SINGLE COPIES, }

Devoted to the Principles of Irue Democracy, and the Dissemination of Morality, Literature and News.

I FOUR CENTS.

VOLUME XI.--NUMBER 25.

'COUDERSPORT, POTTER COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1859.

TERMS.--$1.25 PER ANNUM.

THE POTTER JOURNAL, MHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING, BY Thos. S. Chase. thom all Letters and Communications auld be addressed, to secure attention. ms-Invariably in Advance:

$1,25 per Annum. Terms of Advertising. une [10 lines] | insertion, - - -- - - $1 50 absequent insertion less than 13, are three months, -----11 nine and figure work, per sq., 3 ins. amn six months, - - - - per year.

lumu, displayed, per annum 65 00 six months,. 35 00 , three " one month. 10 lines, each insertion under 4.

strutor's or Executor's Notice. or's Notices, each, - - - - ige Notices, each, er Notices, each. gistrator's Sales, per square for 4 ass or Professional Cards, each, exceding 8 lines, per year, - aland Editorial Notices, per line, All transient advertisements must be advance, and no notice will be taken The cherished. dear ones of our race, tertisements from a distance, unless they companied by the money or satisfactory

Business. Cards.

JOHN S. MANN,

ORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW, addreport, Pa., will attend the several To feel that in our heart there grows are in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All A plant, amid life's sands and snows, choss currented in his care will receive compt attention. Office on Main st., opposite the Court House.

F. W. KNOX, DRNEY AT LAW, Coudersport, Pa., will darly attend the Courts in Potter and adjoining Counties. .

ARTHUR G. OLMSTED, ORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW.

PENEY AT LAW, Coudersport, Pa., will

and to all business entrusted to him, with L. P. WILLISTON, ders, upon reasonable terms. Referensgiven if required. P. S .- Maps of any at of the County made to order. 9:13

W. K. KING.

O. T. ELLISON, CTICING PHYSICIAN, Condersport, Pa., spectfully informs the citizens of the vilst and vicinity that he will promply reand to all calls for professional services. Ece on Main st., in building formerly oc-

E. A. JONES. SMITH & JONES. LERS IN DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS, oled by C. W. Ellis, Esq.

A Fancy Articles, Stationery, Dry Goods, eries, &c., Main st., Coudersport, Pa.

D. E. OLMSTED, MER IN DRY, GOODS, READY-MADE hing, Crockery, Gruceries, &c., Main st., adersport, Pa.

M. W. MANN, LER IN BOOKS & STATIONERY, MAG-

MINES and Music, N. W. corner of Main ad Third sts., Coudersport, Pa. 10:1

MARK GILLON, PER and TAILOR, late from the City of 38e, Coudersport, Potter Co. Pa. N. B.—Particular attention paid to CUT-ING. 10:35-1y.

OLMSTED. : : : : : : : : : S. D. KELLY. OLMSTED & KELLY,

COUDERSPORT HOTEL, GLASSMIRE, Proprietor, Corner of looks and cold responses, do you wonder n and Second Streets, Coudersport, Pot- that the dreariness of home was made still

ALLEGANY HOUSE, WEL M. MILLS, Proprietor, Colesburg rier Co., Pa., seven miles north of Cou-

OLEAN HOUSE,

Poet's Corner.

TO AN OLD FRIEND. BY PARE BENJAMIN.

Old friend! though many a year hath flows And we have somewhat wiser grown, Since you and I first met-The love that in our bosoms grew When life was rosy, fresh and new Is blooming brightly yet.

Time brings a philosophic mind, Time takes more than he leaves behind-Time is a thief of joys; Time turns one's golden locks to gray, Time draws a bill which all must pay— Time makes old men of boys.

Time, with his scythe and hour-glass, stan-To reap the harvest of our lands-To shorten prosperous days; Time ents the keenest steel to rust, Time crumbles monuments to dust-Time robs us of our praise.

