Poet's Corner.

From Harper's Magozine, for February.
A WOMAN'S POEM.

For love is sweet.

You say you love me, and you lay Your hand and fortune at my feet:

By much, how much, to woman! She Has naught beside.

Dine, hunt, or fish, or waste your gold

Our world (alas, you make that too!)

Know you, or care, what light is there?
What shadow falls?

We read the last new novel out,
And live in dream-find till it ends:

We write romantic school-girl notes,
That bore our friends.

We learn to trill Italian notes,

We think it please you, and we But live to please!

For grant we seek a better life,

You make the worlds wherein you move;

You rule your tastes, or course, or fine;

Is narrower-shut in four blank walls.

And thrum for hours the tortured keys

We feed our birds, we tend our flowers

(Poor indoor things of sickly bloom!), Or play the housewife in our glove,

But some of us have hearts and minds?

So much the worse for us and you;

We can not build and sail your ships.

And ignorant of the tricks of Trade;

Or drive your engines: we are weak,

Or write some earnest, stammering words,

The dreary days that women spend?

Who, like a shadow, day and night,

Follows the woman he prefers?

Her lover, he: a gallant man.

He vows to die for her, so she

Devoted to her every whim;

We should be very grateful. Sir,

You waste your idle hours on us;

What can we hope to know of you?

Or you of us? We not our parts: We love in jest: It is the play Of hands, not hearts!

You grant my bitter words are true

But we shall see.

You say you love me: have you thought

You know, or should, your nature now,
Its needs and passions. Can I be What you desire me? Do you find

You do. But have you thought that I

But think again. You know me not:

For you to buy!

You see me young: they call me fair

And pretty hair!

With thin, gray hair?

You trust me wholly? One word more.

But, by-and-by, my face will fade; It must with time; it may with care:

What say you to a wrinkled wife,

You care not, you: in youth, or age,

Your heart is mine, while life endures:

Is't so! Then, Arthur, here's my hand, My heart is yours.

Shoice Reading.

DOWN EITH.

A PICTURE OF LIFE.

ne of our courts, and while conversing wi h a legal friend, I heard the name of John Anderson called. "There is a hard case," remarked my friend. I looked upon the man in the prisoner's dock. He garb was torn, spare and filthy; his face all bloated and bloodshot; his hair matted with dirt; and his bent form quiver-

I. too, may be a butterfly,

I think I have a pleasant face,

A costly parlor doll, on show

Your all in me?

How much these little words contains?

And worlds of pain !

Of others, not of you and me: Your love is steady as a star;

Alas I a world of happiness,

Profuse is studied compliments,

Alone is ours, and that you hate;

So forced within ourselves again,

Ah! who can tell the bitter hours,

And dust the room.

What can we do?

To think, and speak,

Wa sigh and wait.

Without a friend! Without a friend? And what is he,

Lives in her sight?

Must live for him f

That, when you've nothing else to do.

So kind of you!

At dice and wine! .

I thank you, Sir, with all my heart,

It is but little to you, men.

Devoted to the Principles of True Democracy, and the Dissemination of Morality, Literature and News.

COUDERSPORT, POTTER COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1859.

4 FOUR CENTS.

VOLUME XI .- NUMBER 26. THE POTTER JOURNAL.

SINGLE COPIES, }

FIBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING, BY Thos. S. Chase, whom all Letters and Communications should be addressed, to secure attention.

erms--Invariably in Advance : $1.25 per Annum. Terms of Advertising.

Square [10 lines] 1 insertion, - - - 50 ch subsequent insertion less than 13, Spare three months, - - - - a nize

" oue year, de and figure work, per sq., 2 ins. ry subsequent insertion, - - - - six months, 35 00 16 00 one month, per square insertion under 4, of 16 lines, each arts of columns will be inserted at the same

ble-column, displayed, per annum 65 00

16 00

Aministrator's or Executor's Notice, elifor's Notices, each, - - - - - - eriff's Sales, per tract, - - - - ce Votices, each. ministrator's Sales, per square for 4

siness or Professional Cards, each. sst exceding 8 lines, per year, - -Special and Editorial Notices, per line, 10 id in advance, and no notice will be taker advertisements from a distance, unless the accompanied by the money or satisfactory

Cards. Business.

