

Great SHOW

THIS AFTERNOON

AT STEBBINS STORE,

And every day thereafter,

During the Year,

In the sale of GOODS at LOWER prices

BETTER

Bargains than ever offered in

COUDERSPORT

New and Fresh Supplies

OF

GOODS

As being received

Every week

His stock comprises all qualities, kinds and varieties of FANCY and DOMESTIC

Dry Goods,

Groceries,

Hardware,

Crockery

AND

Every Description

OF

FANCY GOODS

YANKEE NOTIONS,

Ready-made Clothing,

HATS & CAPS

Ladies', Gents' and Childrens'

BOOTS, SHOES & GAITERS

GLASS-WARE,

WOODEN-WARE,

NAILS and GLASS,

PAINTS, OILS

AND

DYE-STUFFS.

IRON & STEEL

A Large Quantity

Just Received

AND

SOLD CHEAPER

THAN AT

Any Other Store

IN THE COUNTY

FOR CASH.

You are especially invited to call. We are nursed in the store but you shall receive attention.

ALL KINDS OF

Produce Taken

on account, and in exchange for Goods

Cash Never Refused

THE

HIGHEST MARKET PRICE

PAID FOR

CORN, WHEAT, RYE,

OATS and BUCKWHEAT

embodied in his journal of the prominent persons and leading productions in the Fashionable, Artistic and Intellectual World.

He will also give more of his picturings of home life and rural family sympathies and interests, out-door and in, and a few more of the MEMORANDA FOR INVALIDS which his experience, correspondence with invalids and practised observation on this subject enable him to write.

BARRY GRAY will supply a NEW SERIES of amusing sketches, drawn from real life, under the title of

MY FRIENDS AND I, in which sundry well-known literary men and artists will figure.

As heretofore, no labor or expense will be spared in maintaining the high reputation of the Home Journal, which is everywhere, both at home and abroad, acknowledged to be the most refined and elegant Repository of literature and the Arts on this side of the sea, and the best and cheapest family newspaper in the world.

As no more copies of the new volume will be printed than are ordered, those who desire to begin with the commencement of the year will be able to do so by forwarding their subscriptions at once.

TERMS.—For one copy, $2; for three copies, $5—or one copy for three years, $5—for a club of seven copies, $10; for a club of fifteen copies, $20; and that rate for a larger club—always in advance.

Address: MORRIS & WILLIS, Editors and Proprietors, 107 Fulton Street, New York.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.

STILL GREATER INDUCEMENTS, A CHANCE TO OBTAIN Two Handsome Steel Engravings.

A Beautiful Engraving Also AS A PREMIUM TO EVERY SUBSCRIBER!!

FICTION, NEWS, HUMOR, AGRICULTURE, THE MARKETS, &c., &c.

The Proprietors of the SATURDAY EVENING POST—the oldest and best of the Weeklies—have the pleasure to announce to the reading public, that they have made an exclusive engagement with an Author whose powerful stories have of late attracted great attention; and that they will open the year 1860 with a novel, written expressly for THE POST, called

THE EARL'S DAUGHTERS.

By the Author of "THE RED COAT FARM," "THE ROSE," "THE HESTER HALLIVELL," "STORIES," "THE SIX GRAY POWDBERS," "THE DIAMOND BRACELET," &c., &c.

In this story, written expressly for THE POST, this powerful writer's genius has had full scope afforded it; and we are able to state—having read it in manuscript, for it is already in hand—that it will make a sensation, unless we are greatly mistaken, as one of the most powerful and interesting stories ever published.

To enable those unacquainted with THE POST to judge of the richness and variety of its general contents, we may state that during the past year we have published novels, stories, poems, essays, &c. from the pens of the following gifted writers:

G. P. R. James. Author of "The Red Coat Farm." Charles Dickens. Author of "Farm of Four Acres." Alfred Tennyson. Grace Greenwood. Charles Reade. Miss Pardoe. H. W. Longfellow. Florence Percy. Charles Mackay. Wilkie Collins. Dr. O. W. Holmes. Amelia B. Edwards. T. S. Arthur. Em' a. A. Brown. Author of "The Ebony Casket," &c. Alexander Dumas. Mrs. M. A. Dennison. Owen Meredith. Fanny M. Raymond. P. J. Batley, (Author of "Festus") Nora Perry. Ticut. Habersham. Isa Craig. Mary Howitt. Miss Martineau.