16 00 Much fault is found with Father Time, 6 00 In books and speeches, prose and rhyme But we will not upbraid; 1 00 For he has left our hearts as young of columns will be inserted at the same As when, in youth, we laughed and sung In sunlight and in shade.

> Who says that age makes friendship cold? A true affection ne'er grows old, But lasts like mountain pines, 1 00 Whose heads unfading verdure crowns, Though Winter darkens them with frowns, Or Summer smiles and shines.

wish that, round our mutual souls, 5 00 While earth upon its axis rolls, The rines of love that run Might spread their tendrils and embrace So that from sire to son

> Our large affection might survive, And be as brightly kept alive, When we exist no more, By those we leave to guard our fames, And keep unstained our honest names, As in the days of yore.

Old friend, 'tis something in these hours Of work and hurry, when the flowers Of feeling scarcely bloom, That may adorn our tomb!

[Constellation.

Choice Reading.

Clouds and Sunshine.

"Hush. Nellie, father is coming." as of ice, passed over her heart.

And all because-"Father is coming." 10:1 sternness sat throned, and you could read, that had followed. in every line of his tace, tokens of a will was ever a smile upon his face, and a unsullied wings over them. "Mr. Parker is a sociable man."

And the wives of those who, having happy must be the wife of such a man." ing.

But they knew not, or, if knowing, had home.

That was all. was, let the bruised heart of the wife answer; let the blanched lip, and the dull At last the dinner bell sounded. eye, and the neavy heart of Nellie respond.

Groot, England. Shop opposite Court er than the art of gaining wealth, or hon- was about leaving, when his wife asked back upon his couch, penitent and humor, or position. It is one seldom fully es to heed the pleadings of the hearts of Why do you ask the question?" IRR IN STOVES, TIN & SHEET IRON those who, gathered about the home cir-ARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court cle, watched and waited his coming as her aunt Eunice."

ARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court cle, watched and waited his coming as her aunt Eunice."

ARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court cle, watched and waited his coming as her aunt Eunice."

ARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court cle, watched and waited his coming as her aunt Eunice."

ARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court cle, watched and waited his coming as her aunt Eunice."

ARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court cle, watched and waited his coming as her aunt Eunice."

ARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court cle, watched and waited his coming as her aunt Eunice." tra Ware made to order, in good style, on the coming of the sun. And when, instead of bright eye and sunny beams. there fell upon the hearth-stone harsh

"Father is coming."

came chilled by their influences?

laughter or innocent mirth now.

prided himself on the comforts he was joined. daily showering upon her.

But there was a painful comparison in the mind of that wife as she watched the could reply. ment was keenly felt. The bird was fed waited.

ways been so. There was a time—and it sat in an easy chair near the centre table join. By so doing, you will secure smiles for my logs, now you say you only give could have been measured by years—endeavoring to read. But the words ran and increase her affection. Do not, by me three. I tell you what I'll do—we'll. when his sweetest smiles, and his softest into each other, and she was forced to being too exact in pecuniary matters, fight. If you lick me, then you give me tones, were reserved for the magic circle close the book, and as her head dropped make your wife feel her dependence upon three shillen; if I lick you, then you give of home. To fail of greeting his Agnes upon her hand, and there came a vision your bounty. It tends to lessen her dig- me five shillen." with a smile, would have been an offense of the years when every cloud had its nity of character, and does not increase against his affection. To fail in kissing rainbow, she contrasted the happy "then" her esteem of you. If she is a sensible menced. For a time the success of eithher when he left her gentle presence, to the unhappy "now" and sighed over woman, she should be acquainted with er party was doubtful; but at length John, would have caused the ghost of injured her condition. She had learned the less your business and know your income that by a coup-de-main, brought his antagonist love to haunt him through the day, and son that wealth did not confer peace; that she may regulate her household expenses to the ground, and holding him down, stand ever by his side until his penitence gold cannot purchase happiness. and neglect were wiped away by those Her eyes softly closed, and sleepnaglected lips.

