We learn that a boy, about 19 years of the opening in front of it, when a piece of the metal struck him on the head killing him instantly. His parents resided in Wellsville. We are informed that others were slightly injured by the explosion.

Wanted, immediately at this Office, on account of subscriptions. We will will send us $12,50 in cash for ten copies of the JOURNAL.

We learn that a man was murdered at Ceres. McKean Co., last Friday, by an Inshman with whom he had had some pecuniary difficulty during the day. We did not learn either party's name. The Irishman sworn the deceased should nevclub. The man started off in his wagon, and was found dead soon after, with his head terribly beaten. The Irishman was arrested, and after an examination committed to jail at Smethport.