THE POST does not confine itself, however, to works of the imagination, as so many Weeklies now do. It generally devotes a fair portion of its ample space to the NEWS of the WEEK, FOREIGN and DOMESTIC, to LETTERS FROM PARIS, to an AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, to BANK NOTES and STOCK LIST, and to a WEEKLY and ACCURATE PRICE CURRENT of the PRODUCE MARKETS, &c., &c.

TERMS.—ENGRAVINGS.

HAMILTON'S TWO VIEWS OF NIAGARA FALLS—a complete and large-sized Steel Engraving—the retail price of which is FIVE DOLLARS—we are enabled to Club with THE POST on the following remarkable liberal terms.

We also Club with those well-known Monthly Magazines, Arthur's Home Magazine and Godey's Lady's Book. Read the following and take your choice of TERMS.

One Copy of THE POST, $2.00 a year.
One Copy of THE POST and both Engravings of Niagara Falls, 3.00 "
One Copy of THE POST and one of Arthur's Home Magazine, 3.00 "
One Copy of THE POST and one of Godey's Lady's Book, 3.00 "

CLUBS.

2 Copies of THE POST, $3.00 a year.
4 " (and one of the Engravings to getter up of Club), 5.00 "
8 " (and one copy extra, or both Engravings to getter up of Club), 10.00 "
13 " (and one copy extra, or both Engravings to getter up of Club), 15.00 "
20 " (and one copy extra, or both Engravings to getter up of Club), 20.00 "
30 " (and one copy extra, and both Engravings to getter up of Club), 30.00 "

Ministers and School Teachers are charged only $1 a year. The Riddle and Problem Departments renders THE POST particularly acceptable to the latter class.

A BEAUTIFUL PREMIUM.

A large and beautiful Engraving on steel, 17 by 23 inches, called "THE SPEAKING LIKENESS," will be sent to every subscriber to "THE POST" for 1860, who shall send, in addition to his subscription, the sum of twenty-five cents, to pay the expense of postage, mailing, &c., &c. The retail price of this engraving is Four Dollars! It is a Gem!

P. S.—The Postage will be pre-paid on all the Engravings. Address,

DEACON & PETERSON, No. 132 South Third St., Philadelphia.

NESS," as a premium to every subscriber. It offers also two other large steel engravings of "THE FALLS OF NIAGARA," as a premium to the getters up of Clubs. The contributors to the Post are not excelled by those of any other paper. See Prospectus.

LIGHT MORE LIGHT.

To the Republicans of Potter County: This is the most favorable time you have ever had to commend your principles to those of your neighbors who are not willfully blind. The brutal attack on the Hon. Charles Sumner, the sack of free towns in Kansas, the attempt to force the Lecompton Constitution on protesting people, the attempt to revive the Slave trade in defiance of the Act of Congress declaring that trade piracy; these, and other acts in character with them, predispose all candid men in the Free States to look to the Republican party for a remedy. Hence it is the especial duty of all working Republicans, to make an immediate and energetic effort, to increase the circulation of Republican papers.

Your associates in Coudersport and vicinity, have organized a club for that purpose. We intend to do that work thoroughly. We have already doubled the number of Weekly Tribunes taken at this office. We appeal to active Republicans in each Township in this County, to make an earnest effort to increase the circulation of THE POTTER JOURNAL and New York Tribune. Do it now. Two hundred new subscribers to these journals, obtained by the middle of January, will increase the Republican majority in this county 200 next fall.

Shall we make this the "Banner County" of the State? If so, we must begin the work now. We invite our associates in each Township to correspond with us, so that we shall all work intelligently together.

JOHN S. MANN,
Chairman Central Republican Club.
H. J. ORNSTED, Secretary.

Fred Douglas truthfully states that the slave holders hunt their runaway niggers in the South with dogs, and in the North with Democrats.

The Yankees, it is said, are coining money in the manufacture and sale of rifles and muskets for the South. This is the "non-intercourse" we hear so much about since the John Brown raid.

STRAY HEIFER.

BROKE into the inclosure of the subscriber on or about the first of Nov., a YEARLING HEIFER—color, white and spotted. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges, and take her away. ROULET, Nov. 10, 1859. HORACE MALBY.

AGENTS WANTED!

