{ FOUR CENTS.

TERMS. $1.25 PER ANNUM.

VOLUME XII.--NUMBER 2.

COUDERSPORT, POTTER COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1859

THE POTTER JOURNAL PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING, BY Thos. S. Chase,

To whom all Letters and Communications should be addressed, to secure attention. germs-Invariably in Advance: $1.25 per Annum.

Terms of Advertising. Square [10 lines] 1 insertion, --- $1 Cach subsequent insertion less thati 13, n Square three months, ----nine Rule and figure work, per sq., 3 ins. Svery subsequent insertion, - - - - one month. per square of 10 lines, each insertion under 4, 1 00 Parts of columns will be inserted at the same rates. Administrator's or Executor's Notice, Auditor's Notices, each, - - - - -Sheriff's Sales, per tract, - - - -Marriage Notices, each, - - - -Divorce Notices, each,

Administrator's Sales, per square for 4 Business or Professional Cards, each, not exceding 8 lines, per year, ---Special and Editorial Notices, per line,

All transient advertisements must be paid in advance, and no notice will be taken Echo: of advertisements from a distance, unless they are accompanied by the money or satisfactor

Business Eurds.

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW Coudersport, Pa., will attend the several Courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All business entrusted in his care will receive prompt attention. Office on Main st., oppo site the Court House.

F. W. KNOX, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Coudersport, Pa., will regularly attend the Courts in Potter and the adjoining Counties. 10:1

ARTHUR G. OLMSTED, ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW Coudersport, Pa., will attend to all business entrusted to his care, with promptnes and ity. Office in Temperance Block, second door, Main St.

ISAAC BENSON. ATTORNEY AT LAW, Condersport, Pa., will attend to all business entrusted to him, with eare and promptness. Office corner of West

C. L. HOYT. CIVIL ENGINEER, SURVEYOR and DRAUGHTSMAN, Bingham, Potter Co., Pa., will promptly and efficiently attend to asted to him professional references can be given if re

SURVEYOR, will attend to all business in his line promptly and faithfully. Orders may be left at the Post Office in Coudersport, or at the house of H. L. Bird, in Sweden Twp. Particular attention paid to examining lands for non-residents. Good references given

SURVEYOR, DRAFTSMAN AND CONVEY

O. T. ELLISON, PRACTICING PHYSICIAN, Coudersport, Pa., cupied by C. W. Ellis, Esq.

COLLINS SMITH. E. A. JONES. SMITH & JONES,

DEALERS IN DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS, Oils, Fancy Articles, Stationery, Dry Goods, Groceries, &c., Main st., Coudersport, Pa.

D. E. OLMSTED, PEALER IN DRY GOODS, READY-MADE Clothing, Crockery, Groceries, &c., Main st. Coudersport, Pa.

M. W. MANN, PEALER IN BOOKS & STATIONERY, MAG-AZINES and Music, N. W. corner of Main and Third sts., Coudersport, Pa.

PRAPER and TAILOR, late from the City of Liverpool, England, Shop opposite Court House, Condersport, Potter Co. Pa. N. B. -Particular attention paid to CUT-10:35-1y.

A. J. OLMSTED. : : : : : : : : : : E. D. KELLY.

D. F. GLASSMIRE, Proprietor, Corner of

Puter Co., Pa., seven miles north of Con-

Noet's Corner:

The following, which we find in the Knickerbocker Magazine for September, is one

6 00 2 nd blending with them the flowerets blite, 3 00 It rivated the gem with its delicate hue. 7 00 So he sent down a beam to the hare-bell cup, per year. 6 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 3 80 00 And dtank the drop, in its beauty, up.

16 00 And such is the law in Nature's plan; Double-column, displayed, per annum 65 00 And such is the law in Nature's six months, 35 00 Subject to it is the fate of Man: 16 00 Life is the dew in the hare-bell cup, 6 00 And Death the beam that shall drink it up.

THE LOVER AND THE ECHO.

