BROKEN TIES.

The broken ties of happier days, How often do they seem To come before our mental gaze Like a remembered dream Around us each dissevered chain In sparkling ruins lies, And earthly hands can ne'er again Unite those broken ties.

The parents of our infant home, The kindred that we loved, Far from our arms perchance may roam To distant scenes removed; Or we have watched their parting breath, And closed their weary eyes, And sighed to think how sadly death

Can sever human ties. The friends, the loved ones of our youth, They too are gone or changed; Or, worse than all, their love and truth Are darken'd and estranged. They meet us in a glittering throng, With cold, averted eyes,

And wonder that we weep our wrong

. And mourn our broken ties.

O! who in such a world as this Could bear their lot of pain, Did not our radiant hope of bliss Unclouded yet remain? That hope the sovereign Lord has given. Who reigns beyond the skies, That hope unites our soul to Heaven By truth's enduring ties.

Each care, each ill of mortal birth, Is sent in pitying love,
To lift the lingering heart from earth,
And speed its flight above. And every pang which rends the breast, And every joy that dies, Tells us to seek a heavenly rest, And trust to bolier ties,
