COUDERSPORT, POTTER COUNTY, PAN THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 1800 Honelled and drell sevels assisted to TERMS - $1.25 PER ANNUARY 8, 1800 Honelled and drell sevels assisted to TERMS - $1.25 PER ANNUARY 8.

THE POTTER JOURNAL. ISHED EVERY THURSDAY MURNING, BY Thos. S. Chase, all Letters and Communications ld be addressed, to secure attention.

ms--Invariably in Advance $1,25 per Annum: Terms of Advertising.

uare [10 lines] 1 insertion, --- $1 50 h silvseddelt insertion less that 13, quare three months, " nine C 00 due vest, ted figure work, per sq., 3 ins. subsequent insertion, - - - -

---- 16 00 olumn, displayed; per annum 65 00 si months, three " one month. 6 00 of 10 lines, each insertion under 4. ministrator's or Executor's Notice, ditor's Notices, each, eriff's Sales, per tract, riage Notices, each, iministrator's Sales, per square for 4 insertions. sivess or Professional Cards, cach, Het efceding 8 lines, per year, ecial and Editorial Notices, per line,

All transient advertisements must be id in advance, and no notice will be taken accompanied by the money or satisfactory

Cards. Business

JOHN S. MANN,

TORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW Condersport, Pa., will attend the several Courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All business entrusted in his care will receive rompt attention Office on Main st., oppo rite the Court Mouse.

ř. W. KNOX

FTORNEY AT LAW, Condersport, Pa., will regularly attend the Courts in Potter and the adjoining Counties.

ARTHUR G. OLMSTED, MORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW, entrusted to his care, with promptnes and ide ity. Office in Temperance Block, sec-

ISAAC BENSON.

C. L. HOYT,

11:29-1y*

CHARLES REISSMANN,

ABINET MAKER, having erected a new and convenient Shop, on the South-east corner of Third and West streets, will be happy to receive and fill all orders in his calling. done on short notice.

RACTICING PHYSICIAN, Condersport, Pa. spond to all calls for professional services.

Office on Main st., in building formerly oceupled by C. W. Ellis, Esq.

O. T. ELLISON,

COLLINS SMITH. E. A. JONES. SMITH & JONES,

EALERS IN DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS, Olls, Fancy Articles, Stationery, Dry Goods, Groceries, &c., Main st., Coudersport, Pa.

M. W. MANN, DEALER IN BOOKS & STATIONERY, MAG-

MARK GILLON, N. B. -Particular attention paid to CUT-10:35-1y.

J. OLMSTED. : : : : : : : : : : : B. D. KELLY.

C. LYMAN, Proprietor, Ulysses, Potter Co., In this House is situated on the East toner of Main street, opposite A. Corey & Son's store, and is well adapted to meet the Son's store, and is well adapted to meet the Virginia plantations, then by your "sym-" 4, 5, 6.

Poet's Corner.

From the National Era. MORE CANVAS.

BY T. A. G.

More canvas ! ". he shouted, while visions o Were thronging the brain of the muse-loving

Alexander knew manght of this frenzy of Expanding with every remove of the goal-To infinite truth, that is leading me on;

More canvas, then give me, while glowing ruu. I ask not for honor. I care not for wealth, To trace my dear-source is far better than health; Then give me, oh, give me. I ask nothing more explore.

" More canvas!" he shricked, when in hunger and pain, 16 00 To clambr for beent were his darling one fain ("Ye care not for visions of beauty and love, the name of woman. M. J. C. MASON. 1 00 And ideal themes still a weariness prove. is of columns will be inserted at the same Then let me, oh, will ye not, even to stay The craving of want, your loved features

2 00 portray; 1 50 I'll strive to annoint ye with heavenly grace-50 More canvas then give me, that so I may trace, 00 In actual presence, the essence I love,

1 50 And humbly pursue my bright pathway above "More canvas!" he murmered, life's bitterness

> As, dazzling to view, arose Canaan's bright share: ... 'No limit benceforth to my visions of joy, Or means to endow them, my soul shall annoy.

advertisements from a distance, unless they But worlds upon worlds, through the ages untold. Are mine to enjoy, while their beauties unfold. Overwhelm the annoyance of life with its > Thus sinking to rest, with the evening's last We trust he hath entered unchangeable day. ALBANY, March 11, 1859.