The following elegant bagatelle was the production of Dr. John M. Harney, who died at Bardstown, Ky., in 1825. He has published 1 50 several light pieces of uncommon merit.

Lover: 1 50 Echo, mysterious nymph, declare Of what you're made, and what you are-

Mid-air, cliff, and places high, Sweet Echo! listening love, you lie-Lover:

Thou dost resuscitate dead sounds-Hark! how my voice revives—resounds!

I'll question thee before I go-Come, answer me more apropos! Poh! Poh!

So sweet a girl as Phebe Shaw! Echo: Lover: Say, what will turn that frisking coney Into the toils of matrimony?

Tell me, fair nymph, if e'er von saw

Has Phebe not a heavenly brow? Is it not white as pearl-as snow?

Lover: Her eyes! Was ever such a pair? Are the stars brighter than they are? Echo:

Echo, thou liest! but can't deceive me! Her eyes eclipse the stars, believe me-Lover:

But come, thou saucy, pert romancer, Who is fair as Phebe! Answer!

Choice Reading.

THE CLEVELAND MYSTERY-ITS LESSON.

Church, Cleveland, on Sunday Eve- to the relief of Ilis poor. ning, August 14, 1859, by Rev. Dr. Claxton, Rector of said Parish.

From the Cleveland Herald, August 15. intercourse that I had ever enjoyed; he can never cease to deplore.

Abel, thy brother? And he said, I know not, am I my brother's keener?

"And He said, What hast thou done? the Beloved friends-it would be a false charity-a tenderness which would indeed be a weakness, not to say chargeable loved dead. By the graves of my own first intoxicating glass; who made of that (NoT a Church communicant,) say this slave trade.

children, in his own burnal place, I stood on Thursday last, to deposite his remains.

Can I speak otherwise than tenderly conwith a malignity that one might have from another."

Would that every man, ly for successful resistance to these monly Baptism, to be Christ's disciple; and ness on the stairs to grope and to stumble, could not resist the fascinations of evil in tures of time and money. There should the tongue would deserve to be forever and to plunge headlong to destruction? palsied which should charge him with To each one of us, my hearers, the periment of going so far and no farther? "First—A thorough understanding having made that protession in wilful hy- Providence of God in this calamity has a How fearful is the description which and interchange of sentiments and views

W. K. KING,

SURVEYOR, DRAFTSMAN AND CONVEYANCER, Smethport, M'Kean Co., Pa., will attend to business for non-resident landholders, upon reasonable terms. References given if required. P. S.—Maps of any part of the County made to order.

Prom the Circular August 15.

To be—"a most periently connecting, and large-hearted, energetic man, as staunch a friend as ever was." A man, wrote the Bishop, "whose mind is one of great influence." And on Friday last I received

Divine justice cannot let go unpunished.
The current conversation of society, the attendance is no part in the kinglarge-hearted, energetic man, as staunch is an unpardonable sin; but it is like any other siu of the flesh, and one which the Divine justice cannot let go unpunished.
The current conversation of society, the attendance is no part in the kinglarge-hearted, energetic man, as staunch
is an unpardonable sin; but it is like any other siu of the flesh, and one which the
Divine justice cannot let go unpunished.
The current conversation of society, the attendance is no part in the kinglarge-hearted, energetic man, as staunch
is an unpardonable sin; but it is like any other siu of the flesh, and one which the
Divine justice cannot let go unpunished.
The current conversation of society, the attendance man, as staunch
is an unpardonable sin; but it is like any other siu of the flesh, and one which the
Divine justice cannot let go unpunished.
The current conversation of society, the attendance man, as staunch
is an unpardonable sin; but it is like any other siu of the flesh, and one which the
Divine justice cannot let go unpunished.
The current conversation of society, the attendance man, as staunch
is an unpardonable sin; but it is like any other siu of the flesh, and one which the
is an unpardonable sin; but it is like any other siu of the flesh, and one which the before me.
Never have I been called, my friends,
a friend as ever was."

Never have I been called, my friends,
a friend as ever was."