TO SELL CARY'S PATENT CAP AND BREAST LANTERN.

To those furnishing satisfactory references, a liberal salary and expense will be paid. The article is needed by every farmer and mechanic in the country, and will meet with ready sale. For particulars address: J. C. CARY, Patentee, 81 Nassau Street, ROULET, Nov. 10, 1859.

THE HOME JOURNAL, FOR 1860.

MORRIS AND WILLIS, EDITORS.

A NEW YEAR of this popular family newspaper will be commenced on the first day of January next—printed on fine paper and clear type.

With the January number will begin the publication of a new and beautiful ORIGINAL WORK OF FACT AND FIGURES, written expressly for the Home Journal, entitled,

JENTY PROUDFOOT.

ROMANCE OF AMERICAN HISTORY. BY A DISTINGUISHED AUTHOR.

The romantic events on which this beautiful story is founded, occurred in the troubled times of 1782, immediately before the close of the Revolutionary War, and the recognition of American Independence—a time when strange events brought out strong character, and mighty trials a corresponding heroism. The most romantic imagination never invented fiction more exciting than the historical passages of these times—(strange to say, until now unappropriated by the novelist.) Many heroisms and womanly devotion are wrought to the highest degree, through a chain of events not less exciting than strange—not less strange than true.

This charming story will be succeeded by A BRILLIANT VENETIAN TALE. BY OCTAVE FEUILLET, the celebrated author of "The Romance of a Poor Young Man," the success and circulation of which, both in the New and Old World, have been unprecedented, and given him a place amongst the first of living novelists. The tale is one of surpassing interest, replete with incidents, and highly descriptive of Italian life, morals and manners. Its translation from the French by Mrs. MARIAN M. POLKMAN, (expressly for the Home Journal), herself a talented and gifted authoress, eminently qualified for the task by education, and her residence in the country of the author, will sufficiently guarantee the purity of the style in which it will be rendered, and that nothing of the force and merit of the original will be lost in its translation.

SPECIALITIES.

All the former peculiar features of the paper, which have given it a world-wide reputation, will be continued, and several new ones will give an infinite variety to its ever diversified pages.

George P. Morris, besides his usual constant labors upon the general departments of the paper, will make it the work on which to brooder first many SKETCHES, SONGS, BALLADS, etc., suggested by the history and events of the passing time.

N. P. Willis will give a continuous series of PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE HOUR, are strengthening the hands of a party who are in favor of it, and the men in office will not execute the laws of the country against it. If you would stop these things, and bring the Government back to the doctrine of the Fathers, why not unite with the Republican party, and accomplish the object?"

When old Brown's two sons were killed in Kansas, and his daughter made a maniac, by Southern ruffians, James Buchanan and supporters derided his sufferings; nay, they were the occasion of it, causatively. But so soon as Brown, driven to madness by the persecutions to which he had been subjected, made up his mind to seek revenge by the most desperate methods, Buchanan and his tribe comprehended at once how unjustifiable a thing ruffianism is. They are themselves responsible for the insane proceedings; as Harper's Ferry, for they contrived and sustained the ruffianism of which this is the legitimate fruit.—E.

The Potter Journal.

COUDERSPORT, PA.
Thursday Morning, Dec. 15, 1859.

T. S. CHASE, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

A meeting of the Republicans of Potter County will be held at the Court House, on THURSDAY Evening of Dec. Court week, to elect a Delegate to the Republican State Convention, to be held at Harrisburg on Wednesday, the 22d of February next, which convention is to nominate a candidate for Governor, and choose a Republican Electoral Ticket for 1860. A full attendance is requested. By order of County E. C. Com.

No JOURNAL will be issued next week, as we are so pressed with job work and other business that we are compelled to suspend the paper. Next week being Court we will naturally have our hands full of business, and we hope such as will make us able to a much larger edition thereafter.

Read the Address of the Central Republican Club in another column—and not only read it but consider it well; and circulate it among your neighbors.

