

Town and County

COUDERSPORT, NOVEMBER 17, 1859.

The Second Term of Miss Haven's school will commence on Monday, November 28th inst.

Notice.—E. C. Wright will lecture at the Town Hall, on Friday (to-morrow) evening, on the subject of "The Rights of the Poor." Public generally are invited to attend.

Wood Wanted.—We want thirty or forty cords of good store wood, (or 34 cord wood,) on subscriptions to the Journal. Those living near the village nowing us, or desiring to subscribe, will find it advantageous to pay to this day. We want a few cords immediately.

We will take two or three quarters of Beef on subscriptions if brought immediately. Also, a few hams of good quality. Farm produce of all kinds and will always pay subscriptions.

The Atlantic Monthly has been purchased by Messrs. Ticknor & Fields, the celebrated Boston publishers, for $10,000. It will lose none of its influence and character by the change of management.

There will be an Exhibition and Lecture, Biblical and Historical, by Mr. Brett, at the Town Hall, on Saturday Evening, Nov. 19th 1859. Mr. Brett comes to us with a list of choice testimonials. See ad. bills.

The County Teachers' Association, is in session in the Town Hall. The attendance is large, and the proceedings interesting. We presume they will adjourn officially in an early No. of the JOURNAL.

New Advertisements.—We present a new number of new advertisements in our number of our paper. We are so crowded with matter, that we can not give them a separate notice, but simply direct the attention of our readers to them in a general way. Next week we will close some of the more important ones particularly.

R. R. Champney, Jr., the Agent for this county presented us with one of Loren Wetmore's new Patent Animal Traps, which after a trial in catching mice, we are glad to announce one of the best we ever saw. It is simple in construction, yet so perfect in design that it will catch as many as nine rats at a time. Mr. C. will also fill all orders from direction by letter. His post-office address is Gaines, Tioga Co., Pa., which is also address of the inventor.

We visited Ulysses, Hector and Harrison townships week before last, and regret our space will not allow us to speak of our friends in those towns. We hope to be less crowded next week, when we will give our impressions there. We would, however, briefly call attention to the extra circular of the Ulysses Academy, which will be found folded in paper. We paid the Academy a brief visit, and found it a well arranged building, convenient and capacious; and Professor is a worthy and zealous teacher, a refined gentleman withal. The circular of the Academy gives all the information needed by those who desire to inquire themselves of the terms &c.

Washington and Everett.—We have received from the publishers, Messrs. H. Bailey & Co., of 543 Broadway, New-York, a pair of very large, full length engravings of Washington and Everett. So many coarse, miserable pictures have been palmed upon the public, works of art, and especially in cheap, black and muddy engravings, that it is difficult to convince persons of taste that they are safe in ordering what they have first seen. We are happy to be able to say, that in this case, the engravings all the publishers claim for them, are really beautiful works of art, that will run any parallel. No American could be without a good portrait of Washington, and now, as Mount Vernon is about to be rescued by the ladies, it is especially appropriate that the hero and home should be placed prominently before the public.

Mr. Everett, from his position; fame, worth, as well as from his efforts in aid of Mount Vernon, which have already contributed over $70,000 to the fund, is well worthy of being associated in the memory of Washington. The engravings are excellent and spirited, and the engravings are offered to be sent to subscribers post-paid, and any three dollar magazine a year for $4.00. Or one engraving and a magazine a year for $5.00. We have never before seen any thing so good at anything like the price. We notice that leading New-York papers do not notice the publishers as "fully responsible for all they promise." See advertisement.

JOHN BROWN is the father of twenty children—a force sufficient, itself, to do Virginia and frighten the slaveholders everywhere. We suppose some of these children were girls, but we don't think that would make any difference.—Women would scare the Virginians.—"Guns in arms" would do it.—Ohio State Journal.

Married.—SCHWARZENBACH—HOECKER.—In Germany, Oct. 23d, by Alex. Erdman, Esq., Mr. Meinrich Schwarzenbach to Miss Catharina Hoecker, all of Germania City. (We wish the twin all the happiness they can bear up, and a long continuance of the burden. The "joke" of our friend Andrew, which accompanied the above notice, having been handed over to the County Recorder, to presume he will be duly appreciated by him when he "gets it down," and as his cousin (the M. D.) recommended that course for it, we conceived rather than attempt to swallow it ourselves. Reader, it was a "joke"—an article we never use; however, much our friend and other judges may assure us that it will not inordinate.—Ed. Jour.)

DIED.—LEACH.—In Hector township, on Monday, Oct. 21st, HIRAM C. LEACH, aged 32 years.

PRICE CURRENT. Corrected every Wednesday, by P. A. STEBBINS, wholesale and retail Dealer in Groceries and Provisions. Main Street, COUDERSPORT, PA.

INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES. Like all other inflammation, is caused by impurity of the blood, which causes all eruptive diseases, as Salt Rheum, Scarcy, Boils, Sores, Etc., &c. The blood being unhealthy, and of an impure nature, also occasions Dropsies. The blood becoming obstructed in the veins, the watery part of the blood in consequence is thrown out from their extremities, and dropsy is the result. Many times it is occasioned by improper treatment of some former disease, and the vessels being filled by serous humors instead of blood. Free evacuations by these pills, open the passage into the bladder and carry off the corrupted humors, and renew them with pure and healthy blood, which will drive out of the body all inflammation, together with eruptions of the skin, and all dropsical complaints. They will be a shield to every form of disease to guard and keep you from the cold grasping hand of death, and cause life and strength to remain, and the countenance to brighten with the bloom of beauty and health.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all dealers in Medicines.
