COUDERSPORT, JUNE 7, 1860.

Ominous.—The weather; it being cold d rainy for the last two days—indica- e of a coming frost. We have put n a frost for the 9th of June; hoping, wever, that our prophecy will not be lfilled until at least the 9th of August. ere is a magnificent crop of small fruit nging on the vines and trees hereа- uts, which we would rather not see des- yed by Jack Frost. We learn that a tizen near the village gathered a ripe rawberry from his vine on the 1st of ne.

What Offences are Bailable by Jus- es.—By the subjoined section of the vised Penal Code of the laws of Penn- lvania, adopted by the Legislature at last session, it will be seen that the ences of rape, arson, robbery or burgla- are not bailable before Justices. Con- derable neglect in respect to this sub- t renders the publication of the section this time not inopportune.

Sec. 7, page 53, of Penal Laws of Penn- lvania:—In all cases the party accused, oath or affirmation of any crime or demeanor against the laws, shall be mitted to bail by one or more sufficient ities, to be taken before any judge, tice, mayor, recorder or alderman, ere the offence charged has been com- ted, except such persons as are pre- ded from being bailed by the constitu- n of this commonwealth: Provided o. That persons accused, as aforesaid, murder or manslaughter, shall only be mitted to bail by the Supreme Court one of the judges thereof, or a presi- t or associate law judge of a Court of mmon Pleas. Persons accused, as oresaid, of arson, rape, robbery or bur- ary, shall only be bailable by the Su- eme Court, the court of common pleas, any of the judges thereof, or a mayor recorder of a city.

THE CENSUS.

IMPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.

The time within which the census must completed is limited to two months, mmencing the first of June, and end- the first of August, which will neces- ily require the utmost activity, on the rt of the officer, to accomplish the task. ith a view to accelerating the business thout unnecessary delay, either of citi- s or the Marshal, we publish a list of e more important questions that will be ed that answers may be prepared, be- hand, and left at the house, in case head of the family should be from me. Many of the answers will require siderable care and forethought; es- cially in regard to the amount of the ious crops, manufactured productions, It is hoped each person will take first opportunity to prepare correct swers to the questions published, and wait until the Marshal appears, when the haste it will be almost impossible give precise statements.

THEODORE PARKER died at Florence, ly on the 10th of May last, in the 50th ar of his age. He graduated in 1836 the Cambridge Theological School, in ss., and was settled pastor of a small itarian congregation in West Roxbury. d wrote a number of essays denying the thority of the Scriptures, which attract- d much attention at that time and re- ived severe censure from Unitarians. 1845 he gathered a society of his own the Musical Hall at Boston, which n became the largest congregation in the city—the interest being greatly heightened in latter years by his uncompromising opposition to Slavery and all its pretensions. His talents were of the first class, his oratory pleasing and his ideas original, bold and vigorous.

Special Notices.

CHILLS AND FEVER! CHILLS AND FEVER!—One of the greatest remedies that has ever been laid before the public, for Fever and Ague, and which have received the highest encomiums from the press and the people, is Dr. J. Hostetter's Celebrated Bitters. Who would endure the tortures arising from this terrible disease, burning fevers and icy chills alternately, when a remedy can be obtained for a mere trifle? And yet how many families linger out a painful existence under this deadly blight, and do nothing but gulp down quinine, until it becomes as common as their daily meals, and yet they are not relieved.—None but the foolish and weak would hesitate to procure these valuable Bitters, and save themselves intense agony. Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere.