While we favor a union, as far as practicable, of the various parties opposed to the National Administration, we yet believe the sentiment of the following extract, from the Ohio State Journal, to be founded upon TRUTH. It more immediately refers to the late election in Ohio, but, of course, has a general application:—

"The returns of the election teach an important lesson. Wherever Republican doctrines have been most boldly avowed, and wherever the Republican organization has been most rigidly maintained, our success has been marked by the largest majorities. Even Monroe—the stronghold of Democracy—has partially yielded to compact Republican phalanx, which followed no divided command.—Wherever the reverse is the case, with few exceptions, we see a different result. The Republican party is strongest where its principles are maintained and avowed in their greatest purity. One of the valuable results of the late election has been the demonstration of this truth. The battle we have fought has not been one of coalition, and the victory has been achieved by the power of Republican principles, boldly and firmly avowed."

The "Irrepressible Conflict" was commenced in Congress by the slaveholders on the first day of the session, before the House was organized. The Republicans desired to proceed to the business that called them together, but the slaveholders and their Northern allies preferred to engage in the discussion of John Brown's seizure of Harper's Ferry, and Helper's Book, which compares the growth and prosperity of the Free States with the poverty and stand-still condition of the Slave States—an excellent book by the way, which every freeman ought to read. And thus the slaveholders have given further proof of the "irrepressible conflict" between Freedom and Slavery—between virtue and vice. This conflict has prevented an organization of the House for thirteen days. What it will next prevent, or do, time will discover.

No Speaker had been elected up to last Tuesday noon, at which time the House had been in session thirteen days. The probability is that no organization will be effected until after the holidays, and that then Mr. Sherman will be elected. Republican members are wisely avoiding to answer the insane beatings of Clark, of Mo., and the other Southern blackguards, in the minority, who are occupying the time—not the attention—of the majority. All will be right yet, for even liberal-minded Southern members are becoming disgusted with such ravings as those.

Who are They?

Yes, who are the men in this community that gloat over the execution of John Brown, and take on airs as being the special guardians of law and the Constitutain contributed largely both in lands and money.

Now these facts will interest your Potter county readers, and may also be interesting to many in this county. I am always glad to refer to the old settlers in both counties, as few of our farmers can have any idea of the amount of hardships endured by the pioneers. SENEX.

Since 1856 the following dough-faces have been displaced from the United States Senate, viz:—Isaac Toucey of Connecticut, George W. Jones of Iowa, Lewis Cass and Chas. E. Stuart of Michigan, John B. Thompson of New Jersey, Richard B. Head, Jr., of Pennsylvania, Chas. T. James and Phillip Allen of Rhode Island, and Henry Dodge of Wisconsin. All the seats of these gentlemen are now filled by Republicans. Is not that a pretty good cleaning out?—Free Press.

A Democratic Southern paper says:—

"With the exception, perhaps, of apostate Massachusetts—apostate, as she was designated by Mr Jefferson, in a letter to Gen. Dearborn during the war of 1814—there is certainly not a non-slaveholding State which would bestow her vote upon Seward if she imagined that his election would, within itself, and in advance of his inauguration, cause an everlasting separation of the South from the North."

Or, in other words, all the people of the Free States are cowards except those of Massachusetts, and, through fear, would be deterred from electing constitutionally whoever they choose to the Presidency. The cry of disunion is to be raised by all the Democratic press, under the lead of the South, in order to get up a "sear" against electing a Republican President.

It won't win, nor will any State, nor the whole South, be allowed to dissolve the Union. They must stay in. The gallows and bayonets were made for traitors. The Constitution provides only for States coming into the Union—not for going out. Hence those States that may show a disposition to kick out of the traces, must be cured, if needs be, of such disposition by the application of something resembling a rod. The Union must be preserved in its integrity.—Eric Gazette.

Slavery must Die.

Slavery must die because there is no power that can keep it alive. We have heard much of the slave power, and it is often treated of as though it were a Colossus, striding the whole nation. In some sense this is all true; it is indeed a great and fearful power; fearful in might, fearful in character, fearful in crime; and if there was no adequate opposing power, it would be hopeless to contend against it. What is the slave power? It is the power of error, of falsehood, of a lie. It is the power of crime, selfishness and brute force. It is all these allied to a system of government, controlling and including the administrative and judicial power of this great nation. Can such a power be resisted, and must its fostered pet, slavery die? What power can demolish it?