JOHN S. MANN,

MORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW Condersport. Pa., will attend the several Courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All business entrusted in his care' will receive frompt attention. Office on Main st., opposite the Court House. 10:1

F. W. KNOX, MORNEY AT LAW, Condersport, Pa., will egularly attend the Courts in Potter and e adjoining Counties. ARTHUR G. OLMSTED.

MORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW Sudersport, Pa., will attend to all business estrusted to his care, with promptnes and the ity. Office in Temperance Block, sec-

ISAAC BENSON.

MORNEY AT LAW, Coudersport, Pa., will mend to all business entrusted to him, with are and promptness. Office corner of Wes

L. P. WILLISTON.

MORNEY AT LAW, Wellsboro', Tioga Co. Pa. will attend the Courts in Potter and

W. K. KING, TRYEYOR, DRAFTSMAN AND CONVEY

ANCER, Smethport, M'Kean Co., Pa., will suend to business for non-resident landtelders, upon reasonable terms. Referenpart of the County made to order. 9:13

O. T. ELLISON, MCTIGING PHYSICIAN, Coudersport, Pa. espectfully informs the citizens of the vi age and vicinity that he will promply repond to all calls for professional services Office on Main st., in building formerly oc cupied by C. W. Ellis, Esq.

SMITH & JONES. EALERS IN DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS Ods, Fancy Articles, Stationery, Dry Goods Gezeries, &c., Main st., Coudersport, Pa.

D. E. OLMSTED, ALER IN DRY GOODS, READY-MADE Clothing, Crockery, Groceries, &c., Main st.

Coudersport, Pa. M. W. MANN, EALER IN BOOKS & STATIONERY, MAG-

MINES and Music, N. W. corner of Main and Third sts., Coudersport, Pa. 10:1

MARK GILLON,

AAPER and TAILOR, late from the City of Liverpool, England. Shop opposite Court Bosse, Countersport, Potter Co. Pa. N. B .- Particular attention paid to CUT-10:35-1y.

OLMSTED. : : : : : : : : : : S. D. KELLY. QLMSTED & KELLY, ALER IN STOVES, TIN & SHEET IRON was standing up, and he pleaded guilty

WARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court to the crime of theft. He was a till man, Bouse. Condersport, Pa. Tin and Sheet kon Ware made to order, in good style, on the tild to order, in good style, on the tild to the crime of theft. He was a till man, but bent and infirm, though not old. His garb was torn, spare and filthy; his face that notice, COUDERSPORT HOTEL, ered his face with his hands. I asked my say; too blindly. legal companion if the prisoner had coun-sel. He said no. I told him to do all in ed that God would guard him, and we I left. I could not remain and see the ised to correspond often. man tried. Tears came into my eyes as Three years more passed, during which I gazed upon him, and it was not until I John Anderson wrote to me at least once To whom the doors of Life stand wide;

distance that I could breathe freely. stands on the records of the court parents, and I to sit down in the dingy lord whose funeral it was ... sanctum of a newspaper office for a few was gone some four years, and when I head, as though it cut him to say so. returned I found John a married man .-His father was dead, and had left John a what a bird I have caged. My Ellen is himself. perfect lark-a robin, a very princess of sweetly."

He was an enthusiast, but not mistak- know John Anderson?" en, for I found his wife all he had said, "He was any school mate in boyhood, ever saw. And so good, too, so loving as follows: and so kind. Aye, she so loved John, "Poor John! He was the pride of earth of him I had loved so well. Their thoughts unshared, their lives un-

Your manners, like your clothes are fine, Though both, at times, are somewhat strong
Of smoke and wine! tried to hide it, but a face so used to the . "But his wife?".

May have my have and fincies, too?
You love me; well, but have you thought
If I love you? darling can never be a bad man" .

Ellen's lins. fallen asleep in his chair.