moroseness took the throne affability had and she murmured "Love me love," abdicated, the change made fearful havor though, as of old, a sweet confession was in Mr. Parker's home. Yet all this while being made. no cross words were spoken except by the The door opened, and Mr. Parker en- can be no oneness, where there is no full gradually taking the place of love, as she ments on the picture before him. It was in her heart at the black prospect before not move. Mr. Parker listens. reason of the height she had once reach- -lovethere was no effort to scatter the clouds-them by the sunshine of affection. very wrong. Had she sought to win him murmers, "Love me, love."

iv. Office in Temperance Block, sectithe light of joy from her eyes, and a chill, have changed its course and returned it And as she wonders and looks with smil- at that point all carnest and profound cul- an abundance, and have it, too, absoluteloor, Main St. 10:1 or of ice possed over her heart to its natural channel. But the few ing eyes from the face of one to the face tivation hearing. Then we rise from part ly her own to do with it what she sees fit. to its natural channel. But the few ing eyes from the face of one to the face tivation begins. Then we rise from partly her own, to do with it what she sees fit, words had not been said. The scal on of the other, she feels that something must ricular to general ideas, escape from the Married women have too few rights. The door opened and "father" entered. her lips had done more to close the foun-He was a man who had, perhaps, attained tain than all else. She had forgotten a Truly, something had. The lost link the realm of pure and permanent senti-Truly, something had. The lost link the realm of pure and permanent sentieand promptuess. Office corner of West the age of thirty years. On his features wife's first duty, and hence all the ills had been found, and to it "a little child ments; see all things less as they appear, out of their graves to control their widthat brooked no denial and paused at no heart. The sympathies were not in com- clouds were seen, and "father is coming" ORNEY AT LAW, Wellsboro', Tioga Co., stumbling block. Had you met him, mon, their feelings were not the same.—

will attend the Courts in Potter and however, in his place of business, you Not that they were wanting in husbandly. would have found him a different man en- duty or wifely faith. But there was a tirely Setting in one of his cosy office link, once possessed, but now lost. Could of years did it lay hid?

" Father is coming." And the wives of those who, having the solution of those who, having the solution of the solut they heard his praises sounded in their returns in a moment and makes some re such angry words?" ears, came to but one conclusion. It was ply. Mr. Parker looks on but says noth-forgotten, that too many men wear one wife in answer to the thought that evi- from the agitated bosom; the snow-white channel, reach any end that is desired .face when abroad and another when at dently engrossed his attention at the mo- pillow is drenched with penitent tears, Harper's Magazine. ment.

So it was with Mr. Parker. He kept the sunshine to garnish his office, and busy with their thoughts. He vexed at 'Tis enough! Once more the little brought home the clouds to darken his the delay; she conscious of having given head is pillowed upon the maternal beno offense, was irritated at the morose som -once more the little cherub form is manner, gave up all idea of conciliatory pressed to that mother's aching heart, All, did we say? Ah! how much it measures, and so widened the breach.

"What time will you be at home this bled by one kiss from mamma. or, or position. It is one sention fully learned and appreciated. It had not been evening?"

What's in a kiss—a simple kiss?— was prodigious. His greatest fault was ness of the hare, what broad fields of labor learned by Mr. Parker. No, he had been "I cannot tell," was the response." My Much, very much! More potent than his incorrigible love of "eggnog whisky," towarder that the product of the swift remaining effort is accompanied by the swift remaining effort is acc

"Well, you can be at home when I return.' "If I knew what hour you would come up, yes." Mr. Parker paused. Then remarking: "Well, be home early at any rate," left more drear, and the bounding heart bethe room.

"Never mind, mother, I can wait."

