Married .- At Kidder's Ferry, N. Y., the 31st ult., L. Rogers, Esq., editor be McKean Citizen, was married to Liviz Goodwin. Another editor thus launched out on the ocean of doutic felicity.

The Treasurer's Sales were commenced Monday, at 2 o'clock, P. M., and evtract was sold before six o'clock, exa few tracts for which arrangements heen made to pay the taxes next This was quick work, and Mr. es our excellent Treasurer, was quite ary with his afternoon's labor.

We have received the first number of Alleganian, published in place of the wal Budget, late of Wellsville. It is y neat in its typography, but its bea 1in that respect is all covered over by politics—the blackest kind of modern Burdick & Bray are the hlishers. We wish them luck in everespect but their politics; and there not much chance for luck in old that

Drowned .- A child of Mr. John A. ichols, of Summit township, aged 17 onths, was drowned in the spring near house, on Mouday afternoon last. Nichols went out to a neighbor's, ring the child in care of a sister of her band, who was visting her, and who two or three children of her own in Mrs. N. had been gone only a minutes when she was summoned me with the sad jutelligence that her was drowned; he having been missed d found with his head in the water,

A very slight frost was visible on Sunmorning last and also a little heavier on Monday morning, though nothing sinjured by either as far as we can m. The crops look beautiful in this tion, and our farmers may truly rece at the favorable prospects for a bounfal harvest. The hopes of all hereaat are bouyant in view of the passing of the time for spring frosts without ury to the heavy growing crops. The y crop will be larger than for many ars past, unless some unforeseen acciat cuts it off again.