Not long since, I had occasion to visit unhappy?"

hill," I said.

flushed face. "No; I read it in her face."

home last night," I replied.

tongue was at once tied. Then he cov- ed him almost too well-or, as I should fearful presentiment had possessed my paltry poverty, before the marvellous exhis power for the poor fellow,s benefit, conversed upon other subjects. I could and I would pay him. He promised, and spend but one day with him, but we promn the mad house last week."

had gained the street and walked some a month, and sometimes oftener; but at the end of that time, his letters ceased John Anderson! Alas! he was asham- coming, and I received no more for two d to be known as his mother's son. That years, when I again found myself in his was not his name, but you shall know no native town. It was early in the afterother. I will call him by the name that noon when I arrived, and I took dinner at the hotel. John Auderson was my school mate, I had finished my meal, and was loung- and two children in them. and it was not many years ago-not over ing in front of the hotel, when I saw a twenty, that we left our academy togeth- funeral procession winding its way into a er-he to return to the home of his wealthy distant churchyard. I asked the land-

'Mrs. Anderson's' he said, and as he rears, and then wander across the ocean spoke I noticed a slight dropping of the far more terrible! I saw him in the symbol he is to trace. Within three. " What - John Anderson's wife?"

"No," he said, "it is his mother," and princely fortune.

as he said this he turned away; but a gen- lowing the trial. He said John Ander- thrown open with both its valves. To "Ah C—," said he to me, as he met theman who was near overheard our conson was in prison. I hastened to see him. rend, would be to hear; to write would me at the railroad station, "you shall see versation, immediately took the theme The turnkey conducted me to his cell- be to speak.

that she really loved all his friends. What this town two years ago. This man opena lucky fellow to find such a wife. And ed a hotel at that time, and sought cuswhat a lucky woman to find such a hus-tom by giving wine suppers. John was Oh, from the first sparkle of the red wine, putting them together and connecting band; for John Anderson was as hand-present at the most of them—the gayest it had been down, down—down until the some as she was. Straight, tall, manly, of the gay, and the most generous of the foot of the hill had finally been reached! giving him a practical acquaintance with and a face as faultlessly noble and beau-party. In fact, he paid for nearly every When I turned away from the cell, and analysis and sythesis, and a feeling for tiful as ever an artist copied. And he one of them. Then he began to go down once more walked amid the flashing sa-symmetry and law. He will also learn py all the time. John's mother lived were of short duration. A short season ears of living men! with them, a fine old lady as ever lived, of sunshine would gleam upon his home, and making herself constant joy and pride and then the night came more dark and I did not see John again for four years. lifty dollars to pay his mother's funeral oftener among the items; but in the way estly striven for with heart and hand.

I arrived at his house late in the evening. expenses! That poor mother bore up as of short, prompt tragedy, of a dire event Mr. Editor, in looking over your paper. He was not at home; but his wife and long as she could. She saw her son—her in duodecimo, of a sensation story in six I noticed a report of a "Teachers" Assomother were there to receive ano; and two 'darling boy' she always called him- lines, there is nothing more marked than ciation," which to me is very interesting. curly headed boys were at play about El- crought home drunk many times, and a sudden death. len's chair. I knew at once they were she even bore blows from him! But she's my friend's children. Everything seemed at rest now! Her 'darling' wore her life in the Sixth Ward!" "This morning W. Bird, ("Resolved, That the 'word pleasant until the little ones were in bed away, and brought down her gray hairs one of our most respectable citizens was method is the best method of teaching and a sleep, and happy, and then I could in sorrow to the grave! Oh, I hope and found dead in his bed." "A gentleman, pupils to read,") I should like to say a plainly see that Ellen was troubled. She trust this may reform him." while walking in the street, was seized few words on. I am glad it is accepted,

On the following morning I walked out with my friend. I told him I was ond time. "I knew you spoke the truth to me five years ago, I was going down the Emperor of the French surprised Eulasure of the Emperor of the Emperor of the French surprised Eulasure of the Emperor of th

" Where is John Anderson?" I asked. "Don't know, I'm sure. He's been gone these three months. His wife died

"And the children?" "Oh, they died before she did." I staggered back and hurried from the

I hardly know which way I went, but nstinct led me to the churchyard. I self. And a voice answered: "The Demon of the Wine table!"

the key turned in the huge lock-the ponsimply omitting the poetry. She was and my bosom friend in youth. derson there, but the face I had seen in I truly one of the most beautiful women I He led me to one side and then spoke the court was sufficient to connect the derson there, but the face I had seen in learning a dull catalogue would be saying.
the court was sufficient to connect the A small portion of the time would be

"A Sudden Death."

sunshine could not wear sorrow concealed. "Her heavenly love has held her up is found at his table; papers strewed "Red School House in Roulet," I assume At length John came. His face was thus far, but she is only the shadow of around, a half finished letter before him, the right or privilege, to say a few words flushed, and his eyes looked inflamed. He that wife that blessed his home six years One, in delicate health, plunges into a on it. I take the negative of the Resograsped my hand with a hearty laugh—ago."