"Thanks, darling," was all the mother flutterings of a golden-winged canary in Early evening came, but not Mr. Parits gilded cage The sense of imprison- ker. His wife patiently watched and and kept in royal slavery. And how The hour went on. Still he came not includer that your wife has as much need avail. John hit upon an admirable planmuch better was she than the bird before On the sofa Nellie lay, her golden hair of recreation as yourself, and devote a for the settlement of the contest. Says falling over her face—asleep. She had portion, at least, of your leisure hours to he to the trader: "You and me make We said that Mr. Parker had not all grown weary watching. The mother, too, such society and amusements as she may bargain; you say you give me five shillen cult to narrate. Doubtless it was not in- over the perturbed heart. And as she ness-and though no word is spoken, from to-day, to-morrow, nor yesterday?" tentional, but it was no less effective. As slept she must have been dreaming sweet that moment her respect is lessened, and sternness usurped the place of smiles and dreams, for a smile played about her lips, her confidence diminished, pride wounded,

Agnes, as she saw how indifference was had been crossed, and gazed for a few mo- Women. watched the complete engrossment of her one worthy the pencil of a master painter.

her. She had set out with such high "Mother, mother, why don't father impulses, volitions, originating within ty as the husband has, and certainly has hopes of wedded bliss, such a fair prom- love us? Why don't he smile as he once itself and impelling it toward external ob- had it in her power, had she so chosen, to ise of connubial felicity had been hers, did, and kiss you and me as he used to jects. By virtue of this organization the have kept him a beggar all his life. If that the fall was all the more severe by do? Mother, mother, why don't-he mind has power to intensify its own action. the words of cheer, when the horizon

ed. With no heart to sympathize in her The low voice of Nellie dies away, and brace the facts that are embodied in out-speculation is rife; if the words of hope, sorrows, she, too, had relapsed into grad-the heart of the father is smitten as with ward things, it can form these materials when calamity comes; if the words of ual indifference, and-since on his part a rod. Truly conscience asks, why?

so, on hers there was no desire to procure And as the husband and father draws and reconstruct, modify and change. By husband would lay the bulk of his fortune nearer to them, again a smile played the simple force of suggestion it can argue at the feet of his wife as an act of naked This may have been, doubtless was, all about the lips of his wife, and again she from the known to the unknown, from justice, for her instrumentality in shap?

have been an easy one. The crust of the hand of Agnes in his own. She world. Above all, it can breathe a won- a wife's wants during coverture, and selfishness and world ways may have com- awakes with a sharp low cry of surprise, drous vitality into its own acquirements, through thoughtlessness and recklessness pletely covered his heart. But she gave but as she hears the words, "Forgive me, and make them much more than mere ac- -leave her at the husband's death in There was an instant hush in the mer- herself up to the tide, without an attempt my long suffering, yet patient Agnes," quisitions. There is a point in the his- poverty. It is the height of meanness in riersport, Pa., will attend to all business ry laugh of the golden-haired Nellie; the to stem it. The current at first was not she buries her face in his bosom. Nellie, tory of every mental effort at which the a man who dies rich, to attempt to ham? sted to his care, with promptues and sweet smile died away from her lips, and so strong but what a few words would too, awakes, and is added to the group, receptive exercise of intellect ceases, and per his widow so that she-shall not have

håd led them.' Thereafter, in Mr.

became a sign of greater sunshine. What's in a Kiss?

SEYOR. DRAFTSMAN AND CONVEY- chairs, and conversing with him upon it be found and restored to its position, little cherub boy, with blue eyes, anx. heaven.—Harper's Magazine. MCER, Smethport, MKean Co., Pa., will matters of business, you would have been perfect harmony would be the result.— lously searching his mother's unusually charmed by his courteous demeanor, and Happiness would again broad over the serious face, as she tenderly laid him upwon by his ease and affability. There hearth-stone, and peace spread her white on his soft, warm bed, and lovingly folded the snowy drapery about him. "Do kiss me, mother!" And the rosy lips pleasant response upon his lips. He But the lost link. Where was it?— kiss me, mother!" And the rosy lips greeted those who called in such a kind Could a reward be offered for it? Could began to tremble, the tear-drops to gathand cordial manner, that the impression they, by lighting a candle, search and find er in the pleading, upturned eyes, and the rested upon the mind of each visitor- this priceless pearl? Under what rubbish little bosom heaves with struggling emo-

Too much, too much! Dutiful mother, and the little discoled hand is extended and the good night kiss of forgiveness If at fault, surely she was pardonable, and love is given two fold tenderer. A bloomless check.

