At the time appointed for the meeting, an audience was present, but Mrs. Haten did not appear. The Doctor's theory of the matter is that his wife is possessed of demoniucal influence, and he further believes, if we understand him correctly, that this is the inevitable result of such mediumship as hers; that under this influence she has become reckless of moral principle, as have nearly all others of her class.

The writer of this has been shown list of forty trance speaking mediums, of both sexes, which will soon be made public, who have either separated from their husbands and wives, or are living in extreme unhappiness. The list includes most of the prominent speaking mediums of the country. Some women have abandoned their husbands for other "affinities." One who has figured in the recent Free Love Conventions is set down as having abandoned two husbands, both of President of the United States: Oh you whom are living—and one woman traded naughty man! What do you know about has provided itself with a new and faster this great and wonderful medicine, Morse's husbands with a sister spiritualist. A friend of Mrs. Hatch, in whose house she has been visiting a good deal since the separation, represents her as extremely afraid of the doctor, and says that upon one occasion, when he was seen coming from the house, "she turned as pale as death, and trembled like an asnen leaf, and begging the privilege of con-cealing herself, hid in a bedroom."

Some of the friends of Mrs. Hatch do not hesitate to express their conviction, wery freely, that all the devil there is in the matter belongs on the other side of the house.

wife-his fourth one, we believe-about two years ago. He was upwards of forty, and she about sixteen. The marriage at the time, we believe, was understood by them to be a spiritual affinity as well as a legal union. The friends of Mrs. Hatch claim that it was unnatural and produced by psychological influences, and not by spiritual affinities; that since the marriage Mrs. Hatch has been compelled to lecture too much often when physically musit to do so-the doctor renping therefrom a large pecuniary benefit.