Never have I been called, my friends,
a through which I have passed since on last lament from which I must read a few common language of the press deals alto-Sunday morning it was told me "E. T. words: "I have no heart to write—but gether too lightly with this offence against Republican triends throughout the Union: Sterling is dead." Dead? Can it be? to be dumb—except to say 'It is the Lord' God and against man. Even Christian "In the judgement of the undersigned g RACTICING PHYSICIAN, Coudersport, Pa., | Sterling is dead." Dead? Can it be? to be dumb—except to say It is the Lord God and against man. Even Christian "In the judgement of the undersigned gestions, an adequate amount of money respectfully informs the citizens of the vil- My friend! my counsellor! my brother! in reference to this most awful death of men and women are too ready to make a members of the Republican National will be required, for the legal and faithlage and vicinity that the will promptly respond to all calls for professional services.

What a blow to you as jest of the drunkard and of his habits a Committee, the time has arrived for ful expenditure of which the undersigned whose unselfishness I had seen so abundhis Pastor. For nearly twenty-seven fault which may well remind us of the consultation and preliminary action in will hold themselves responsible. The antly manifested; whose generosity I had years has his house been my kind and af lord the manifested; whose generosity I had years has his house been my kind and af lord the manifested; whose generosity I had years has his house been my kind and af lord the manifested; whose sympathis fectionate home, and never anything but of sin."

The manifested is regard to the approaching struggle for the federal government the Presidency, and they beg, therefore, will be wielded against us, to which we ing tenderness had soothed my hours of the most generous and affectionate hospideep personal affliction; whose hand was tality did I receive from him, and never the first of all the members of this par did I see anything in him inconsistent at all. Drunkenness drags a man down had its origin in the obvious necessity and the voluntary pecuniary offerings of ish to give me the warm grasp of greeting, in my then distant home on the banks of the Ohio, and afterwards, when you knew him well; if any knew him betof a fiend. It was only by destroying his states respectively their reserved rights to the level of a brute. Gambling, perfor resistance to the aggressions of the our Republican friends.

"In conclusion, the undersigned may banks of the Ohio, and afterwards, when you knew him well; if any knew him betof a fiend. It was only by destroying his states respectively their reserved rights be permitted to express their opinion that drawn largely by the magnetism of his ter than myself, he knew more of the nonoble nature, I came to seek a home bleness of his nature. Yet this is the amongst you; he with whom I had spent man whose name has for a week past been drawn largely by the magnetism of his ter than myself, he knew more of the nomoral sense through the intoxicating cup and sovereignties. In the contest of the signs of the times are auspicious for that he could be made to stoop to such 1859, by the presentation and advocacy the Republican party, and that, in their degradation. The essential nature of of the true science of government, it judgement, discreet and patriotic action. many of the most pleasant hours of social in every mouth; whose sad, sad end we gambling is seen in the revelation that laid the foundation of a permanent poli-throughout the confederacy promises to DRALER IN STOVES, TIN & SHEET RON WARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court Rouse, Coudersport, Pa. Tin and Sheet Iron Ware made to order, in good style, on short notice.

OUVERSPORT HOTEL, D. F. GLASSMIRE, Proprietor, Corner Plain and Second Streets, Coudersport, Pa. That our thoughts may take a more Poter Co., Pa.

ALLEGANY HOUSE, SAMUEL M. MILLS, Proprietor, Colesburg Poter Co., Pa., seven miles north of Congression, and the Corner of Samuel M. MILLS, Proprietor, Colesburg Poter Co., Pa., seven miles north of Congression, and the Corner of Samuel M. Mills, Proprietor, Colesburg Poter Co., Pa., seven miles north of Congression, and the Lord said unto Cain, Where is of soul.

Braid Court Main st., nearly opposite the Court Main and Second Streets, Condersport, Pa. Tin and Sheet the pastor and this, that the laws, both as to point insisting that the laws, both as to the traffic in poisonous the wints, should be vigorously executed?

