A SONG FOR NEW YEAR'S EVE. BY WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT.

Stay yet, my friends, a moment stay-Stay, till the good old year, So long companion of our way, Shakes hands and leaves us here. Oh stay, oh stay, One little hour and then away.

The year, whose hopes were high and strong Has now no hopes to wake: Yet one hour more of jest and song For his familiar sake.

Oh stay, oh stay, One mirthful hour, and then away.

The kindly year, his liberal hands Have lavished all his store. And shall we turn from where he stands,

Because he gives no more? Oh'stay, oh stay, One grateful hour and then away.

Days brightly came and calmly went, While yet he was our guest : How cheerfully the week was spent! How sweet the seventh day's rest!

Oh stay, oh stay, One good hour more and then away. Dear friends were with us, some who sleep Beneath the coffin lid; What pleasure memories we keep

Of all they said and did! Oh stay, oh stay, One tender hour and then away. Even while we sing he smiles his last And leaves our sphere behind— The good old year is with the past;

Oh be the new as kind! Oh stay, oh stay, One parting strain, and then away.

THE WORLD'S AGE.

BY CHARLES KINGSLEY. Who will say the world is dying? Who will say our prime is past? Sparks from Heaven within us lying, Flash, and will flash to the last. Fools! who fancy Christ mistaken; Man a tool to buy and sell; Earth a failure, God-forsaken,

Ante-room of Hell. Still the race of Hero-spirits
Pass the lamp from hand to hand; Age from age the Words inherits"Wife, and Child, and Fatherland,"

Still the youthful hunter gathers Fiery joy from wold and wood; He will dare as dared his fathers, Give him cause as good. While a slave bewails his fetters ;

While an orphan pleads in vain;

While an infant lisps his letters, Heir of all the ages' gain; While a lip grows ripe for kissing; While a moan from man is wrung; Know, by every want and blessing,

That the world is young.