How to make Home Happy.

Do not jest with your wife upon a sub-And yet Mr. Parker nad not niways one would give no cause for companial mind your own of a nation. Do not re-tremmant of the kind provider, and ever most attended by who is old enough. She would remain at home even at the proach your wife with personal defects, cas. Some years ago, John Titus, one of been so. In fact he still was, as of old, She would remain at home even at the proach your wife with personal defects, cas. Some years ago, John Titus, one of the kind provider, and ever most attended by who is old enough. The kind provider, and ever most attended by who is old enough. The kind provider, and ever most attended by who is old enough. The kind provider, and ever most attended by who is old enough. The kind provider, and ever most attended by who is old enough. The kind provider, and ever most attended by who is old enough. The kind provider, and ever most attended by who is old enough. The proach your wife with personal defects, cas. Some years ago, John Titus, one of the kind provider, and ever most attended by who is old enough. The proach your wife with personal defects, cas. Some years ago, John Titus, one of the kind provider, and ever most attended by who is old enough. The proach your wife with personal defects, cas. Some years ago, John Titus, one of the kind provider, and ever most attended by which is a trade of the tribe. Engaged to deliver a certain unable belpmate to a new settler.

Why are energetic men like emetics? e Railroad, live to the wife with all the luxuries tear to her eye, we need not wonder. And wife with inattention in company. Do north-eastern part of our State, for which Because you can't keep them down.

wealth and taste could obtain, and even in the heart-ache of the one the other not upbraid her in the presence of a third he was to receive five shillings, New York home and cheerful wife, pass your even his elequence to induce his customer to ings under your own roof. Do not be pay the stipulated price, but without ef-as and a thousand, perhaps unjust, suspi- Herald makes the following very just cions created. From that moment is your comments upon the rights of married domestic comfort on the wane. There eyes and conduct of the husband. And tered. He paused just as the threshold confidence. - Woman's thoughts about husband's mind in his business, grieved | And little Nellie speaks. But she does as receiving. It not only has susceptibili- if not directly, at least indirectly, has been ties that are acted on, but it has motives, as influential in accumulating that properinto new shapes and compel them to sub- prudence, when prosperity smiles-could Nellie still sleeps. So does her mother, serve higher purposes. It can rearrange be measured by dollars and cents, every the visible and tangible to the abstract ing his pecuniary destiny. It is downback to his old allegiance, the task might Mr. Parker is on his knees. He takes and ideal. A hint suffices to open a new right cruelty to provide in profusion for and more as they are. Now this is a no- ows:" ble faculty of mind. It is the source of most of our greatest thoughts, and from it proceeds the highest energy of will, the most spiritual asperations, the grand, heroic deeds that renew the wasting heart of world as herself. She looked lovely as she "Mother, mother, kiss!" pleaded a the world, and seal its hopes as born in pronounced the vow. Think of a vow from brilliant imagination, in command of lan- heart. Five cross young ones were about the guage, or extent of knowledge. And so house crying—some breaking things, and one it would be if a beautiful eye were equiva-lent to a handsome face, or if a good stomach sat down, and tears trickled down her once "My little son has been naughty to- quently at the expense of other faculties, youth and home, and hold lovers at a proper The aim of nature and religion is to build presents, take you to concerts, and so on. relent! The little heart is swelling, break-up a force of mind that may distribute til the time comes. Early marriages and early "Dinner will soon be served," said his ing with grief; tumultuous sobs break itself through any faculty, flow out in any Miscellany.

