ROCK ME TO SLEEP.

Backward, turn backward, O Time, in your ilight, Make me a child again, just for to-night! Mother, come back from the ecnoless shore, Take me again to your heart as of yore-kiss from my forchead the furrows of care, Smooth the few silver threads out of my nair— Over my slumbers your loving watch keep-Rock me to sleep, mother-rock me to sleep! Backward, flow backward, O, tide of years;

I am so weary of toils and of tears—
Toil without recompense—tears all in vain— 7 Take them and give me my childhood again! I have grown weary of dust and decay, 65 00 Weary of flinging my soul-wealth away— 25 00 Weary of sowing for others to reap; 16 00 Rock me to sleep, mother-rock me to sleep

6 00 Tired of the hollow, the base, the untrue, Mother, O mother, my heart calls for you! Many a summer the grass has grown green Blossomed and faded—our faces between— Yet with strong yearning and passionate pain Long I to-night for your presence again 50 Come from the silence so long and so deep, Rock me to sleep, mother-rock me to sleep !

Over my heart in days that are flown, No love like mother-love ever was shown-No other worship abides and endures, Faithful, unselfish, and patient, like yours: None like a mother can charm away pain, From the sick soul and the world-weary brain; here." Slumber's soft calm o'er my heavy lids creep— Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to sleep!

Since I last hushed to your lullaby song-Since then, and unto my soul it shall seem, Womanhood's years have been but a dream; Clasped to your arms in a loving embrace, With your light lashes just sweeping my face, Never bereafter to wake or to weep, Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to sleep!
