Wr. Editor.-I find in the JOURNAL Teb. 2d a communication from "B. weden, making comments upon a de e held at Lymansville a short timee. I happened to have the pleasure being a member of the debate which mentions, and out of respect to se engaged in the discussion, and to e gentlemen judges, I must take the rty to correct a few very prominent stion, on the part of the affirmative, it true, was supported by Republicans, the negative by an equal number of other a Democrat-both very promi t men in the party to which they re ctively belong, and gentlemen of go. gement and respectability. In regar he argument that " B," claims to hav n produced on the part of the affirm: , in part I must differ with him ver erially. Those on the part of the a native, it is true, manifested a consid ble zeal in the debote, as is said l B," but not in telling the effects ery upon the southern States in r d to morals, free speaking and free cting, which are the only true safe ards of the Nation. Such arguments re not produced-had they been, they
