I beg leave lo call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wixes and Liquous, imported by Udolpito Wolfe, di New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man my standing as a mer-chant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the pro-'s name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. Exormous Business for our New York MERCHANT.-We are happy to inform our fel- Cane Seat, Mahogany, Rocking and Easy Chairs, low-citizens that there is one place in our city &c., &c. where the physician, apothecury, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as im, orted, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive ware-house, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand tendy for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 to 1856 and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellurs, filled with Brandy Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House ker ready for bettling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who vish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from as a subpæna and alias subpæna, having their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors.— Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of oponents in the United States, who sell nothng but imitations, fulnous alike to human realth and happiness, [52-6m*