Political.

VIRGINIA AND MASSACHUSETTS.

Interesting Correspondence. Letter from Mrs. Mason of Va. to L. Maria Child. ALTO, King George's Co., Va., 7 Nov. 11, 1859.

Do you read your Bible, Mrs. Child? If you do, read there "Woe unto you, also the froward,"-I Peter, ii: 18: Condersport, Pa., will attend to all business hypocrites," and take to yourself with for, rest assured, in the day of judgment tention: t shall be more tolerable for those thus scathed by the awful denunciation of the bound with them."-Heb. xiii: 3. TTORNEY AT LAW, Coudersport, Pa., will Son of God, than for you. You would sttend to all business entrusted to him, with soothe with sisterly and motherly care eare and promptness. Office corner of West the heary-headed murderer of Ha.per's Ferry! A man whose aim and intention TYIL ENGINEER, SURVEYOR and —to condemn women of your own race, thee. He shall dwell with thee where it likes any slave dying of moderate correction." quarter. Twenty-seven years ago, I pub dy, continue always to confine their efforts any slave dying of moderate correction." Quarter. Twenty-seven years ago, I pub dy, continue always to confine their efforts any slave dying of moderate correction." Quarter. Twenty-seven years ago, I pub dy, continue always to confine their efforts within the pale of the Constitution. If —Deut., xxii: 15, 16.

—Deut., xxii: 15, 16.

—Open thy moath for the dumb, in the stand how moderate punishment can half of that Class of Americans called After this course be pursued, the existing ago. all business entrusted to him. First-class their busbands and fathers murdered; cause of all such as are appointed to destruc-The autecedents of Brown's band prove Prov. xxxi: 8, 9. them to have been the off-scourings of "Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like the earth; and what would have been our a trumpet, and show my people their transfate had they found as many sympathisers Repairing and re-fitting carefully and neatly in Virginia as they seem to have in Massachusetts? Now, compare yourself with those your "sympathy" would devote to such ruth- the duty of masters: dying of a hopeless discuse, to alleviate his sufferings as far as human aid could? Have you ever watched the last, lingering illness of a consumptive, to soothe, as unto you, do ye even so unto them."-Matt.. far as in you lay, the inevitable fate? Do you soften the pangs of materrity in those around you by all the care and comfort heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go to didly think we describe the work of the care and comfort heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go to didly think we describe the you not be you can give? Do you grieve with those free, and that ye break every yoke."—Isa., lieve that we may hate the system, and near you, even though their sorrows re- will: 6. D. E. OLMSTED,

DEALER IN DRY GOODS, READY-MADE

Condersport, Pa.

Do you grieve with those free, and that ye break every yoke."—Isa., I life, and I life, a AZIMES and Music, N. W. corner of Main for our servants, and why? Because we and their cause, and spoil the soul of those and Third sts., Coudersport, Pa: 10:1 endeavor to do our duty in that state of "Woe unto him that useth his neighbor's DRAPER and TALLOR, late from the City of Liverpool, England. Shop opposite Court them—theirs to us are there also—"Not er let him labor, working with his hands."—House, Condersport, Potter Co. Pa.

House, Condersport, Potter Co. Pa.

Out. The good and gentle, but to the Eph., iv: 28. froward."-(Peter, ii: 18.) Go thou and

c. uld not have prevented him from being ish so tenaciously. torn limb from limb.

The means to portray the bright realms I er ought, after your letter to Gov. Wise of its mother." This is an index to many during the Christmas holidays; but since guidance and protection. and to Brown, to read a line of your com-things. Marriages between white and emancipation, not a soldier is to be seen. position, or to touch a magazine which colored peeple are forbidden by law; yet A hundred John Brownsmight land there, bears your name in its list of contributors; a very large number of the slaves are without exciting the slightest alarm.

Mrs. Child's Reply.