Have any said, "If I do not broken faith. So apparont is this, even with a passage of God's own word. Generally the control of Congruence of public in the repeat-distribution of the minigid; he, whose presence in any circle was wont to his steps, luring him to his ruin. I shall selves under continual pressure of public respect to meet the expectations of the most control of the tinistic cand as to the traffic in poisonous the tinistic cand as to the traffic in poisonous the individual pressure of public respect to meet the expectations of the most control of the view between the pastor and this, this vice and as to the traffic in poisonous the individual pressure of public respect to meet the expectations of the most control of the proposition of the did not the satisfaction of public in the re been this our brother's keeper?

God only knows how far he was respon- friend! But as God's messenger, I cite to answer keepers—who, knowing the first glass would plinder and destroy them.

Death of E. T. Sterling.

Sermon Preached at St. Paul's was ever open to the cause of Christ, and Church, Cleveland, on Sunday Evenuing, August 14, 1859, by Rev. Dr.

I found him just what the venerable whatever be his appetite or propensity, and the presidential party, and exceedingly punctual attendant of all as a disease; but where a man has sach use of degradation.

Alas! the spirit writhing under the common before God, if, and the hopeless cannot excuse himself before God, if, whatever be his appetite or propensity, and exceedingly punctual attendant of all as a disease; but where a man has sach use of his mental and moral faculties as Punctious sense of evil, and the hopeless cannot excuse himself before God, if, whatever be his appetite or propensity, and exceedingly punctual attendant of all as a disease; but where a man has sach use of his mental and moral faculties as Punctious sense of evil, and the hopeless cannot excuse himself before God, if, whatever be his appetite or propensity, and exceedingly punctual attendant of all as a disease; but where a man has sach use of his mental and moral faculties as Punctious sense of evil, and the hopeless cannot excuse himself before God, if, whatever be his appetite or propensity, and exceedingly punctual attendant of all as a disease; but where a man has sach use of his mental and moral faculties as Punctious sense of evil, and the hopeless cannot excuse himself before God, if, and the hopeless cannot excuse himself before God, if, and the hopeless cannot excuse himself before God, if, and the hopeless cannot excuse himself before God, if, and the hopeless cannot excuse himself before God, if, and the punctious sense of evil, and the Presidential struggle;

"He provident at the service of the Presidential struggle;

"He punctious sense of evil, and the hopeless cannot be punctious sense of evil, and the hopeless cannot be a supplied to the punctious sense of evil, and the punctious sense of evil, and the punctious sense of evil, and the punctious sense of ev Bishop of this Diocese, who had known yields to the temptation. God classes the him for twenty-seven years, described him drunkard with the murderer. He says to be-"a most perfectly confidential, and that for such there is no part in the king-has been even partially made in the in-tical organization, although it did not secure a Republican victory in 1860. Unwhose business tact and far-reaching sage to depiore.

In a been even partially made in the including and the power to enforce get possession of the power to enforce willing, however, to encourage hopes than the fit; worse than highway robbery; its principles. When the result, adverse which may be disappointed, and to place worker with me in the Vestry of this ginning of a change in the aspect of his worse than a hundred other crimes for to its efforts and its hopes, was declared, their appeal for aid and co-operation upon church, in the Convention of this Dio-church, in the Convention of this Dio-cese, in the trusteeship of Kenyon Col-lege, (an institution whose present pros-lege, (are institution whose present pros-cese, in the trusteeship of Kenyon Col-annoyed him and called him often from tentiary. So even the imperfect legisla-lege, (are institution whose present pros-cese, in the trusteeship of Kenyon Col-annoyed him and called him often from itentiary. So even the imperfect legisla-lege, (are institution whose present pros-cese, in the trusteeship of Kenyon Col-annoyed him and called him often from itentiary. So even the imperfect legisla-lege, (are institution whose present pros-his home. I feared that he was forming tion of most well ordered communities best wishes for an honest and fair admin-constrained to say that they rely most perity is largely wing to his faithful and new and injurious associations. Soon his deals with it. Why, then, let me ask, istration of the government. disinterested labor in directing its administration); he whom his fellow-citizeus came irregular, and ere long it ceased. has not public sentiment demanded the istration has realized these wishes is now and co-operation; meanwhile we have the (by whom he was so well known) had ad- At last the fearful truth was made too enforcement of existing laws? Why patent to the world. With the executive honor to be, very respectfully, your obe-OLMSTED & KELLY, mired, and honored, and trusted; he, apparent that there were tempters about have not those in authority felt thempower of the government in his hands, dient servants,

