

Town and County.

COUDERSPORT, JANUARY 5, 1860.

We have not received the Atlantic Monthly for January. Will the publisher please attend to the matter at once.

Accident.—On Wednesday forenoon, Richard Post, who is hauling logs for S. Colwell, was taking off a load at the pier in this village, his right hand was caught between two logs and nearly every bone in hand and fingers broken. Dr. Mason was called and set the bones. Post is a resident of Hebron, we believe, and is familiarly known as Dr. Post.

Rev. Alexander Clark, Editor of "School Visitor," says:

"We have had ample opportunities to know that the entire faculty of the Irony College is composed of competent and faithful instructors, that every improvement announced in the widely diffused advertisement of this institution, is promptly carried out, in the course of study and discipline by which this college has on its present reputation."

The Knickerbocker Magazine for January is received, and is decidedly rich in every wealth. Its articles relative to Washington Irving are well worth the price of the Magazine a year. It has a long story entitled "Six-by-Seven" and several poems, besides two or three articles of the practical class—one particularly, on the "Physical Decline of American Women," which is well worth general perusal. We send the Knickerbocker and the JOURNAL both for $3.25 a year.

Those looking for the "Great Show" advertisement of P. A. Stebbins, will find on the fourth page of this number. All hands down there are busy waiting for customers since that column was published, and all agree that printer's ink is a very successful incentive to customers. We are pleased to notice a large increase in our local advertising patronage within the last year—an increased faith in the ability of telling people what you have to sell, and that you do not fear competition.

Spencer, following the example of other merchants, sends greeting a Happy New Year to all, in the most fashionable manner of announcing things now-a-days. See his column.

Fatal Accident.—We learn that at about 6 o'clock last Wednesday evening, a man named George Housler, a farmer living about 3 miles distant, was intoxicated and standing on the steps of the Emporium (N. L. Dike's) House in Shippen, M'Kean Co., holding a loaded gun in his right hand with the stock resting on the floor, when a drunken Irishman came up behind him and tapped him on the shoulder, which caused a movement of Housler that made the gun go off, and the ball passed up through his right cheek and temple. He lived two nights and a day in an insensible condition. He was about 35 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss, and who may truly charge to whiskey the loss of a husband and father.

Suicide.—Just as we are going to press this (Thursday) morning, we have been made acquainted with the particulars of a suicide committed in Bingham township, near Genesee Fork, two weeks ago last Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, when an Englishman named Isaac Dalton, cut his throat with a common broad-bladed pocket-knife—cutting off all the arteries on each side of his neck with surgical exactness. Coroner Stout held an inquest on the body, and the following facts were elicited:

He was a man of about 50 years of age, and came to this county from England 19 years ago, leaving his wife and a child or two there, since which time he has never seen them. He has lived in bachelor style in Bingham during that period, and was in possession of a handsome property. It seems that he has recently exhibited a fear that some one was going to kill him, and was afraid to stay alone, and repeatedly asked some of his friends to stay with him nights. On the evening of his death, he went to the residence of his sister's husband, Mr. Colson, about a mile distant, and requested to stay all night, which request was readily granted.

After sitting round awhile he went out and was gone about ten minutes, when his friends thinking he was gone longer than he intended, went out after him. His tracks were followed into the barn, where they found him laying on the hay-mow with his throat cut, as above stated, on each side. He was not dead, and when they picked him up he spoke to them as follows: "Friends, let me die in peace! I have a few words for you. You have some bad neighbors—Perry, Hibcock, Lord Brougham." He was then carried into the house and laid on a bed, where he expired in about 25 minutes from the time he had gone out. He was evidently insane, and had always bitterly denounced Lord Brougham whenever his name was mentioned in conversation. His warning against his immediate neighbors was evidently unjustified.

HON. JUDGE MASON, of Iowa, who made himself so popular with the Inventors of the Country while he held the office of Commissioner of Patents, has, we learn, associated himself with MUNN & Co., at the Scientific American office, New York. The acquisition of the Judge to the patent business of that establishment will give them a prestige that no other soliciting agency can claim.

We clip the following expressive item from the N. Y. Tribune of last Friday:

"We will state for the information of our friends, the we yesterday mailed to regular subscribers the largest edition of the Weekly Tribune ever printed. The number exceeded 180,000 copies."

