It will be seen by reference to the Prospectus of The New York Ledger, which Kennedy's Medical Discovery. will be found in another column, that the proprietor of that popular weekly has seeured an array of distinguished contributors for his paper for the New Year such as has never been equaled by any publication in the world. The Ledger is always -characterized by a Ligh moral tone, and has a circulation larger than that of any other ten literary journals in the country.

Rev. J. Hendrick, late Principal of the Academy in this place, and County School Superintendent, has taken charge of the Genesee Valley Seminary, at Belfast, Allegany Co , N. Y., the first term of which opens to day. He left this place with his family on Monday or Tuesday. Mr. Hendrick has been a much esteemed citizen of this place for the last five or six years. is a capable and successful teacher, and will conduct the institution of which he has taken charge with credit to himself and the cause of education, and we trust with profit to the trustees and himself. of this community.
