie volved in a dense fog; and in spite of our state of the fiercest and most des- to assist them on board.

of the Western rivers.

ALLEGANY HOUSE,

ALLEGA 9:44 ly a house or body servant; three were worth to venture a foot from the main commission also extended to the escorting Saying this, Eugene hastened below, across the deck; and the next moment some two-and twenty years of age, of a with all on board."

lady in question, was apparently about be decoved to either shore !"

Her traveling costume—a fine brown have been selected by the agent of Colonel knees and clasped her hands before her than the neck, buttoned closely Bertrand, for taking down more precious breast. The panther crouched for his ty, and it shall be the best night's work over the bosom and coming down to her freight than you ever carried before; but deadly leap, but ere he sprang, the hunt you ever performed!" rejoined Eugene, small pretty feet, without trailing on the still the wisest and the best of men have ing knife of Eugene Fairfax (who with in a quick, excited tone ground—was both neat and becoming; lost their lives by giving ear to the most and with her riding-cap and its waving earnest appeals of humanity. You undeck besides Blanche), was burried to the the response; "but no man can be sarting the steersman, was burried to the the response; "but no man can be sarting the steersman, was burried to the companies to the companies to the steersman, was burried to the companies to the companies to the most deck besides Blanche), was burried to the companies curls, her appearance contrasted forcibly parently in the greatest distress, will hail fatal wound. The infuriated beast at once in a foggy night."

with the rough, unpolished looks of those your boat, represent themselves as having turned upon Eugene, and a deadly strugbleached linen caps.

it just seems to me as if something were but because of being goaded on by the ed to his aid; but assistance from stouter out: pen."

a light laugh, "I do not doubt in the least brave and true, and may the good God with blood, was dragged from under his boatmen mingling together in loud, quick, that something will happen—for I expect keep you from all harm!" that something will happen—for I expect keep you from all harm!" carcass. Supposing him to be dead or excited tones.

As he finished speaking, Blanche promotally wounded, Blanche threw her "Push off the go down freighted with human life, are raries. to tell the tale."

fear!" pursued the good woman, rather of Kentucky.

ner the "Perils of the Border," we have for a true heart! never did seem to know ly reared.

with the Ohio, is called Point Pleasant, scribed-Eugene Fairfax, the secretary of should see proper to send for her; and as "Why, ef you war'nt so skeered about boatmen and borderers, as indicated by current of the Ohio-for news reached us of the beautiful heiress, with her servants, where he found the other boatmen sleeptheir rough, bronzed visages and coarse only the other day, that many boats had to her new home. This last commission ing so soundly as to require considerable of going to happen to you, and when I feel savages, themselves concealed. Yes, such arms was at hand. The boatmen gatherthat way, something generally does hap-things have been known as one friend beed round, and the savage menster was shore, as sure as death!"

a partially settled country, you think, per- gees, who fled from their native land after story.

"But why repeat this to me, dear aunt," ferred much, through British invasion; returned Blanche, with a more serious air, and when, shortly after the close of the when you know it is my destiny, either war, he had met with a few more serious starting to his feet.

proudly. "No," she repeated, turning to The grant had decided the Colonel upon occured in the "Wild West," a short the others, "Blanche Bertrand never did seeking his new possessions and building ed Eugene, looking off upon the already know what it was to fear, I believe!" | up a new home in the then Far West, misty waters. "It must have gathered "Just like her father!" joined in the and as his wife had insisted upon accom- very suddenly, for all was clear a minute husband of the matron, the brother of panying him on his first tour, he had as ago. What is to be done now? This is the daughter of a distinguished officer of Blanche's mother, the commander of the sented to her desire, on condition that something I was not prepared for, on such the American Army, played an important part. The story being of a most thrilling mentioned as one of the party; "a true till such time as a place could be prepared mentioned as one of the party; "a true till such time as a place could be prepared daughter of a true soldier. Her father, which might in some degree be considered returned Dick; "but we're in for't, that's nature, and exhibiting in a striking man- Colonel Philip Bertrand, God bless him a fit abode for one so carefully and tender- sartin, and I s'pose we'll have to make a light in her hand, standing just outside ner the "Perils of the Border," we have concluded to give an extract from it, as what it was to fear—and Blanche is just originally published, as follows:

| State | Concluded to give an extract from it, as what it was to fear—and Blanche is just originally published, as follows:

| What it was to fear—and Blanche is just originally published, as follows:
| Blanche would gladly have gone with the best on't."

