Town and County.

COUDERSPORT, JUNE 23, 1859.

See the advertisement of H. O. Perry, who desires to exchange cloth for wool.

Colwell offers Cash for Wool and Lumber, and offers to sell provisions cheaper than the cheapest.

Married.

In the city of Lawrence, Kansas, on the 19th May, by the Rev. Mr. Nute, Mr. S. C. Russel, late of Coudersport, Pa., and Miss Rose Jenkins.—Tioga Agitator.

We have observed a large number of strangers in our village during the past two weeks, most of them being denizens of the cities in search of health, rest and trout among our mountains.

The first Soda Fountain in this place has just been put in operation by Smith & Jones. We have

"Quaffed the cooling draught," and it is good for "the stomach's sake."

Mrs. Gridley is in town with a grand assortment of Millinery Goods. She occupies the store formerly occupied by Smith & Jones, and next door to their present location, where she will remain the balance of the week.

Our Streets are crowded with the hardy inhabitants of our county, who are in attendance upon court. We also notice a large number of persons from other sections, who are here on the same errand.

D. L. & M. H. Daniels are doing a large business at Lewisville, and attribute a large share of it to the fact of liberal advertising—wherein they exhibit wisdom. They have just received their summer stock. See announcement.

Drowned.—We regret to learn that about noon last Saturday, Wilson Hammond, son of Mr. Giles G. Gustin, of Homer township, was drowned in his father's mill-pond. He was playing on a small raft, and his father told him to get off and stay off the raft. He got off and his father went to dinner, we believe, supposing he would follow, but missing him in a short time returned but could not find him. Mr. G. became alarmed, and, with his family and neighbors, began a thorough search; after letting the water all out of the dam, in the afternoon, he was found, dead, standing in mire to his knees, the water at all times being very shallow where he was found. He was small of his age, being in his eighth year. He was buried Sunday.

Fourth of July in Coudersport.

At a meeting of citizens of Potter County held at the Court House in the Borough of Coudersport, on Tuesday Evening, June 21, 1859, for the purpose of making arrangements for the celebration of the next anniversary of our National Independence, H. L. Bird was chosen Chairman, and T. S. Chase and W. B. Graves, Secretaries. On motion,

Resolved, That the Chair appoint a Committee of five, who shall have full power to arrange the whole business of the day.

The following persons were appointed, viz: Lewis Mann, Chairman; G. B. Overton, Z. J. Thompson, A. F. Jones, P. A. Stebbins, jr.

On motion adjourned sine die.

New Publications.

THE LADIES' HAND-BOOK of Fancy and Ornamental Work,

Comprising directions and patterns for working in Applique, Bead-work Braiding, Canvass-work, Knitting, Netting, Latting, Worsted-work, Quilting, Patch-work, &c., &c. Illustrated with 262 new Engravings. Compiled from the best authorities, by Miss Florence Hartley. Published by G. G. Evans, 439 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. 1859.

This is the most complete and thorough work of its kind. By writing in a simple, straight-forward style, and rejecting all irrelevant topics, the author has been enabled to embody in this volume an immense amount of useful and valuable information, and by far the most extensive collection of elegant patterns that has ever been brought together in one book. These patterns are engraved by the best artists and printed on excellent paper and in beautiful style. Of course such a volume is in rage with the ladies, who can appreciate tasteful patterns for adorning their persons and their dwellings. They know the value of "Hartley's Ladies' Hand-Book," and are ordering with a perfect rush. It is an indispensable book for all who would be perfect in ornamental work.

Besides the subjects named on the title-page, we observe that the volume embraces descriptions and engravings of all the various kinds of stitches and descriptions, with illustrated patterns, and a multitude of other matters incidental to the subject. The number of useful patterns for working in this book is greater than can be obtained in any other way, by paying ten times the price asked for Hartley's Ladies' Hand-Book." This valuable book for the Ladies will be sent by mail, at the low price of one dollar. Evans will mail a copy and a handsome present to all persons remitting one dollar for the book and twenty-one cents for postage.

A new Classified Catalogue of Books and Gifts, with inducements to Agents, will be sent free, on application. Address

STEPS TOWARD HEAVEN; or, Religion in Common Life.

Written by T. S. Arthur, the well-known author, of whom it has been truly said, "That dying, he has not written a word which he could wish to erase." His graphic pen never tires, and in this new volume we perceive that he is still successfully laboring to benefit while he pleases, and while he enchains with master hand the attention of men, to make them better. This is more decidedly religious than his other works, though it is not doctrinal nor sectarian. It is a work well calculated to do good, and is designed to show that the beauties and endearments of Christianity are to be developed amid the stern realities of every-day life, "and not to be put aside at the tranquil close of Sabbath evening."

Published by G. G. Evans, 439 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. Price $1·00. Evans will mail a copy and a handsome present to any person remitting one dollar for the book, and twenty cents postage.

DISEASE OF THE STOMACH.

The stomach is the most liable to get out of order. Hence how important that no diseased matter clog its operation, which would cause nausea and distress by our food. It also weakens the brain, destroys the memory, creates pains and dimness, and various afflictions in the head. It produces great difficulty in breathing and swallowing. Sometimes fainting and fits will ensue; also bad breath, restlessness and great loss of strength. If not immediately attended to, the blood will carry the disease through the whole system, and death will end the work. From 2 to 5 of these Pills a day will keep the digestive organs in a healthy condition, and unclog or carry away all impure matter, and thoroughly restore and cleanse the stomach; at the same time the Pills will so purify the blood, as to drive all manner of disease from the system.

WORMS.

In a quantity of corrupted matter, there is always to be found a nest of worms. They cannot, neither will they stay anywhere else. Weak stomach and bowels are subject to them, as they have not sufficient power to digest their food. Hence a large heap of matter is lodged, and worms must be the result. A few doses of these pills will disturb them in their nest, and drive them out of the system.

It should be remembered, that an occasional dose when in health, especially after taking cold, will prevent the disease from forming in the body.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all dealers in Medicines.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that the books will be opened for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the stock of "THE COUDERSPORT, PORTAGE AND ALLEGHANY RIVER RAIL ROAD COMPANY," incorporated by an act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania approved April 12th 1851, at the office of N.
