COUDERSPORT, JULY 13, 1859. We learn that John II. Jones, Esq. formerly of this place and now a resident of Sheboygan, Wisconsin, delivered the Oration there on the Fourth inst., with who listened to him.

Warm .- This (Wednesday) morning, at 10 o'clock, the thermometer stands at 96° ,exposed in part to the sun. A shower of rain would be very acceptable to all concerned; but no signs of the favor being bestowed to-day.

Reinken James Gross, who, with a week sgo was re-captured in Allegany township last Sunday morning by a Sher' if's Deputy. The Sheriff learned on Saturday evening that he was there, working on a new saw-mill which General Harm n. of Livingston Co., N. Y., is erecting there, and sent his deputy after him. He to his discovery. We believe he made no resistance to the arresting officer.

For the Potter Journal. FRIEND CHASE-In the number of Ju-7th, I read with much interest a beauiul letter, said to be from "A gifted lady to her husband." And as you say he lady "is now abroad," why not diulge her name? It may be the sweet, mantic imaginations of some "gifted" d maid, or it may be some married lady who wishes to elevate herself by her husand's virtues. In either case the sentiment is grand, when she says, "A woman eldom rises above or falls below the poition her husband gives her." Now here is in the world an idea like this :---