There is a power opposed to it stronger than error, more subtle than falsehood, more efficient than a lie. It is the power of TRUTH. The cause that has truth on its side cannot be weak. There is a power opposed to it stronger than crime, selfishness and brute force; stronger than armies. It is the power of justice, right, benevolence, religion and love. What can stand before the power of truth, justice, and Christian philanthropy, of enlightened goodness, pouring itself forth in prayers and liberty songs, and persuasions? pouring itself forth from the press, and the pulpit and from the lips and hearts of devoted men and women? All other powers may find their match, or more than their match and fail; but this power has no match. It is the power of God working in the hearts of men; it can never fail, and slavery must melt away and die before it.—L.—Wesleyan

Senator Trumbull, in his great speech at Sandusky, Ohio, made the following appeal to popular sovereignty men:

"The Republican policy is, to use all the means within its power to keep Slavery from spreading into the free Territories; your popular sovereignty men claim to be opposed to spreading Slavery. Do you believe, if the Republican party had been in power, there would have been any effort to get Slavery into Kansas, or to revive the African slave trade? You are upholding and strengthening the hands of the party who are laboring in the slave interest. Are you in favor of the equal administration of the laws of the country? Do you not know, if a negro escapes from a Southern State, the whole power of the Federal Government is put in requisition for his capture? Is not the telegraph used, and the army and navy put in requisition, because a negro is loose in Boston? How is it, when Congress declares the African slave trade piracy, and that the parties engaged in it shall be hung, that a cargo of slaves from Africa can be landed on our Southern coast, and marched through a State in chains? Where, then, are your United States marshals, your army and navy? Those Africans cannot be seen; they cannot be found. But a single negro running away, if he gets as far as Boston, can be found without any difficulty.

I do not say Mr. Buchanan is in favor of the African slave trade, nor that this is the case with the Democratic party of the North; but I do say, and do believe, popular sovereignty men, that you are strengthening the hands of a party who are in favor of it, and the men in office will not execute the laws of the country against it. If you would stop these things, and bring the Government back to the doctrine of the Fathers, why not unite with the Republican party, and accomplish the object?"

When old Brown's two sons were killed in Kansas, and his daughter made a maniac, by Southern ruffians, James Buchanan and supporters derided his sufferings; nay, they were the occasion of it, causatively. But so soon as Brown, driven to madness by the persecutions to which he had been subjected, made up his mind to seek revenge by the most desperate methods, Buchanan and his tribe comprehended at once how unjustifiable a thing ruffianism is. They are themselves responsible for the insane proceedings; as Harper's Ferry, for they contrived and sustained the ruffianism of which this is the legitimate fruit.—E.

The Potter Journal.

COUDERSPORT, PA.
Thursday Morning, Dec. 15, 1859.

T. S. CHASE, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

A meeting of the Republicans of Potter County will be held at the Court House, on THURSDAY Evening of Dec. Court week, to elect a Delegate to the Republican State Convention, to be held at Harrisburg on Wednesday, the 22d of February next, which convention is to nominate a candidate for Governor, and choose a Republican Electoral Ticket for 1860. A full attendance is requested. By order of County E. C. Com.

No JOURNAL will be issued next week, as we are so pressed with job work and other business that we are compelled to suspend the paper. Next week being Court we will naturally have our hands full of business, and we hope such as will make us able to a much larger edition thereafter.

Read the Address of the Central Republican Club in another column—and not only read it but consider it well; and circulate it among your neighbors.

While we favor a union, as far as practicable, of the various parties opposed to the National Administration, we yet believe the sentiment of the following extract, from the Ohio State Journal, to be founded upon TRUTH. It more immediately refers to the late election in Ohio, but, of course, has a general application:—

"The returns of the election teach an important lesson. Wherever Republican doctrines have been most boldly avowed, and wherever the Republican organization has been most rigidly maintained, our success has been marked by the largest majorities. Even Monroe—the stronghold of Democracy—has partially yielded to compact Republican phalanx, which followed no divided command.—Wherever the reverse is the case, with few exceptions, we see a different result. The Republican party is strongest where its principles are maintained and avowed in their greatest purity. One of the valuable results of the late election has been the demonstration of this truth. The battle we have fought has not been one of coalition, and the victory has been achieved by the power of Republican principles, boldly and firmly avowed."

The "Irrepressible Conflict" was commenced in Congress by the slaveholders on the first day of the session, before the House was organized. The Republicans desired to proceed to the business that called them together, but the slaveholders and their Northern allies preferred to engage in the discussion of John Brown's seizure of Harper's Ferry, and Helper's Book, which compares the growth and prosperity of the Free States with the poverty and stand-still condition of the Slave States—an excellent book by the way, which every freeman ought to read. And thus the slaveholders have given further proof of the "irrepressible conflict" between Freedom and Slavery—between virtue and vice. This conflict has prevented an organization of the House for thirteen days. What it will next prevent, or do, time will discover.

