

County and County.

CONFIDENTIAL. The County Commissioners will meet at Coudersport, on the 21st day of July...

We ask the attention of each and every reader of the JOURNAL to the communication on our first page, from "Sylvan."

Clark & Phillips, of Wellsville, are conscious of the value of the JOURNAL as an advertising medium; but, what is better, they have the courage to follow up the advantage they obtained a year ago...

"Old Jerry," a horse belonging to W. B. Gardiner, of this place, on Thursday night last performed a wonderful feat of equestrianism. He was left tied in the stable that evening, and could be found nowhere about in the morning...

Brass Band.—It affords us a gratification to have it in our power to announce, that there is a bright prospect that our citizens will not much longer be dependent on neighboring towns for band music when they need it.

Local Advertising.—Perhaps the publisher of no newspaper in this state has so much reason to complain of lack of local advertising support, as we have—certainly, no paper has less of such support, in proportion to the amount of business done in the community...

Clouds vs. Cosmetics.

We were admiring the beautiful crimson clouds last evening, when brother, who was listening, said, "I suppose that is what the girls paint their cheeks with."

It will be seen, by reference to our advertising columns that Messrs. J. M. Judd & Co. and D. E. Olmsted, are willing to present the most tangible evidence that they are exceptions to the general rule depicted above.

Whoever knew a woman later that did not sooner or later pay for it. Marriage, which is a blessing to another man, falls upon such an one as a judgment.

Political Appointments. Assembly—Anti-Lecompton. To the Electors of the Representative District composed of the Counties of Tioja and Potter.

Special Notices. GRAVEL AND STONE. By this we understand a collection of sand-like substance having been lodged in the passage of the urine.

A CARD. For the security of the public, I wish to say that the welfare of my little family commands me to change my well-known name.

New Advertisements. LIST OF LETTERS. REMAINING in the Post Office at Coudersport, for the Quarter ending July 1, 1858.