| Blanche would gladly have gone with the parents; but on this point her father you advise?" asked Eugene, in a quick, perate battles that ever took place be- Blanche was the last to touch his-and West, Eugene Fairfax, as we have seen, up." tween the Virginians and their forest foes. then but slightly, as she sprung quickly accompanied him; and coming of age "No, no," said Eugene, positively; aground—it may be against the Ohio After the battle in question, in which and lightly to the deck—but a close ob- shortly after, he had accepted the liberal "that will never do, Dick—that will never do, Dick—that will never do. But he not slower the Indians were defeated with great loss, server might have detected the slight offer of his noble benefactor, to remain er do! I would not think of such a thing so dark we can't tell. But be not alarmed a window in Schoomaker & Jackson's the Indians were defeated with great loss, server might have detected the slight offer of his noble benefactor, to remain or do! I would not think of such a thing so dark we can't tell. But be not alarmStore will carry on the Watch and Jewelry a fort was here erected by the victors, flush which mantled his noble, expressive with him in the capacity of private secre- for a moment! We must keep in the ed, Miss Blanche?" he hurriedly added; business there. A fine assortment of Jew-which became a post of great importance features as his eye for a single instant tary and confidential agent. On taking current by all means!"

etry constantly on hand. Watches and throughout the sanguinary scenes of strife met hers. She might herself have seen possession of his grant, the Colonel had "Ef you can," rejoined the boatman; which almost immediately followed and it—perhaps the did throughout these means the did throughout the sanguinary scenes of strife met hers. hoat to spring a leak again, as it did com- which goods were transported by land cloud all round us." Upon the deck of this boat, at the mo- ing down the Kanawha-for it will not be over the mountains to the Kanawha, and "I see! I see!" returned Eugene, ex- ago." ment we present the scene to the reader, safe for us, I am told, to touch either thence by water to the Falls of the Ohio, citedly. "Merciful Heaven! I hope no stood five individuals, alike engaged in shore between the different forts and trad- whence their removal to Fort Bertrand accident will befall us here—and yet my said Eugene, in a deprecating tone; "but watching a group of persons, mostly fe- ing posts on our route, this side of our became an easy matter. To purchase and heart almost misgives me!--for this, I be- in the excitementattire; but the fifth was a young man, been attacked this spring, and several lost, had been so far executed at the time chosen effort, on his part, to wake them. At a fine commanding person, and a clear, open, "No one feels more concerned about the different parties to the mouth of the formed them, almost in a whisper, for he intelligent countenance; and in the lofty the safe passage of Miss Bertrand than great Kanawha, whence the reader has did not care to disturb the others, that a thing which denoted one of superior mind; left nothing undone that I thought might but as we shall have occasion in the course of our narrative to fully set forth who and

"That is true, to my personal knowlthy of note, until near four o'clock, when, tone which indicated that he comprended what Eugene Fairfax was, we will leave edge," joined in the uncle of Blanche; as Blanche was standing on the fore part the peril with the word. "and I thank you, Mr. Fairfax, in beproaching group, whom he seemed to be half of my fair kinswoman. There will, which surrounded her, she saw a seeming no necessity for waking the others, and perhaps," he pursued, "be no great dan- ly flying body suddenly leave a limb of a having a scene. Up! and follow me with-Of this group, composed of a middle-ger, so long as you keep in the current; gigantic tree, (whose mighty branches exout a word!"

