Robert O'Lincoln.

For the Potter Journal.

DEAR JOURNAL.—There is a stranger among us from the South...

fine building and reflects credit on the enterprise and good taste of that gentleman.

From the N. Y. Tribune, 27th.

Mr. Greeley at Pike's Peak.

The following note from Mr. Greeley was written to a friend in this city...

"DENVER CITY, ROCKY MOUNTAINS, June 10, 1859."

"I am here in the vicinity of the Gold Diggings, nearly half way across the continent, but not half way through my journey."

"But the glorious Rocky Mountains are themselves worth a visit. They are not a range merely, but a chaos of mountains three hundred miles broad..."

COUDERSPORT, PA., Thursday Morning, June 30, 1859.

T. S. CHASE, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

Republican State Ticket, 1859.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, THOMAS E. COCHRAN, of York.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, WILLIAM H. KEIM, of Berks.

We give, in another place a very interesting letter in relation to some of the local features of the Sunbury and Erie R. R.

IMPORTANT TO YOUNG MEN.—Our New York correspondent informs us that he has known Dr. DE LAVER (whose advertisement is in our paper of this week), for several years...

The Austrian troops are returning from the Italian States, and the war in Italy is no doubt ended.

The accounts from the European crops are very flattering, and indicate that there will be very little demand upon the American frost-bitten crops.

Butter is selling at Harrisburg at 12 1/2 cents per pound.

Here, in one of the best grazing countries in the State, Butter sells for 15 @ 18 cents, and the demand exceeds the supply.

Recently a large number of New York merchants and other naturalized foreigners addressed a letter to Hon. J. M. Botts...

German Republicans.

Recently a large number of New York merchants and other naturalized foreigners addressed a letter to Hon. J. M. Botts...

Married: JANSEN—GLASE.—March 20, 1859, by Miss FANNY GLASE, of Sweden twp.

of the undersigned, the Hon. John Minor Botts is a representative of those conservative national principles upon which the opposition elements may be most readily combined...

Fifty Democrats Indicted.

From the Toledo Blade.

The Leavenworth jail is filled, says one of our exchanges, to overflowing with "good, tried and valient democracy," who have been arrested and indicted for fraudulent voting at the recent election.

We have received the first number of the Fayette Patriot, (late the Enterprise), published at Connelville, Pa., by R. Lyle White, recently editor of the Erie Constitution.

The last Kansas legislature passed a Registry-law, and the very day after the late election, the officers commenced registering the legal voters of Leavenworth county.

MRS. PARTINGTON AND IKE.—A new book by Mrs. Partington is one of the most agreeable literary announcements which we can make to the thousands who have laughed and grown fat over her unique sayings.

The Next Governor.

Among the names suggested for the next Governor of Pennsylvania, we notice that of Hon. Ed. D. Gazzam, of Pittsburgh.

The above extract from an Eastern paper implicitly admits the right of the West for the next candidate for Governor.

Political Announcements.

Announcements of Candidates, All Co. Convention, $1 each; Independent Candidates, Hill General Election, $2 each—in all cases, in ADVANCE.

FOR SHERIFF.

To the Electors of Potter County: Fellow-citizens—Having long been a resident of your county, (being among the first), I offer myself as an independent candidate for the office of Sheriff, at the ensuing election.

A CARD.

Fellow-citizens of Potter county, and the Republican Party—I have been solicited by numerous friends to offer myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff, this fall.

Married: Jansen—Glase.—March 20, 1859, by Miss Fanny Glase, of Sweden twp.

News Items.

PROPERTY RIGHTS OF MARRIED WOMEN.—The Supreme Court of Michigan has affirmed the decision of an inferior court, that a woman has a perfect right to control in all respects all property acquired by her before or after marriage...

FIRE AND DEATH.—The residence of Mr. Levi Pennyfield, in Montgomery county, was destroyed by fire recently. Two promising lads, sons of Mr. Pennyfield, who were asleep at the time the fire broke out, and could not be reached, were burned to death.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has given a decision that all persons having mills, factories, &c., on or by the side of streams, will be held liable for damages done to any person or persons by the deposit of dust, shavings, and other refuse matter, from their establishments, in the streams.

DIVORCES.—At a recent session of the Louisville Chancery Court, three divorces were granted in one day. Last Saturday a week, Judge McClure, of Pittsburg, announced six divorces, reiterating in terms of disgust his opinion of the "sickenening depravity" he was compelled to look into every Saturday.

REV. ALEXANDER CLARK, Editor of the School Visitor, says: "We have had ample opportunities during the last few weeks, of witnessing the practical workings of the Iron City College. Having been in almost daily intercourse with the Teachers and Students, in the study room, and at the different recitations. We have only to say that thoroughness, and intense interest, characterize every performance."

DEATH OF DR. BAILEY.—The steamer Sierra brings the sad intelligence that Dr. GAMALIEL BAILEY, the well-known editor of the National Era, who lately embarked for Havre, in the hope of recovering his health by foreign travel, died at sea on the 5th inst. His age was 51 or 52 years.
