Clfe Genter Contuf.

SINGLE COPIES, $\}$
VOLUIIE KIL.-NUIIBER 38.

|  |
| :---: |

 end. atatitan ona

anthur $G$, OLASTED,

$\frac{1}{2}$

 | $\substack{\text { caranan prompt } \\ \text { and fuird sts. }}$ |
| :--- |

CHARLES RRISSMANX,

Eepirinyznd re-fiting carefully and neatily,

1 O. T. ELLISON,

SMITH & JONES,

D. E, OLMSTED,
HER IS DR GOODS, READ

F. COUDERSPORT HOTEL,

LYMAN HOUSE,

$\frac{\text { chans of patrons and friends. } 12: 11-1}{\text { D. } \& \text { I. AI H. DANIELS, }}$

COUDERSPORT, POTTER COUNTY, PA, THURSDAY, JUAE 7,1860 :

| will come, ere long, and then a sorry ac count of tis texardslip will he lave to |
| :---: |
| dind Hour do vei koot that the |
| asked in $n$ quil |
| M Appreed Hicw dio |
| can sce that he is an |
| arred and oppresesive |
|  |
| "Ab! I mas not aware of that |
|  |
|  |
|  |

| Thom Max wall thus conversed had occasion to transact some bosidess with Mr. Clinton. He had rendered hing a billifor work done; and called to reccive payment:  "You're nade a mistake in your bill,  Mr. Lee," said Clinton. i, sh! Are you certaio ?"  «Y You can examine for yourself. I make an error of tienty dollars in the ad.  "Then yon only ore ne sisty dollars," said Lee, wilh a disappointment is his tone that ho could not coniceal.  T. Mather saiy that I oufe you a hundred, for the unistake is in ypur favor- The first colume in the bill adds up fifty instead of thirty doliars.",  Lee took the bili and added up the cqluwn thre tipmes befrre he felt entirely satisiod. Then he |
| :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

| overcome teuptation, and receive a pur fied love or their neighbor. This at feas is my doctrine."  Of the troij I mould rather take Clin ton's chance of heaven, said Lee to hin self as lhe reat nusing away, "even if is:a rich man."-Lady's whreath.  married Tufce to one man.  A guang lady, beautiful in person an attractive in manner, who residod in th iminediate sicinity of Boston, mas soug in marriage some years ago by two wen the other was rich, and dot a mechani |
| :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

Spiritumi Rallway

       God's love, the fare-his truth, the sten Which drives the eagio All you who would to Gloryr ride Must come to Chirist in hium abide. In first, and second, and third class, Repentance, Finth and Holines,  Come then, poor simner, now's the time At any placo along the line If join repent and furn from sin, The train will stop and let you in.    \begin{tabular}{|c|} \hline \multirow{5}{*}{$$
\left.\right|_{w h}
$$

 \hline
\hline
\hline
\hline
\hline
\end{tabular}  \section*{}}

| er purse-proud oppressor of the poor can possibly love his wite ančechildren. They are dependent for daily bread upon my |
| :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |

| daily labor. With the sw I keep hunger from wy from entering therein."  "An independent man," |
| :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |

"Of course $I$ ain ; and to some favor in the distribution of empiloyment, whero present equal capacity with those whiv arepres of heasens? Nouldn't just like to say that.

one othe, poor? To slom was the Gospel sont?
"Whe rich and the poor spoken of in the soud of God," said the friend, "do white on' earth, suid: 'Thessed are the por in spint,' (not the 'por io this orld's gouds) 'fur theirs is the tind

 heaven, that ouly the proud in spirit, thuse who rested self.eotulident on the riches of their worldy and natural wis. don, were meant. That it weuld be easier fur a cunal to go through the eyo ot
a reedle than oor such rich men to enter this 'ilo. as he replied-As for your meaninga, I never po to hem. A plain, watter.offlate man, I understand what is written iu a ploin, undesstand what The Bible zays, they matterof fat way. The who here riches, shall hardiy enter the singdon of henven. And I can see how true the saying is. As for Clinton, of whom I spoke just now, I repeat that $I$ wouldnt give must now, fors cheat that. I is well that there is a just God in hear en, and that there will come a day of re ribution. The Dives have their goo thingi in this life; but our turn will com yings in this life ; but our turn will come fter wards. We shan't be always poor Lazarus went a heggar front the rich wan's door, and was reajecd into Abrabaurs