WAYLAND, Mass., Dec. 17, 1859. My Father, I thank thee, for visions like this rules His universe by laws, which the slaves, subject to be sold on the auction not sell the babies. passions or the prejudices of mortals have block whenever the necessities or conno power to charge...

> they may be, are of small consequence render licentiousness a profitable vice. in comparison with principles; and the principle for which John Brown died is he question at issue between us.

You refer me to the Bible, from which ers:

"Servants, be subject to your masters with Abulitionists also have favorite texts, two fold damnation that terrible sentence; to some of which I would call your at-

was to incite the horrors of a servile war servant which is escaped from his master unto provided that this act shall not extend to zess of having nothing to lose in that those who wisely seek to apply the remetheir children butchered, the ground tion. Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and law-books attentively, and I find no eases eral young men, afterward conspicuous in like everything human, will have its day, strewed with the brains of their babes, plead the cause of the poor and needy."— of punishment for the murder of a slave, public life, through whose agency the and give place to other and less threaten.

I would especially commend to slaveholders the following portions of that volume, wherein you say God has revealed

"Neither be ye called masters; for one is your master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren."—Matt., xxiii: 8, 10.

"Whatsoever ye weuld that men should do that she might appear on Christmas day his Maker."—Prov., xiv: 31.

"Rob not the poor, because he is poor; nei in a new one, along with her more fortun-ate companions? We do these and more life it has pleased God to place is. In service without wages, and giveth him not His revealed word we read our duties to for his wages."—Jer., xxii: 13.

"Let him that stole steal no more, but rath-gia leave a large loop-hole for escape, even like dogs. "Hide the outcasts. Betray not him that if white persons are present, when nurtoms of southern States respecting the condition and rights of slaves, to which subjects, we need not assure our readors, she does ample justice. She next produces the unuanswera-RACTICING PHYSICIAN, Condersport, Pa... less ruin, and say, on that "word of honrespectfully informs the citizens of the vilor, which has never been broken," would which is just and equal; knowing that ye also lage and vicinity that he will promply reyou stand by the bedside of an old negro, have a Master in Heaven."—Col., iv: 1. weight -the whole requiring more space than we have at our command, which we sincerely regret—and closes her letter with the following unanswerable paragraphs:—ED. Jour.]

