CURIOSUS RHYMES.

What is earth, sexton?
A place to dig graves;
What is earth, rich man?
A place to work slaves;
What is earth, gray beard?
A place to grow old;
What is earth, miser?
A place to dig gold;
What is earth, school-boy?
A place for his play;
What is earth, man of war?
A place for his quarrel;
What is earth, miser?
A place where I weary;
What is earth, dogged?
A good place to sleep;
What is earth, soldier?
A place for his battle;
What is earth, hermit?
A place to raise cattle;
What is earth, widow?
A place for true sorrow;
What is earth, workman?
I'll tell you to-morrow;
What is earth, sick man?
This nothing to me;
What is earth, sailor?
My home is the sea;
What is earth, statesman?
A place to win fame;
What is earth, author?
I'll write there my name;
What is earth, monarch?
For my realm 'tis given;
What is earth, Christian?
The gateway to Heaven.

CAUTION.

Merchants and Traders will be on their guard and not be imposed upon by the sale of Horse's Hindfoot Pills, signed A. D. Morse. All genuine Indian Root Pills have the name and signature of J. J. White & Co. on each box.

Above we present you with a Phrenic of DR. MORSE—the inventor of HORSE'S INDIAN ROOT PILLS. This phrenic is a small book, having within it a full description of the disease, and as well as North American laws, spent three years among the Indians of our Western Continent; it was in this way that the Indian Root Pills were first discovered. Dr. Morse was the first man to establish the fact that this disease is not from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD, but that strength, health and life depended upon this vital fluid.

When the various passages become clogged, and do not act in perfect harmony with the different functions of the body, the blood loses its action, becoming thick, corrupt and discolored; thus causing all kinds of diseases, and distress of every name; our strength is exhausted, our health we are deprived of, and our nature is not assisted in throwing off the stagnant humors, the blood will become thickened, and cease to act, and thus our organs of life will forever be blown out. How important then that we should keep the various passages of the body free and open. And how plain is it to us that we have it in our power to prevent this medicine in your veins, namely, HORSE'S INDIAN ROOT PILLS, the inventor of the pills, and roots which grow in the mountainous hills in Northern Canada, for the medicinal remedy of diseased men. One of the roots from which these Pills are made is a Sassafras, which opens the pores of the skin, and assists Nature in throwing out the four parts of the corruption within. The second is a plant, which is an Expectoant, that opens and regulates the passage to the lungs, and thus, in a soothing manner, performs its duty by throwing off phlegm, and other humors from the lungs by copious spitting. The third is the Licium, which gives ease, and double strength to the kidneys; thus encouraging them to discharge amounts of impurity from the blood, which is then thrown out abundantly by the urinary or water passage, and which could not have been discharged in any other way. The fourth is a Cathartic, and accomplishes the other properties of the Pills while engaged in purifying the blood; the coarser particles of impurity which cannot pass by the smaller outlets, are thus taken up and conveyed off in great quantities by the bowels.

From the above, it is shown that Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills do not cure the stomach, but become united with the blood, for they find way to every part, and completely remove and cleanse the system from all impurities, and the life of the body, which is the blood, becomes perfectly healthy; consequently all sickness and pain is driven from the system, for they cannot remain when the body becomes so pure and clear.

The reason why people are so distressed when sick, and why they die, is because they do not get a medicine which will pass to the afflicted parts, and which will open the natural passages for the disease to be cast out; hence, a large quantity of food and other matter is lodged, and the stomach and intestines are literally overflowing with the corrupted mass; thus undergoing disagreeable fermentation, constantly mixing with the blood, which throws corrupted matter through every vein and artery, until life is taken from the body by disease. Dr. Morse's PILLS are added to themselves victory upon victory by restoring millions of the sick to blooming health and happiness.

Yes, thousands of people have been racked or tormented with sickness, pain and anguish, and whose feeble frames have been scorched by the burning elements of raging fever, and who have been brought, as it were, within a step of the silent grave, now stand ready to testify that they would have been numbered with the dead, had it not been for this great and wonderful medicine, Morse's Indian Root Pills. After one or two boxes had been taken, they were astonished, and utterly surprised, in witnessing their charming effects. Not only do they give immediate ease and strength, and take away all sickness, pain and anguish, but they at once go to work at the foundation of the disease, which is the blood. Therefore, it will be shown, especially by those who use these Pills, that they will so cleanse and purify the blood, that that deadly enemy—will take its flight, and the flush of youth and beauty will again return, and the prospect of a long and happy life will cheer and brighten your face.