"What has maido you so bitter against Clinton, just now?" enquired the frieod
" I nu not bitter against bim, in I num not bitter agatast bin, in par icular. speak of rioh men as a class.
hey are ali selfish, unfeeling, and op. ressive. Look at the good Clinton mig chose. He might maike our wilderneess klossom as the rose. But settlewent day

| is m y doctrine."  Of the troj I would rather take Clinton's cliance of heaven, said Lee to hinself ad lea meat nusing away, "eveu if he is a rich man."-Ludy's Wैंreath.  married Twice to one man.  A young lady, beautiful in person and attractive in manner, who residod in the iminediate sicinity of Boston, mas sought in marriage some years ago by two men, One of tlieso was poor, aud a mechanic; the other was rich, and oot a mechanic. |
| :---: |
|  |  |

| is 2n' doctringe."  Of the trö; I monld rather take Clinton's clange of heaven, said Lee to himself as he ment nusing away, "'eveu if he is:a rich man."一Lady's Wreath.  Hariled Tufce to que Man.  A goung lady, beautiful in person and attractive in -usuner, who resilided in the immediate siciuity of Buston, mas sought in marriage sowe years ago by tro wen, One of thesg was poor, and a mechanic; the other was rich, and pot a mechanic. |
| :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |immeliate siciuity of Boston, , yas sough

in marringe sowe years atyo by two mein marringe sowe years ago by two we
One of thesq was paor, and a mechanic
the other sas rich, and not a mechanithe other was rich, and Dot a mechanic.
Tine woman loved the foriner; the fauily of the wemau liked the 'atter. As is theTERMS $-$ 1,25$ PRA ANRUMareare in turn clothed by the mate mpres.
sive fingers of the machine, and semi.
adrift iu the sea of thought. Fle mistuot thiuk of howe of lindred, of wifo or of bate. HIs worl
lies zefore hius, andthaght is ehained to his copys.
You knows him by his woutd muteend of whicly he is is butiferone to to the Thits not a a suble ray mar not penc-rate the recesses of his. heart, or the lowers he gathers not learesome of theirflowers he gathers not learesoma of their fratrance on his toil sura tingers. But,fight. Thereupon the husband wound up his basiness, put his wife and ehill- paid ", ",
The Independence.
Declaration of Independence is taken-from one of the speeches of the Hop.citing and gallan
These conmunities the thirteen co
mies, by their represeutatives in old Ludependence Hull, said to thic world of wen "4
evident, that all weas are toras equal; thatthey are endowed by their Creator with noflienable rights ; that quong thesc are:life liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.".
This wass their majestic interproution orThis wast their majestic interpratutions. of tine econoury of the uuiveres. This wasstadiug of the justice of the Creator to His creatures. Yes, gentleuren, to all.
His creatures, to the vhlole great fanily of matit. In their culightened belief nothing stanped with the Divine iniaro and likeness was wint into the wortd to be trodden on, aud derraded, and iwhrutby its fellows. They grasped ovot only the raee of uen then fivigg but theythest posterity. They created a beanoo reu's children chaldren and their childwho should iuhabit the earth in otherhayes. Wise statesumen as they were, theytyrants, and so they establistled thesegreat seli-evident truthe that when, in the distame futur, some nian, some fuction, sume iuterest, should set up the dociriue that nuic but rioh mee, or wo
but Exnglo-Saxon white mea, wo
but : ngyo-Saxon white moa, were eu-titled to life, libenty, aud the pursuit of hippiness, their posterity wight look up again to the Declaration of Independeace, ayaic to the Declaration in Independence,
and take courage to renew the battl
which their fathers hogan, so that truth and justice, and nerey, and all the huniane and Christian vitues, wight not be estinguished from the luad; so that no man wounc hereafter dare to hinit and crreumsibe the grect principles on on which the temple of ilibery mia being built. - hory mas beias

preat laws of the Declaratuon of fnde-pendence; if you have listened to su pendence; if you have histened to sugcrandeur, and uutliate the fair syumetry of its proportions: if you huve been in ot its proportions; if you have been in created equal in those inalienable rights cuunerated by our chart of lioprty, le nic entreat you to corize back-return to hhe funtaiy, whose maters spring closo by the blood of the Revolutiou. Think futhing of uee-take no thought. for the but come back to the truths thate are in the Declaration of Independence.
You unay do anything with mo you choose, if you will but heed these sacre principles. Youn nuay not only igion put we to death. While pretending Din

o be aetuated in this contest by soive
I charge. you to drop every paltry and in cess. It is ught for any wau's suc
Judge Douglas is nothing, But do no destroy that immartal emblen, of haman
ty-the Declaration of Americaid ind Burfalo, May 29, 1860-A vote was aken in the Coufterence this morning ou
the first vesolution in the wajority reeport
of the Slavery Oommittee w which recon mends a change of the the which recon-pline ou Slavery. The vote stood, 138 cur the resilution and 74 against it, hack Iug 10 rotes of the required twouthirds
ing 10 ro
to adopt.
Be upur your guard against treabherg.
Remenber, that whien mine and worten
nugh nots, they must siour thetret