aged man and four females, with a black but your watch must not be neglected for tended far over the river, and near which He glided back to the deck, and was female servant following some five or six a single moment, either night or day; and the boat was swayed by the action of the almost immediately joined by the boatpaces in the rear, there was one whom do not, I most solemnly charge and warn current), and alight with a crash upon men, to whom he briefly made known his the most casual eye would have singled you, under any circumstances, or on any the deck of the boat, not more than eight hopes and fears. out and rested upon with pleasure. The pretence whatsoever, suffer yourselves to feet from her. One glance sufficed to They thought, like their companion, show her what the object was, and to that the poar would be saiest it made tast twenty years of age, of a slender and graceful figure, and of that peculiar cast of Colonel," said one of the men, respectfully. If doubt it not," replied the commanding every lineament, rarely fails to affect er of the Point; "I believe you are all the beholder with something like a charm. If althful and true men, or you would not when the gaze of Colonel was, and to that the poar would be saiest it made tast freeze the blood in her veins. The glowing eyes of a huge panther met her gaze, shore; but frankly admitted that this could not now be done without difficulty the beholder with something like a charm. With a dearening shrick she fell upon her bility of keeping the current. show her what the object was, and to that the boat would be safest if made fast and blessed mother, and give them such ceeded to take an affectionate leave of all, arms around his neck and gave way to a "Quick! altogether, now! over with an embrace as is due from a dutiful daugh- receiving many a tender message for her passionate burst of grief. But he was not her!" shouted another. ter to her parents—and that will be some- parents from those who held them in love dead—he was not even hurt, with the ex- "The de'il's in it! she's running thing that has not happened for two long and veneration; and the boat swung out, ception of a few slight scratches. The aground here on a muddy bottom!" aland began to float down with the current, blood with which he was covered was the most yelled a third.

less girl, when you ought to be serious. Bertrand, was a native of Virginia, and a fections. It was to color his whole future ting more and more entangled while; the Because you came safe thus far, through descendant of one of the Huguenot refulife, as will be seen in the progress of our long poles and sweeps of the boatmen, as haps, your own pretty face will ward off the revocation of the edict of Nantz in Slowly and silently, save the occasional ten plunged without fouching bottom, in-

Ohio, that does not encounter more or the Declaration of Independence—and a the third night of the voyage. The hour more to draw the clumsy craft upon the less peril from the savages that prowl gentleman who had always stood high in was waxing late, and Eugene, the only bank they wished to avoid. At length, along either shore; and some of them that the esteem of his associates and cotempo-one astir except the watch, was suddenly scarcely more than a minute from the heard of no more, and none ever return Though at one time a man of wealth, upon his shoulder, accompanied by the together, as it were, and the boat became Colonel Bertrand had lost much, and suf- words, in the gruff voice of the boatman : fast and immovable.

"I say. Cap'n, here's trouble!"

good or bad, to attempt the voyage? My reverses, he had been fain to accept a grant "Don't you see that's a heavy fog risparents have sent for me to join them in of land, near the Falls of the Ohio, now ing, that'll soon kiver us up so thick that dead silence followed, as if each compretheir new home, and it is my duty to go to them, be the peril what it may."

Louisville, tendered him by Virginia, we won't be able to tell a white man from hended that the matter was one to be which then held jurisdiction over the en a nigger?" replied the boatman—Dick wiewed in a very serious light.

"You never did know what it was to tire territory now constituting the State Winter by name—a tall, bony, muscular, "I'll get over the bow, and try to git athletic specimen of his class.

"Good heaven! so there is!" exclaim-

The angle on the right bank of the By this time the parties had reached had been inexorable—declaring that she excited tone, that indicated some degree Great Kanawha, formed by its junction the boat; and the young man already de would have to remain at the East till he of alarm.

and is a place of historical note. Here, Blanche's father—at once stepped forward, he was a man of positive character, and a the young lady, and it warn't so dead agin to fully comprehend its nature." on the 10th of October, 1774, during what and, in a polite and deferential manner, rigid disciplinarian, the matter had been the orders from head quarters, my plan would be a cl'ar and easy one I'd just replied Eugene, "we suddenly became in-though in any event, the darkness is sufwhich almost immediately followed, and it-perhaps she did but there was no almost immediately erected a fort, and "but when it gits so dark as we can't tell ficient to conceal us from the savages, which in this section of the country were corresponding glow on her own bright, offered such inducements to settlers as to one thing from tother, it'll be powerful even were they in the vicinity." continued for many years after that es pretty face, as she inquired, in the calm, speedily collect around him quite a little hard to do; and ef we don't run agin a tablishment of peace which acknowledged dignified tone of one having the right to community—of which, as a matter of bar or bank afore morning, in spite of the Blanche; "but I have always understood the United Colonies of America a free and put the question, and who might also have course, he became the head and chief; best o' us, it'll be the luckiest go that ever that they are somewhat remarkable for dependent nation.