New Publications.
AMUSING AND INSTRUCTIVE.
THE LIFE AND ADVENTURES OF HAJJI BABA.

THE CELEBRATED ORIENTAL TRAVELER IN PERSIA, TURKEY AND RUSSIA, WITH NUMEROUS ILLUSTRATED EPISODES AND INCIDENTS. EDITED BY JAS. MORIER. PUBLISHED BY DUANE RULISON, 33 South Third Street, Philadelphia.

The late Washington Irving often wrote in that style of irony which is called by critics green-banter. Hajji Baba's Adventures exhibit the same style. This is admirably developed in the most entertaining satire on the morals and habits of the Orientals. In the narrative of his adventurous life, no book which has ever been published exhibits such glowing and graphic pictures of many of the mysteries of the Harem.

It enchains the attention of the scholar and charms every reader, and while with master hand the magic pen with resistless power causes the mind of the reader to revel in luxurious pleasure, it also aims to benefit and instruct.

A person who once reads Hajji Baba will never forget it, and he will always recall with pleasure and profit its curious scenes, incidents and lessons. It is the best exposition ever yet made of the manners, and customs, modes of thoughts, and expressions among Persians, Turks and Russians, among which was the most bold and daring of adventures, he relates the narrative of his astounding feats, half-breath escapes and ludicrous misfortunes, as a Barber, Son, Traveller, Prisoner, Robber, Water Carrier, Dervish, Doctor, Lover, Executioner, Marriage Broker, Merchant, Courtier, Author, and Secretary to the Persian Ambassador, to England so as to amuse with an ingenuity truly remarkable. The book is inexhaustible in interest as well as incomparable in fun. No work ever issued exhibits so great a variety for the pastime of the intellect and the information of the mind. It is a large 12 mo. volume of Four Hundred and Sixteen Pages, handsomely gotten up and published by Duane Rulison, proprietor of the well known Quaker City Publishing House, Philadelphia. In order to place this book within the reach of all, Mr. Rulison has determined to sell it at the low price of One Dollar, and will send the book accompanied with a valuable Gift, on the receipt of the price and twenty cents to prepay postage.

Mr. Rulison has just issued a new, enlarged, and revised catalogue containing upwards of 1200 Volumes, which will be sent free on application, giving full information relative to establishing Agencies in the Gift Book Business. Address

Full Length Steel Engravings of WASHINGTON & EVERETT,

Including a View of Mount Vernon. In the Engraving of Washington. These splendid engravings are from original paintings by Hicks, and are engraved on steel in the highest style of Art. They are each 26 1/2 inches, each containing six square feet. So many of these engravings have been palmed upon the public as works of art—and especially in cheap, black and muddy engravings—that it is difficult to convince persons of taste that they are safe in ordering what they have not first seen. We have paid the first artists their own prices, amounting to MANY THOUSAND DOLLARS, to produce engravings really beautiful, as well as the best portraits, and that shall be splendid ornaments to any parlor.

Opinions that can be relied on: The Editor of the New York Observer says:— "The engravings are genuine works of art—the likenesses are admirable." The portrait of Mr. Everett will take precedence of all others.

The New York Christian Advocate says:— "They are among the finest engravings we have ever seen, and THE PUBLISHERS ARE FULLY RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL THEY PROMISE."

Terms, Almost Gratis. We will send, post-paid, securely packed in rollers:—

Either Engraving and a $3 Magazine, one year, for $3.

Both Engravings, and a $3 Magazine, one year, for $4.

AGENTS who remit $30 at a time, will have an extra copy of each engraving. The Magazines are HARPER'S, THE KNICKERBOCKER, GODEY'S, LADY'S BOOK, THE ATLANTIC, BLACKWOOD.

By special arrangement, the entire year's subscription to the Magazines is paid over by us to their publishers, and subscribers receive their supply for the year direct from their respective publication offices. The cost of the engravings is paid only by the difference between the lowest wholesale and the regular price of the Magazines.

Engravings sent at once, and subscriptions to periodicals commence with current issue, unless otherwise ordered. Money at our risk if proof is retained of having been mailed. First impressions are best, therefore send early. Address, as above.
