Blackwood's Magazine for December has come to hand, containing some exis republished by L. Scott & Co., N. Y., at $3 a year.

Patrick Rauch, an Irishman in the embley of Judge Ives, fell down in the wood shed yesterday and cut the back of his head pretty severely on an axe. We are informed that he had not recovered from the pleasures of New Year's day when he fell. Dr. Jeorg dressed the wound, which is not dangerous.

ME. NORMAN DWIGHT .- My Dear of $35 was received to day. I am glad you are able to devise "liberal things." In behalf of hundreds of our suffering people I thank you.

30,000 persons are destitute; God only knows what is before us. We shall always to delighted to hear from you. Very truly, S. C. POMEROY.

Our New Press .- We have just added a Newberry's Mountain Jobber to our establishment, by which we are enabled to do jobs of all kinds, from a page of fools cap down to the smallest card, with greater facility and cheaper than heretofore We have done this at a cost of $65, and hope to be sustained by our business men. We propose soon to add some new and handsome card types, and thus put ourselves in a shape to compete with other and larger establishments. In the meantime call and see the new Machine -and leave your orders for printing.

The Atlantic Monthly for January is on our table, beginning the new year with new and decided literary -improvement. It is the Achilles of American periodical literature, and comes out from the modern Athens mouthly to wrestle with the champions of Troy upon the Ilion solving it; in a word, the general arrangeliterary plains, and finds no conqueror. It has two papers on politics, and the folunitarity, on divide, can easily solve any ordinary example that arises in business, or arlowing Emersonian enigmatical poem .-Can you, dear reader, tell which are the surviving five?

> THE TEST. Musa loquitur.

I hung my verses in the wind; Time and tide their faults may find. All were winnowed through and through; Five lines lasted sound and true; Five were smelted in a pot Than the South more fierce and hot. These the Siroc could not melt, Fire their fiercer flaming felt, And their meaning was more white Than July's meridian light. Sunshine cannot bleach the snow. Nor Time unmake what poets know. Have you eyes to find the five Which five thousand could survive?

We furnish the Atlantic to the patrons of the JOURNAL for $2 a year.