Deen aware of the inequality of position and to supply the wants of his own family. I had a hand in. See Cap'n—it's thick-their acuteness of hearing; and if such and others, and increase his gains in a leening up fast; we can't see eyther bank be the case, there would be no necessity our story opens, was fastened a flat-boat "Eugene, is everything prepared for gitimate way, he had opened a store, and at all, nor the water nyther; the stars is of their being very near, to be made acoff the kind used by the early navigators our departure? It will not do for our filled it with goods from the Eastern marts, gettin' dim, and it looks as if thar war a quainted with our locality, judging from for the opening of our story, as to bring last, getting them fairly roused he incarriage of his head—in the gleam of his myself," replied Eugenc, in a deferential secu them slowly floating off upon the heavy fog had suddenly arisen, and he large, bright, hazel eye—there was some-tone; "and since our arrival here, I have still, glassy bosom of "the belle of rivers." wished their presence on deck, immediostrich plume, set gaily above her flowing derstand what I mean? White men, ap- hilt in his side, inflicting a severe but not of the current of this here crooked stream of her sex beside her, with their linsey just escaped from the Indians, and beg of gle ensued. But it was a short one. The slowly drifting down through a misty bed-gowns, scarlet flannel petticoats, and you, for the love of God, in the most pite-polished blade of the knife played back darkness impenetrable to the eye when, ous tones, to come to their relief; but and forth like lightning flashes, and at suddenly, our young commander, who "Oh, Blanche," said one of the more turn a deaf ear to them—to each and all every plunge it was buried to the hilt in was standing near the bow, felt the exvenerable of her female companions, pur- of them-even should you know the plead- the panther's body, who soon fell to the tended branch of an overhanging limb sisuing a conversation which had been main- ers to be of your own kin; for in such a deck, dragging the dauntless Eugene with lently brush his face. He started, with tained since quitting the open fort behind case your own brother might deceive you him. On seeing her protector fall, an exclamation of alarm, and at the same them, "I cannot bear to let you go; for —not wilfully and voluntarily, perhaps—Blanche uttered another shrick and rush- moment the boatman on the right called ing thus used to lure another to his des- litterally hacked in pieces with their Then followed a scene of hurried and "Well, Aunt," returned Blanche, with truction; and so be cautious, vigilant, knives and hatchets, and Eugene, covered anxious confusion, the voices of the three

"Push off the bow!" cried one.

"But I don't mean that, Blanch," re- now fairly entered upon the most danger- pauther's, not his own. But Blanche's Meantime the laden boat was brushing turned the other, somewhat petulantly; ous portion of a long and perilous journey. embrace was his—a priceless treasure— along against projecting bushes and over"and you just laugh like a gay and thought— The father of Blanche, Colonel Philip an index of her heart's emotions and afreaching limbs, and every moment getthey attempted to push her off, were ofdanger in the more perilous wilderness—1665. He had been an officer of some our lower position of the edict of reak, dip, and plash of the steersman's to what appeared to be a soft clayey mud, but I warn you that a fearful journey is note during the Revolution—a warm position our, the boat of our voyagers was borne before you! Scarcely a boat descends the litical and personal friend to the author of along upon the bosom of the current, on such an outlay of strength as tended still. startled, by a rough hand being placed first alarm, there was a kind of settling

> . The fact was announced by Dick Win-What is it, Dick " inquired Eugene, ter, in his characteristic manner-who added, with an oath, that it was just what he expected. For a moment or two a

"I'll get over the bow, and try to gitthe lay of the land with my feet," said Tom Harris; and forthwith he set about the not very pleasant undertaking.

At this moment Eugene heard his name pronounced by a voice that seldom failed to excite a peculiar emotion in his: breast, and now sent a strange thrill through every nerve; and hastening below, he found Blanche, fully dressed, with of her cabin, in the regular passage which led lengthwise through the centre of the boat.

"I have heard something, Eugene." she said "enough to know that we have met with an accident, but not sufficient

"Unfortunately, about two hours ago," every precaution and care, we have run-"I trust we shall soon be affoat again;

"I know little of Indians," returned the loud voices I heard a few minutes

"I fear we've been rather imprudent,"

h et hat respektiveli diseg it a l