We do not know where the Phil adelphia Press got the following, but it sounds very like a transaction of the verifew moments and the sobbings cease, the table John Titus, with whom we have had The meal was soon over and Mr. Par- golden head droops, the weary eyelids many a chat, in Pittsburg and at our na-The art of making home happy is great ker rose from the table, took his hat and close, and the little erring one is haid tive village. John's was a large and hony pace be that of the tortoise, accomplish much frame, and his strength, when excited, too much engrossed in gathering up rich; business may detain me longer than usual, the sceptre—dearer to affection than and his tendency to combativeness when Why do you ask the question?" | countless wealth. Who has not felt its under its influence. John was well known "I thought of taking Nellie out to see magic influence? "Tis the lover's tender" pledge of undying constancy; 'tis a bond as a first-class lumber pilot on the Alle-the Grand Jury, at Harrisburg, said that of friendship and fidelity, and not only is gheny and Ohio rivers. We believe he those noisy collections of men and boys, it dear to the youthful and ardent, but is now dead, but we may be mistaken. called "Calithumpians," who frequently also to old age, to the withered heart and He was 68 years old when we saw him annoy newly married people, are nuisanc-POTTER JOURNAL.

A REGULAR BUSINESS TRANSACTION. The uncertainty of the reply almost ject in which there is danger of wounding -Not far from Olean, bordering on the tempted Mrs. Parker to adhere to her in- her feelings. Remember that she treas- Allegheny river, in the State of New York, are employed near Baldwinsville getting out. "Father is coming."

The state of the state and lay aside the playthings. No more For a moment or two she pondered over never think of it again. Do not speak of tion," which formerly was, and probably most of the men. She fells trees and cuts up. aughter or innocent mirth now. it, and then her good angel triumphed. some virtues of another man's wife, to reaughter or innocent mirth now. it, and then her good angel triumphed. some virtues of another man's wife, to reaughter or innocent mirth now. it, and then her good angel triumphed. some virtues of another man's wife, to recontinues to be, partially occupied by a a cord of wood each day regularly, besides.

And yet Mr. Parker had not always She would give no cause for complaint, mind your own of a fault. Do not reremnant of the tribe known as the Senesuckling a bouncing boy who is old enough.

person, nor entertain her with praising currency, apiece. The trader, however, he beauty and accomplishments of other upon their delivery, refused to pay over women. If you would have a pleasant three shillings. The Indian exerted all stern and silent in your own house, and feet—the trader was inexorable. At remarkable for sociability elsewhere. Re-length, finding all his arguments of no

The bargain closed, and the battle comaccordingly. Do not withhold this knowl- with his knees placed upon his chest, beedge in order to cover your own extrava- gan a parley : "Now," said he, "you say "best boon to mortals given"—came to gance. Women have a keen perception you give me five shillen I let you up; you How the change came would be diffi- her in her grief, and waved her wings - be sure she will discover your selish say you give me three shillen, you no see

WOMEN'S RIGHTS-The Cleveland women:

"Talk about a man having a right to do what he will with his own! A hus-band's property is not his own. The wife Mind is capable of giving as well is as much entitled to it as he is. She, After placing itself in an attitude to em- looks dark; if the words of caution, when auburn hair, eyes, and pouting lips, only sixteen years old!

She stood at the wash tub when her twen-Too many suppose that intellectual ty-fifth birth-day arrived. The hair, the lips, power is located in a fine memory, in a the eyes were not calculated to excite the were the necessary consequence of healthy plump and ruddy check. Alas, Nancy, early lungs. Strength in one faculty is fre- marriages are not the dodge. Better enjoy the symmetry of the remaining boughs, wait for you two or three years, make you.

> And as there are human comets. which in the course of their eccentric careers are seen for a little time above our horizon and then never more return, but may be attracted by other planetary systems, and in their orbit find order and rest, so are-there! also among mankind nebulosities which neverduring their earthly lifetime are able to fashion themselves to a decided nucleus.-Fredrika Bremer, in "The Four Sisters."

He who turns relaxation, rest, every waking moment, into some channel of in life-nay in a single year. And if this unremitting effort is accompanied by the swifttowering Alps on Alps will not a life-time overcome. -- Henry S. Randall.

JUDGE PEARSON in a recent charge to last, which was some 8 years since.—ED. es, and subjected to severe punishment, and that it is the duty of constables to arrest those participating.

MASCULING.-A number of wood choppers