No Speaker had been elected up to last Tuesday noon, at which time the House had been in session thirteen days. The probability is that no organization will be effected until after the holidays, and that then Mr. Sherman will be elected. Republican members are wisely avoiding to answer the insane beatings of Clark, of Mo., and the other Southern blackguards, in the minority, who are occupying the time—not the attention—of the majority. All will be right yet, for even liberal-minded Southern members are becoming disgusted with such ravings as those.

Who are They?

Yes, who are the men in this community that gloat over the execution of John Brown, and take on airs as being the special guardians of law and the Constitution? So far as we know, every man of them is either a violator, or has encouraged others, to violate our own State law against the sale of intoxicating drinks without license. All but one of two of them are daily violators of the law against profanity; several of them violate the law against drunkenness, Sabbath-breaking, and others of the best laws of the State. Now we say to those noisy brawlers for the Constitution and Virginia law; until you reform your own habits, and obey the laws of your own State, you may as well keep silent. Your attempts to lecture honest men on their duty to the State and Nation, is simply impudent. Pennsylvania law against drunkard-making, is at least entitled to as much respect as Virginia law for slave-making and slaveholding.

Suspicious.

The Pittsburg Gazette, an over zealous Cameron paper, in noticing the call for a Republican State Convention in Missouri says:

"It will be seen that the delegates from Missouri to the National Convention are to be elected by the State Convention, and not by districts. We have not yet seen in any Missouri paper a denunciation of the State Committee for issuing a call contemplating such a course."

The latter part of this paragraph refers to the protest made by some of the Republican papers of this State against the call of the People's State Convention, alleging that the call contemplates the election of delegates to the National Convention, by the State Convention. We confess this allusion to the Missouri call for a State Convention by the Gazette, looks as if that was the intention. If so, we join in the protest against it. We think the Republicans of this Congressional District are capable of electing their own delegate, and of instructing him too. And if the State Convention undertakes this work, we trust the Republicans of every district in the State will elect their own delegate, as is their undoubted right.

Popular Sovereignty Analyzed.

On the first page of this number we present the best analysis of Douglas' "popular sovereignty" that has ever been our fortune to read; and we trust it will be read by every "popular sovereignty" democrat into whose hands it can be placed. To this end we hope readers of the JOURNAL who have neighbors of that faith will pass it around. It will go far towards convincing any reasonable thinker, who relies upon that doctrine for his hope of the modern democratic party, of the inconsistency of his position, and may constrain him to turn from the error of his ways and swell the ranks of the Republican party—which is truly the party of the people.

Read Gov. Chase's speech, all ye who would know the truth about the great "my doctrine" of the "little giant."—It dissects that fallacy so thoroughly, and exposes its abuse of common sense so completely, that we are constrained to a feeling of pity for the author of "my doctrine," and those persons which have expended so much labor in trying to convince the people that it is not what it is—a monstrous humbug, begotten and displayed with humbug persistence, to coax the people into forgetfulness of the great issues of 1860, and cheat them into another reign of pro Slavery democracy. The "popular sovereignty" doctrine is all that binds many men to the corruptions of the name "democracy." To such we prescribe the expose on our first page as a medicine which will cleanse them to fitness for the pure democracy of the Republican platform.

THE LITTLE PHOENIX.—We are in receipt of this charming little Monthly compendium of boy and girl literature, which Grace Greenwood has the training of. It is published at 192 South Third St. Philadelphia, by Leander K. Lippincott, and has 175 pages of excellent reading every year for the low price of Fifty cents a year. The new volume commences with the January number, and the amount of reading will be raised to nearly 24 pages more in the year than now. The club terms are as follows: 5 copies for $2 00
14 " and one to getter up of club, 5 00
24 " " " " " " " 8 00
34 copies for 15 00

Large premiums in books are also offered for larger clubs. Specimen copies will be sent free of charge, on application to publisher, addressed as above.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.—A Premium Engraving to Every Subscriber.—We call the attention of our readers to the Prospectus of the SATURDAY EVENING POST, in our advertising columns. The "Post" is considered by many the "BEST," as it is