The Proceedings of the County Teachers' Association will be found on the first page.

Dr. Gold Rogers' card in another place is singular in one respect—the omission of the gentleman's Post-office address.

The Bellefonte Whig is now published by Messrs. Reed & Boyle, its late editor and proprietor. J. T. Johnson, having retired.

We will next week publish the Phoenix List for the County Agricultural Fair, to come off this Fall. Be on the look-out therefore.

By reference to our new advertisements, it will be seen that O. G. Arnold has some encouraging words for those whose stomachs have been so long serving a salt-meat and fish probation.

Dr. A. Make, well-known to our citizens as a first-rate Dentist, has arrived in town again to remain several days. Office with Dr. O. T. Ellison, where he will be pleased to meet any number of sufferers from ailing teeth.

Judge Russell, of New York City, recently refused to grant an injunction against the proprietors of the Golden Prize, a Gift Enterprise literary newspaper, which was proceeded against as a lottery concern. The paper is therefore continued—see advertisement.

Fire—Very Near.—The lamp in the stairway of the S. of T. Hall melted the top of the lantern in which it hung, Saturday evening last, and fell—scattering the fluid over the floor in burning streams. It was soon extinguished, however, without any other damage than the loss of the lamp and a considerable fright to the members of the Division, then in session—the lady visitors particularly.

A heavy wind and rain storm passed over this region on Friday evening last—tearing up trees by their roots, throwing down sheds, and making general havoc among unsubstantial things. Some large hail-stones fell, also, during the storm. This week the weather has been considerably Summer-like, and vegetation of all kinds has started up wonderfully. Our farmers take much encouragement from this favorable change.

New Sabbath School Music.—Mr. HORACE WATERS, the well-known Music Publisher and Piano dealer, of 323 Broadway, New York, has recently issued a very pleasing and useful little collection of 32 pages of hymns and tunes for Sabbath Schools, of more animated character and impressive style than usual. The words are all excellent, and the music, though spirited, varied and fitted to the tastes and life of the young, is very simple, easily mastered, and full of feeling and pathos. We think it will be a favorite in the school, and as the freshest of all who love cheerful music, or the animated faces of happy children. The price is three cents for single copy, or $2 per hundred copies; postage, one cent.

The Farmer's Magazine, for June, published by J. A. Nash, of No. 7 Beekman St., New York, has found its usual place on and welcome to our table. It has some excellent remarks, styled "Hints for the Season." We make room for the following extract, for the benefit of Potter County's future farmers—her boys—as well as his present ones:

"Nature now—and in no climate more than ours—hastes to her annual consummation; and the farmer can hardly keep himself posted in her progress. Perhaps you say, June is a fine month to talk about, and we should like it better if it would be a little longer, and give us time to enjoy it; but we are obliged to work the whole time. Yes, it is so. The farmer's work will never be done in June. It will not be done any time in the year. With one hundred acres and suitable buildings, there will always be enough to do; and it is only by judicious management that the farmer can ever find time to visit his friends and perform the social duties of a good and useful citizen.

"You would say, you like to work, it is your happiness; in nothing else do you find so much pleasure. Well that is as every good man will naturally feel about his employment. But you may think that after all, though it is your life and comfort, yet you would like not to be obliged to work quite so closely as this hurrying season demands.

"Obliged to work! Why man, you are obliged to love your wife, if you would be a good husband, obliged to love your children, if you would be a good father, and obliged to love your neighbor if you would be a tolerable Christian; but do you love them with any less pleasure because you are obliged? Not a bit, but the more. And so the work of the farm. It is the best work in the world. What if you had no way to get a living, but to be shaving noses, or peddling quack medicines, or praising goods that you want to sell but nobody wants to buy! You would not respect yourself half as much as now, that you are doing God's appointed work for more than half the human family; you would not love your business half as well. You could not be more than half as good a man. So be contented and work on. You are nature's nobleman, if you did but know it.

"O fortunatos agricolos, si norat—
"No matter that we have forgot the rest. It means that the farmers are the happiest and best men we have, if they could only be convinced of it. So said the Mautauan bard in our school-boy days; and although we did not believe it then, we know it now. The working farmer is the best and happiest man; and his labors benefit himself and all the world beside."

DISEASE OF THE STOMACH.

The stomach is the most liable to get out of order. Hence how important that no diseased matter dig its operation, which would cause nausea, and distress by our food. It also weakens the brain, destroys the memory, creates pain and dimness, and various affections in the head. It produces great difficulty in breathing and swallowing. Sometimes fainting and fits will ensue; also bad breath, restlessness and great loss of strength. If not immediately attended to, the blood will carry the disease through the whole system, and death will end the work. From 2 to 5 of these Pills a day will keep the digestive organs in a healthy condition, and unplug or carry away all impure matter, and thoroughly cleanse and cleanse the stomach; at the same time the Pills will so purify the blood, as to drive all manner of disease from the system.

WORMS.
In a quantity of corrupted matter, there is always to be found a nest of worms. They cannot, neither will they stay anywhere else. Weak stomach and bowels are subject to them, as they have not sufficient power to digest their food. Hence a large heap of matter is lodged, and worms must be the result. A few doses of these pills will disturb their nest, and drive them out of the system.

It should be remembered, that an occasional dose when in health, especially after taking cold, will prevent the disease from forming in the body.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all Dealers in Medicines.

Fifty Years in Chains;
OR, THE LIFE OF AN AMERICAN SLAVE,
WRITTEN BY HIMSELF.

430 Pages; Cloth, Gilt Back. Price $1.
This is the title of one of the most intensely interesting biographies of the day. It is a plain history of an American slave in the South, who, after two or three escapes and recaptures, finally, an old man, found freedom and rest in one of the Northern States.

WHAT THE PRESS SAY.
The story is told with great simplicity, but with much power and pathos. Whoever takes it will find it difficult to lay it down until it is finished.—National Era, Washington, D. C.
A narrative of real experience like the above will have far more effect against slavery than the ingeniously wrought novel, however true to life its pictures may be.—Am. Baptist.
Here is a book of facts, stronger than fiction, and a thousand-fold more thrilling; a simple tale of life-long oppression, revealing truly the workings of the "peculiar institution" in our country. To the story-loving we would say, here is a story worth reading.—Mission Record.

GENUINE COD-LIVER OIL,
Has stood the test of over ten years' experience, and is recommended by all the most eminent physicians as the most valuable remedy in use. Dr. WILLIAMS, the celebrated Physician of the London Consumption Hospital, took notes of its effects in about 500 cases, and found it more efficacious than all remedies yet discovered. This remedy, so valuable when pure, becomes worthless or injurious when adulterated. See that the label has the eagle and mortar, and the signature over the cork of each bottle, as thousands have been cured by the use of the genuine article who had used others without success. Sold by all Druggists.

CHRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE.
Within a nut-shell all the merits of Christadoro's never equalled Dye. Red it makes black, to brown transforms grey, and keeps the fibres always from decay.

This matchless revitalizing Hair Dye still holds its position as the most harmless and efficacious Hair Dye in the World. Prepared and sold wholesale and retail, and applied in the private rooms, at CHRISTADORO'S No. 6 Astor House, Broadway, and by all Druggists and Perfumers in the United States.