called me "old fellow, old dog," and I

My informant was deeply affected, and the middle of the Atlantic and loft there, ing pupils to read. In one of my former in the middle of the Atlantic and letters I have adverted to this system, other extravagant things. His wife tried During the remainder of the afternoon hour or two after, people hearing no sound, which is also known as the look and to hide her tears, while his mother shook I debated with myself whether to call upbreak open the door and find him killed say," method. The teacher points to a on John at all. But finally I resolved to as effectually by a few gamons as among work and with every new word, until darling can never be a bad man".

On John at all. But finally I resolved to as effectually by a few gamons as among work and with every new word, until darling can never be a bad man".

John and his wife alone. They had both of a hombshell exploding in the midst of the child recognizes it when shown again. "God grant it," said I to myself; and been weeping, though I could see at a a small tea party—of roaring gaupowder In this way the child learns to read with, well knew that the same prayer was on glance that Ellen's face was beaming with and riving, tearing iron masses, blood and out learning a single elementary sound, lips.

Solution in the same prayer was on plance that Ellen's face was beaming with and riving, tearing iron masses, blood and out learning a single elementary sound, bear the rep-It was late when I retired, and I might -sadly, painfully so. They were glad to stant before all was tea-spoons and small resentatives of sounds. not have done so even then had not John see me, and my hand was shaken warmly. talk-why what is such a bit of-abrupt-"Dear C-, don't say a word of the ness, compared to stepping out of Life in the system of our orthography in all its petite and pleasures bounded his own visions. I knew how kind and gentle he was—alas! too kind, too generous!

"John, could you have seen Ellen's on glass, the last fragment only reflecting iar style of art; and gratified it in this der to exhibit the value of the phonetic. bled. Can you make her unhappy!"— at the feet of hope, begging a grain of jewelry, columns and carpets were all in ing account in 1851:

Main and Second Streets, Condersport, Pot-ser Co., Pa.

Side of sickness.

When in the school they have received as not born a villain.

I moved from the known, that the future life would was not born a villain.

I moved from the known that smiled and seemed happy when their fa-correspond to our tastes and tendencies about two hours instruction designs. was not born a villain. I moved from you are my friend, but never speak to me ther kissed them. When I went away in this; in fact to return to the Imperial ing and the analyzation of words; the re-ALLEGANY HOUSE,

ALLEGANY HOUSE,

My place to obtain a fairer view of his you are my rhead, but never speak to the large and the analyzation of words; the results analyzation of words; the results analyzation of words; the results and the analyzation of words; the results analyzation of words; the results analyzation of words; the results analyzation of words and the analyzation of words; the results analyzation of words and the analyzation of words and the analyzation of words analyzati perience of the lady or gentleman just I stopped at the stately house where fallen dead, and it may be, just chronicled they had dwelt, but strangers occupied it in the paper .- Phil. But.

TERMS.--$1.25 PER ANNUM.

Educational.

For the Potter Journal Letters on Phonetics. - No. 7. The Benefits which would result from adopting the Phonetic Method. We have only to reverse the consures passed upon the ordinary spelling to arfound four graves which had been made rive at an estimate of the new: A child in three years. The mother, the wife, once instructed in the elementary sounds and the method of combining them, to-"What has done this?" I asked my- gether with the characters by which they are conventionally represented, will know instantly, as soon as he sees a written But this was not all the work. No, symbol, what sound he is to utter, and as no! The next day I saw-oh God! far, soon as he hears a spoken sound, what court room. But this was not the last months may this knowledge be acquired by a child of four years, or an adult of I saw my legal friend on the day fol- forty. The gate of knowledge would be as he said this he turned away; but a gen- lowing the trial. He said John Ander- thrown open with both its valves. To

Other nations would be readily able to "Our host does not seem inclined to derous door swung upon its huge hinges comprehend our language—the easiest in all birds that ever looked beautiful or sung converse on that subject," he remarked, with a sharp creak--and I saw a dead the world to acquire, but for its present with a shrug of the shoulders. Did you body suspended by the neck from a grat- orthography, and destined to be carried ing of the window! I looked at the hor- over the whole globe, by the energy of rible face—I could see nothing of J. An- its speakers. The years now wasted by two, and I knew that this was all left on pleasantly spent at the commencement of earth of hun I had loved so well.

a child's schooling, or before he goes to And this was the last of the demon's school, under the care of his mother, in work; the last act in the terrible drama! acquiring the true sounds of language, them with the symbols for writing; thus was good, too, and kind, generous and hill, and he has been going down ever loous and revel halls, I wished that my the advantage of knowledge and its test; true.

