Qefe Gooter fonmif.

SINGLE Corifis 3
TOLUME XI. NUMIBER 9. THE POTTER JOURNAL, Thos. S. Chase, moom all Letters and Communications
rms--Invariabis in Ady $\mathbf{$ 1 , 2 5}$ per Annum.
Terms of Advertising

gusimess Catus

 F. W. Kivox,  ARTHUR-G: OLMSTED,  ISAAC BENSON:

P. williston,

W. BENTON,

I. K. KING,

 T. ELLISON;

SiITH & JONES

D. E. OLMSTED,

M. $\overline{\mathrm{w}}$. MANN,
 E. R. HaRRINGTON,

HEVRY J QLMSTED,

COUDERSPORT HOTEL;

ALLEEANY HOSE,

Hiphi on the hills

 "JUDGE NOT."

 any lianocent and nnsuspectigg young fo
male. No. No no the itile lady ymas too cut for that Himself particularly agreable to any lady,

 give herself tha pleasirie of visition thon
young lady, and if malters went still fur Tur
 ry Yane inmediately fixed a day, and ask ed the young lady to tea
At Lome, too, if Mr. Harry Vane ex

 the thile
tios

So it went-on for a year or troo, and Su-

 was stariing after some new light of fe male beputy... It is possible that at thit juncture Ehe may have Walter int ocondence

gemed in no hurry to go to town. He sthusiastically, "Did'ntiniss Weot twort? There were severaliof Harry's acquaint nces on board, by: Whom the aftuir wa thoroughly understood, and it was no loug nunil the story passed from lip to lip and emiles and tittera and jokes at poo Harry's expense circullated in every di rection. He exced himiself is speedils as possible from the societty of the ladies, the boat, aud there stood conteim latio
what he should do to estricate finisel coui this dilemama. tis
 only raise a row and ciruulate the story,
and focant get rid of the, of the boat
mont put bact, I suppose, on my aceoont
 her tool It is a pretty chil gig ny reputatis. gotape, atoch me risk Measwhite Miss Went Horth ho po - Messed a deal of woinianly tact in who pos way ot her. firgt meefing with Mra. Vane, an ## Alistellamy.

|  |
| :---: |
|  |  |

 perance, devoting himselff; of late partici-
larly, to the advocacy of a Probibitory
Law. Worrout-with work, he had gone

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { He was here seized with suden illuess } \\
& \text { which seened nuch like Agiatio oholena } \\
& \text { and died in a fer hours on the } 26 \text { th of }
\end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { and died in a fer hours on the } 26 \text { th of } \\
& \text { August within a month of his } 6 \text { ist bith } \\
& \text { day. He has left behind hiti a widow }
\end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { correspoidence and journals left in his } \\ & \text { hands, and from this source it is hoped } \\ & \text { and }
\end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { thads, and from this souree it is hoped } \\
& \text { that a suffient. prapision may bo nade } \\
& \text { for the widom and daughter. It is not }
\end{aligned}
$$ nd down in Mr. Vane's face and asked, days since to the death of John H. W. W.

Baden-Baden, Jily"

 we sar an arny sitting down before a granite fort, and they told us that the then "How? The They point to" a cation hall. Well but here

 Well, but there is no power in thatos caild may ride upon it, a bird may porich ing more, "But look at ithe, powderio may:spill it, alyparriw may piek it Yet are put in this powerlese cannos , ofic seut frombenven. shich sitites as if it had bieen machinery of this day; we liave all the strongholders, and ong for palling-doing the baptism of fre !-H: W. Beecher.

His Motrer's:Grave.-Some gentle. nen passing the beautiful village of Ren o'clock at night; had their attention idic On going to ascertaia what it waz; thiey
 Ais sister bad threatenad to to beat bame, bime
 our wiles of!-and horr cime yonto
vander so far stray from home ? just came," sobbed the poor little fellow, Thither had he instipatively wandered tol:
sob out his sorrows, and to moisten, withe, cars the grave of one who had hitherto cen his natural prọectop, for he had To Cube rie'Apprite Fon Trozid oi. The Nery York Widepenident giver he following, as the esperionge of a clet.
 vell of very cool Trater, and whadeqer the hronud to hold water in ny nothith faithful'adherence to this pased. prict for y a
 The ATMOSpazneror Hoace-CGra
 ares whicle Hang arouad ycur nalls pion
 ach that shen your bey has gooe to dig he ocangle plank in the thonely twaters ot room you never open -po binds that aso