DEALER IN STOVES, TIN & SHEET IRON whose presence in any circle was wont to his steps, luring him to his ruin. I shall selves under continual pressure of public his administration has failed in every E. D. Morgan, N. Y. O. N. Schoolfield, Tons.

Where were the men who ought to have one of us ought to have been whis by the rival aspirations and struggles acle of grace, in the last hours, after the hour! Other brethren, futhers, sons, cit- disorganized the party which placed if the Mickerbocker Magazine for September, is one of those gems of poetized Truth which give man death of which we have any record seemingly unconscious, hese sought God's degraded, ruined—it may be, murdered, constantly mindful of the great public seemingly unconscious, he so sought God's degraded, ruined—it may be, murdered, back echoes to the heart from the excellences of literature:—ED. JOURNAL.

STORY OF A DEW-DROP.

If it a hare-bell cup, at the break of day, Sparkling and bright a dew-drop lay; When ruddy mora the east o'erspread, The dew-drop caught the rays it shed; I rivated the gen with its delicate hue.

It is the sun, when he rose, was wroth to see A dew-drop could shine more bright! than here and cath by wholence—a death by murdered, and the great public mercy in Christ—so believed—and the through the allurement of these destroy, more of these destroy work of God's Spirit was so wrought as through the allurement of these destroy, and faithful to the fundamental principle to rescue his precious soul. That soul is charge you, save them. Let the thunders of public indignation expel from our learnt who will surely "do right." Happy it the civil tribunals when I even infer confellow-mortal. But here I arraign as a death of violence, inflicted by another's land? I do not accuse here any man of the wilful murder of this my friend. I was a death by wildence—a death by murdered, the great public mercy in Christ—so believed—and the through the allurement of these destroy, more death by murdered, constantly mindful of the great public work of God's Spirit was so wrought as through the fundamental principle to rescue his precious soul. That soul is charge you, save them. Let the thunders of public indignation expel from our that soul is it that man is not the final judge of his is it that man is not the final judge of his is it that man is not the final judge of his is it that man is not the final judge of his is it that man is not the final judge of his is it that man is not the final judge of his the civil tribunals when I even infer concept is the civil tribunal who would continue to ply this trade of death amongst us the civil tribunals when I even infer concept is the civil tribunals when I even infer concept is the civil tribunal to the fundamenta the wilful murder of this my friend. I ly when reason was dethrough by alcohol- your husbands, Christian wives—for your partially disposed of by the energy, enterquisition for blood; and we to them if I was giving vent to my feelings of strong they dare say with the first murderer, detestation of everything that has the remotest semblance to gambling—and even government; not content with the dis-Those men, who, masking themselves the experienced Bishop seemed to think pensation of the honors and employments with unfaithfulness to God and to man, as friends, fure their victims into their me in danger of taking an extreme view of the national administration; not conpocrisy. When I first knew him, almost voice.

Mary Howitt gives of the votary of vice: between the Republicans of every section while seven years ago, I thought I had seldom seen his equal in all that makes the high-minded, liberal, Christian gentleman. He is not one word in this sacred book, from first to last, of the while he groans for freedom; for the inthis sacred book, from first to last, of the while he groans for freedom; for the inthis sacred book, from first to last, of the while he groans for freedom; for the inthis sacred book, from first to last, of the while he groans for freedom; for the Republican voters of each state;

Political.