Looking at the system of Slavery in thirty years. Abolitionists have been try cause with rough shod reformers. ters only, have been met with violence are pouring in amaju. In the church, ou dren before the morning-it would be vain pathy" wher the knives for our throats . If the appropriations of these texts is come to see end by che agency of moral bestowed upon as such varied and num and kindle the torch that thes our homes not upparent. Levill are to make it so, by and rational means. I live there remained the plant and in this we hope for the "sympathy," brown or yellow. When Lafayette visit- To the personal questions you ask me, information of the state of the Union," I at least of those at the North who deserve ed this country in his old age, he said he I will reply in the name of all the wo shall not refer in detail to the recent said was very much struck by the great change men of New-England. It would be ex and bloody occurrences at Harper's Ferin the colored population of Virginia; tremely difficult to find any woman in our ry. Still it is proper to observe that these that in the time of the Revolution nearly villages who does not sew for the poor, events, however bad and cruel in themall the household slaves were black, but and watch with the sick, whenever occa- selves, derive their chief importance from Prolonged absence from home has pre- when he returned to America he found sion requires. We pay our domestics the apprehension that they are but symprented my answering your letter so soon very few of them black. The advertise generous wages, with which they can pur- toms of an incurable disease in the public as I intended. I have no disposition to ments in Southern newspapers often des chase as many Christmas gowns as they lie mind, which may break out in still retort upon you the "two fold damnation," cribe runaway slaves that "pass them please; a process for better for their char more dangerous outrages, and terminate to which you consign me. On the con- selves for white men." Sometimes they acters, as well as our own, than to receive at last in an open war by the North to trary. I sincerely wish you well, both in are described as having straight, light their clothing as a charity, after being de- abolish slavery in the South. Whilst, for this world and the next. If the anathe- hair, blue eyes, and clear complexion." prived of just payment for their labor. I myself, I entertain no such apprehension, ma proved a safety-valve to your own This could not be, unless their nathers, have never known an instance where the they ought to afford a solemn warning to boiling spirit, it did some good to you, grandfathers, and great-grandfathers had "pangs of maternity" did not meet with us all to beware of the approach of dangwhile it fell harmless upon me. Fortun- been white men. But as their mothers requisite assistance; and here at the North, er. Our Union is a stake of such inesately for all of us, the Heavenly Father were slaves, the law pronounces them after we have helped the mothers, we do timable value as to demand our constant be safely trusted to the impartial pen of drein brothers, or sisters, has an ugly as but after all, the best that can be done in bearance and good-will towards each other, History; and his motives will be right. pect to those who are unaccustomed to it; that way is a poor equivalent for the per- and strive to allay the demon spirit of seccousty judged by Him who knoweth the and obviously, it cannot have a good mor- petual wrong done to the slaves, and the tional hatred and strife now alive in the secrets of all hearts. Men, however great al influence that law and custom should terrible liabilities to which they are all land. This advice proceeds from the heart Throughout the Slave States, the test tresses among you are merely lucky accides commenced in the last generation, timony of no colored person, bond or free, dents. If any one chooses to be a brutal among the wise and conservative states. can be received against a white man. You despot, your laws and customs give him men of that day, now nearly all passed have some laws, which, on the face of complete power to do so. And the lot of away, and whose first and dearest earthly you quote the favorite text of slave-hold, them, would seem to restrain inhuman those slaves who have the kindest mas wish is to leave his country tranquil, proswen from murdering or mutilating slaves; ters is exceedingly precarious. In case perous, uni ed, and powerful. but they are rendered nearly null by the of death, or pecuniary difficulties, or mar. We ought to reflect that in this age, all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but law I have cited. Any drunken master, riages in the family, they may at any and especially in this country, there is an overseer, or patrol, may go into the negro time be suddenly transferred from pro- incesant flux and reflux of public opinion. cabins and commit what dutrages he pleas | tection and indulgence to personal degra- Questions which in their day assumed a es, with perfect impunity, if no white per- dation, or extreme severity; and if they most threatening aspects have now nearson is present who chooses to witness should try to escape from such sufferings, by gone from the memory of men. They "Remember those that are in bonds, as against him. North Carolina and Geor- anybody is authorized to shoot them down are volcanoes burnt out, and on the lava > of punishment for the murder of a slave, public life, through whose agency, the and give place to other and less threatesexcept by fines paid to the owner, to incause was better served than it could have ing controversies. Public opinion in this demnify him for the loss of his property: been by me. From that time to this, I country is all-powerful, and when it reachthe same as if his horse or cow had been have labored too earnestly for the slave to es a dangerous excess upon any question. killed. * * * be agreeable to slave-holders. Literary the good sense of the people will furnish [Mrs. Child then reviews the laws and cus-popularity was never a paramount object the corrective, and bring it back within yet be truly your friends? I make al- pout, Lowell, and Longfellow. Emerson, Union to every portion of our common lowance for the excited state of your mind, the Plate of America, leaves the scholas country, these would all prove to be as and for the prejudices induced by educa- tie seclusion he loves so well, and, dislik nothing, should the time ever arrive when tion. I do not care to change your opin- ing noise with all his poetic soul, bravely they cannot be enjoyed without serious ion of me; but I do wish you could be takes his stand among the trumpeters danger to the personal safety of the peopersuaded to examine this subject dispas- Geo. W. Curtis, the brilliant writer, the ple of lifteen members of the Confederacy. sionately, for the sake of the prosperity eloquent lecturer, the clegant man of the If the peace of the domestic fireside of Virgina, and the welfare of unborn world, lays the wealth of his talents on throughout these States should ever be generations, both white and colored. For the altar of Freedom, and makes common invaded—if the mothers of families withing to reason with slaveholders, through the press, and in the balls of Congress, outworks of your institution at one dash, log dreadful apprehensions of what may Their efforts, though directed to the mus- and left the citadel open to besiegers, who do likewise, and keep away from Charles decrees, and that write grievousness, which and abuse almost equal to that poured on the ultra-liberal side; it is assailed by the to recount to such a people the political town. If the stories read in the public they have prescribed; to turn aside the needy the head of John Brown. Yet surely we, powerful battering range of Theodore Parks banding which results to the public they have prescribed; to turn aside the needy the head of John Brown. the head of John Brown Yet surely we, powerful battering ram of Theodoro Parks benefits which results to them from the as a portion of the Union, involved in the er's elequence. On the extreme orthor Union. Self-preservation is the first inexpense, the degeneracy, the danger, and dox side is set a huge fire, kindled by the stinct of nature: and therefore any actto in sette and i la propostat Hon and hon an You reverence Brown for his elemency evidence drawn entirely from Southern such appearing the order of the general health of the country has to his prisoners! Prisoners! and how sources. The Abolitantist are not such as the order of an end by been excellent, our barvers live order taken? Unsuspecting workmen, going an ignorant set of lancities as you suppose violence. His area because an unusually premitted, and property and to their daily duties; anarmed gentlemen. They know inhersof they affirm a live with the miles the miles property and the country in the land. Laderd, not with to their daily duties; unarmed gentlemen. They kinds inhered these states of the states of the residence of the states of the st treatment of Them was his only hope of from your statute books; but I have space fail to be convinced that Cash is a more difficulties in our progress, but on each life then, as of clemency afterward? Of only to glance at a few, which indicate the powerful incentive to labor than the Lash, successive occasion the impending cloud course he did. The United States troops leading features of the system you cher- and far safer also. One fact in relation has been dissipated at the moment it apto those Islands is very significant. While peared ready to burst upon our head, and The universal rule of the Slave States the working people were slaves, it was all the danger to our institution has passed I will add, in conclusion, no Southern- is that "the enild follows the condition ways necessary to order out the military away. May we ever be under the Divine

