"I CAN'T LOVE YOU!"

'Tis in vain that you address me With your vows of love and truth; Such prefessions but oppress me, Since they come from age to youth. Surely sir, you must remember I am young and you are old; May should never wed December. I can't love you! Keep your gold!

Though you speak of rank and splendor. you say I may possess, Wealth alone can never render To the heart true happiness. I regret your poor selection, Since to love my heart is cold : What is wealth without affection - I can't love you! Keep your gold!

Bas'd on true affection's part, Joy and bliss in truth revealing, To each faithful loving heart Such is love, devoted ever, Neither to be bought nor sold, Still the same till death shall sever-I can't love you! Keep your gold!
P. HANELY.

Love should be a mutual feeling,