N. Y., issued the following circular to their throughout the country.

Republican triends throughout the Union: "To give practical effect to these sugkeeper," his guardian, his true, watchful its leading partisans. While the adminis-friend tration has been thus faithless to the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me sible; God only knows, whether by a mir. There are other men in like peril at this interests of the country, and has thus have my own opinion as to the propable ic drinks he could stoop to indulge! These fathers, young men—for all who are lured prise and valor of a free people, the duty agency that immediately caused his death.

| drinks he could stoop to indulge! These fathers, young men—for all who are lured prise and valor of a free people, the duty agency that immediately caused his death. ples, as enunciated at !Philadelphia, and at God's tribunal every man who, knowing the weaknessess of the departed, acted other than a brother's part towards were I to seek to cover up the past. Had lurking dens, and when they have desthe history of the deceased during the past few months been hitherto concealed, it would not be my part to give it publicity. Gladly would I, if I dared, imilies, it may be, their creditors or their leminations of an Opprission to their restrictions of an Opprission to their restriction of an opprission to their restrictions of an Opprission to their restriction of the understood why I then with its well-kown influence—always permitted with its well-kown influence—always the tent with its well-kown influence—always permitted with its wel tate those reverent, loving sons, who, vestigations of an Omniscient, inflexible to you. Touch them not except to con- an institution local in its character, the with a garment laid on both their shoulders, walked backwards, and covered up body into hell. There will they find what upon them is a spot of blood—of soulfederal government is not authorized to their father's shame. No man in this is the guilt of him who, not his brother's blood. Teach your children to abhor establish or extend by and grant of delcommunity (save, possibly, those nearest keeper, has been his brother's destroyer, them. Here, before God, I thank my egated powers. It demands, by an of kin,) loved E. T. Sterling more than I There they will find what is God's esti- own revered Christian parents (now in unauthorized asumption of power-after loved him. None admired more his no mate of conduct like that which the past Heaven) that they never suffered me to having, as occasion required, adopted ble qualities. None, perhaps, was under week's investigations have disclosed; what tirfle with the gambler's tools. If my and repudiated all the crude theories greater obligations to his generosity than the decision of Heaven's Supreme Court sons perish as our loved friend has for the extension of slavery of the ammyself. When death, once and again, will be as to the man who, professing perised, they shall not have to charge me bitious politicians who sought its favor. entered my household, his brotherly symfriendship, could take to his own room a with being even the unwitting occasion —the establishment and protection of pathy offered me not only consolation, but companion who, he knew, lost his selfof their perdition. Happy was I to hear of slavery in the territories by act of Cona resting place for the remains of my own control as quickly as he partook of the one of your most honored fellow-citizens, gress, and the revival of the African cerning him? I will speak as he (for I knew well his neart) would have wished me to speak. God give me grace to be faithful.

The speak of the foundary that one might have the inpublic or private life, could make the strous propositions, and for the correction honorable avowal! No respectable house of the gross abuses which have charecter his companion with the draught of moral hold—not to say no Christian family—lised the present national administration. It is the duty, then, of all patriotic particles. E. T. Sterling was one of the founders describes this trade of robbery) all the citizen of Alabama not long since describ- who wish for the establishment of Roof this church. He was, pecuniarily, its money is his possession; and who (if his largest benefactor. He gave not only his money, but his time, his thoughts, his watchful care to its well-being. Twelve years ago, under the ministry of the first years ago, under the well-known implements of the publican principles and measure Rector of St. Paul's, he professed, in Ho guished the light and left him in dark- erous, so unselfish, so truthful, so noble, volving earnest labor and the expendiwas a warden of this church; a regular disease of drunkenness. I do not say it dulgence of those vices miscalled pleasure, county and town, so that our party may and faithful teacher in the Sabbath-school; is never a disease, nor ever to be treated while they deaden the will, leave quiver- know its strength and its deficiencies, an exceedingly punctual attendant on all as a disease; but where a man has such ingly alive the sense of degradation. * * its power and its needs, before we engage posing the dangerous character of the principles and policy of the administration. "Fourth-Public addresses in locali-

confidently upon the patriotism and seal