Every Wrinkle a Line of Beauty. BY T. S. ARTHUR. "I don't like old people," said a thoughtless young girl, "they are either cross, disagreeable, or ugly."

Mrs. Elder smiled as if she were telling of enjoyments, and then added-- "But this is only one of the penalties of age. I know it must come, and long ago I made up my mind to be patient and enduring. These are some of the light afflictions, lasting but for a moment, which, if borne in Christian meekness, help to work out for us that far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, to which the apostle refers in one of his sublime passages."

Choice Reading (continued). "But you must have a surer foundation for happiness than knitting stockings," said Mrs. Barton. "The old lady seemed thoughtful for a moment. She then said, with sweet impressiveness--

Some husbands never leave home without a surer foundation for happiness than knitting stockings... Some husbands never leave home without a surer foundation for happiness than knitting stockings... Some husbands never leave home without a surer foundation for happiness than knitting stockings...

THE WINE GLASS. Who hath woe? Who hath sorrow? Who hath contentions? Who hath wounds without cause? Who hath redness of eyes? They that tarry long at wine! They that go to seek mixed wine. Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth its color in the cup; when it moveth itself aright. Like a SERPENT, and strength like an adder.

Political. A GLEAM OF GOOD SENSE FROM THE SOUTH. We take the following from the Charleston Mercury, of November 28th: "We are satisfied that every intelligent man in the South has been completely disgusted at the broad and pathetic farce that has been played off before the public about the hanging of that heavy villain, 'Old Brown'."

quired on account of arrears for the year ending with last June. The statements of indebtedness to contractors, on which they have raised money to the amount of two million dollars, are in the hands of persons in this city. [The Unionists, by delaying the organization of the House are thus practically destroying the stability of the general government by their insane blighting.--Ed. Jour.]