JOHN BROWN.

Whilst it is the duty of the President "from time to time to give to Congress and watchful vigilance for its preserva-I readily believe what you state contion. In this view, let me implore my venience of their masters or mistresses cerning the kindness of many Virginia countrymen, North and South, to culti-As for John Brown, his reputation may require it. The sale of one's own chil-matrons. It is creditable to their hearts; vate the ancient feelings of mutual forways subject. Kind masters and mist of an old public functionary whose serviand salies and squalid scorize of old erup-With regard to your declaration that tions grow the peaceful olive, the cheerwandereth. Let mine outcasts dwell with der is committed. A law to punish per- "no Southerner ought henceforth to read the sing xine, and the sistaining corn." Such, of the spoiler."—Isa., xvii 3, 4.

"Thou shalt not deliver unto his master the this remarkable qualification: "Always have great satisfaction in the conscious of the present sectional excitement, should be a line of the present sectional excitement, should be a line of the present sectional excitement, should be a line of the present sectional excitement, should be a line of the present sectional excitement, should be a line of the present sectional excitement, should be a line of the present sectional excitement, should be a line of the present sectional excitement, should be a line of the present sectional excitement, should be a line of the present sectional excitement, should be a line of the present sectional excitement, should be a line of the present sectional excitement. with me, even in my youth; and, now that safe limits. Still, to hasten this anspi-I am old, I am utterly indifferent to it cious result, at the present crisis, we ought But, if I cared for the exclusion you to remember that every rational creature threaten, I should at least have the con- must be presumed to intend the untural solation of being exiled with honorable consequences of his own teachings. Those company. Dr. Channing's writings, mild who announce abstract doctrines subverand candid as they are, breathe what you sive of the Constitution and the Union, would call arrant treason. Wm. C. Bry-must not be surprised should their heat-ant, in his capacity of editor, is openly ed partizans advance one step farther, and on our side. The inspired muse of Whit attempt by violence to carry these doctier has incessantly sounded the trumpet trines into practical effect. In this riew for moral warfare with your iniquitous in- of the subject, it ought never to be forsticution; and his stirring tones have been gotten that, however great may have been answered, more or less loudly, by Pier-the political advantages resulting from the in this extensive region should not be able be their own fate and that of their chil-