The Rev. Mr. Strong, who was apointed to this charge by the recent M. his audience, not only by the manner hurch, goes to Portville.

Sad Accident .- A little son of Mr. Thos. Sullivan, of this place, aged about whole loss is over $1000. Thank God! we are all alive yet. The house was hat Thursday forcaoon at about 11 o'clock built for a Temperance Hotel. and died from the injuries on Friday erening at 8 o'clock. His parents were risiting at Mr. Charles Kernan's, at the BINS & BRO. Wholesale and Retail north end of the village, and the boy was playing with Mr. K's children in front of the house near the barn, where a team belonging to a man named Fitzpatrick was standing. The children were picking up hay and feeding it to the colt, then it suddenly wheeled about and kicked Mr. Sullivan's little boy in the sbdomen. He was picked up and after reviving a little was carried home by his parents, and did not seem to be much inured, as he told them how he came to e hurt. About noon Friday, however he began to get worse, and a physician was called in in the evening about dusk but he grew worse very rapidly and died at 8 o'clock that evening, doubtless from internal bleeding.

Fire .- Heavy Loss .- A week ago las Saturday evening a fine new Hotel, jus completed, belorging to Col. J. M. Kil bourn, of Pike township, was burned to the ground. The following letter from Mr. Kilbourn, received just after our las paper was printed, explains the cir cumstances :