At times true friends have pre-voice had power to thunder the life story he will find that he knows, because by I spent a week with them, and was hap- vailed upon him to stop, but his stops of which I had been a witness, into the applying the simple rules he has learnt, he can discover new results. He will thus be able to understand (vaguely of course, at first, as all children udderstand) in boasting of her son, "darling boy," as dreary than before. He said he never of all incidents which it is the daily the use of being taught, the use of go-she called him. I gave her an account would get drunk any more, yet he would duty of a journalist to record, none so freing to school. He will see the value of a of my adventures by sea and land in for take a glass of wine with a friend.' That quently attracts his attention as that of teacher's instruction, and will yield him eign climes, and she kissed me when I glass of wine was the gate to let in the "A. Sudden Death." Other incidents not a blind, but an intelligent obedience. left. She said she kissed me because I flood. Six years ago he was worth sixty may be more frequent; assaults and bat- Hence, we may look forward to such a thousand dollars. Yesterday he borrowed tory and municipal quarrels are perhaps change as a national blessing, to be earn-

The Resolutions adopted I heartily sup-"There's a woman just dropped dead port. The Resoluton offered by Mr. J. with sudden sickness and expired." One and as I, of course, cannot be there at the

But this method does not fail to display "Oh," said he, "that was nothing.— stop here at the foot. Everything is gone ber. No wonder that he surprised her; selves to the learner. The best method only a little party. We had a glorious but wife. I have sworn, and my oath for what she had always supposed was of teaching a child to read is the Phonetic. time. I only wish you had been there." shall be kept. Ellen and I are going to simply the entrance to a shallow closet, method. I speak advisedly when I say it revealed a beautiful room, of exquisite is the best method also of teaching the ture better than he did himself. His apwife followed suit, and I kept them comsands of costly ornaments and difficult system. The transition from face last evening, you would have trem- the image it once bore, a poor supplicant manner. Furniture, pictures, ornaments, system, of which he published the follow-

He stopped me with, warmth for the hearts of himself and wife. her favorite "order." How much a sud- "Fifty children, of from two and a half "Don't be a fool. Why should she be And how I had honored and loved that den death seems like stepping at once to seven years of age, have been taught "happy?"

man, and how I loved him still. Oh, I from a familiar room, when we least exto read at a private phonetic school, by "Because she fears you are going down hoped, nye, more than hoped, I believed pect it, through an unknown door into a Miss Emma L. Lothrop, in the Warrenhe would be saved. And as I gazed up mystic land; into all that is most differ street chapel, where persons interested "Did she say so?" he asked, with a on that wife—so loving, so trusting, so ent. Fearful change, tremendous trans-ushed face.

"Did she say so?" he asked, with a on that wife—so loving, so trusting, so ent. Fearful change, tremendous trans-true, so hopeful still, and even in the ition!—what simile of rooms, what fig. from ten to eleven o'clock only. The first midst of living death-I prayed more ter- ure of doors gives the faintest approach class is composed of twelve children who "Perhaps a reflection of your own vently than ever that God would hold to the greatest of all changes to which commenced the study of the phonetic aysthoughts," he added.

"I surely thought so when you came him up, and lead him back to the top of the created is liable—and this change in tem in September last, (about six months the twinkling of an eye!

In the morning I saw the children.

It has been a favorite fancy of philosabsent from school on the average, three now grown up to intelligent boys, and ophers, foud of educing the unknown months each, in consequence of sickness. instant, and then covering his face with his hands, he sank powerless into his seat.

OLEAN HOUSE,

MMES HUMPHREY, Proprietor, corner of Union and North St's, Olean, N. Y.

Tains on the New York and Eric Railroad.

Instant, and then covering his face with his hands, he sank powerless into his seat.

All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could spell or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters, and could real not speculation—all dren knew their letters or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters or punishment. All speculation—all dren knew their letters or