-
	·	soffer Soften
	SINGLE COPIES; }	Deboted to the Principles of True Democracy, and the Dissemination of Morality. Literature and flews, -	{ FOUR CENTS.

	Deboted to th	ne Principles of Irus Democracy, and	the Dissemination of Morality, Literatur	e and Ucws.	{ FOUR CENTS.
VOLUME XIIINUMBER 16.				1003	AT OF DED. AMETIM and the second		JOCDERSPORT, POTTER COONTY	, PA., THURSDAY, JANUARY 17,	1861.	TERMS$1.25 PER ANNUM.
Terms of Advertising.	POETRY.
i Square [10 lines] 1 insertion, 50 1 " " 3 " S1 50	TOBIRI.	in so many different styles, as though the	Mr. Cauldwell-smiled again, and Miss	but had no excuse for declining his court-	min plainly admits that after liaving made
	TO CAROLINA.	builder had been intent upon pleasing a	Leonard thought to herself that he was	cous invitation; consequently she was	the issue-before the people, the Govern-
Each subsequent insertion less than 13, 25	BY ONE OF HER SISTERS.	score or more of persens, each one differ-	the most disagreeable man she had met	obliged to accept.	ment must be broken up because his pat-
1 Square three months, 2 50 1 " six " 4 00		ing essentially from the other in taste.	in all her lifetime.	What a polite host was Mr. Cauldwell 1	ty was defeated in the Presidential elec-
1 " nine " 5 50	Sister Carrie, my dear, I am sorry to hear	in front there were large trees; and over	Now I pray my reader not to think	How altentive and pleasant he was!	tien I That is the substance of all that
1 " one year, 6 00	That you are intending to leave us;	the windows looking upon the road, scrag-	my heroine was a foolish or senseless	How admirably his household allairs were	part of his speech. It is the Mexican
Hule and ngure work, per sq., 3 ins. 3 00	They say it's a fact	gy rose bushes and vines hung, matted	girl; on the contrary, she possessed more	conducted, and in what perfect taste was	doctrine of revolution by the minority.
Every subsequent insertion, 50	That your trunk is all packed	together in a solid mass of leaves. The	than an ordinary share of common sense.	everything arranged about the housel	In his view of the case, the Union must
1 Column six months, $$	And you hope by such conduct to grieve us.	front door, which she approached with	But somehow she had taken it into her	Cook his own meals, indeed I Fannie	be destroyed because the election has estimated
	You have always been naughty,	some trepidation, had the appearance of	head that Mr. C. wished to advance his	smiled at her mischievious insinuation,	tablished the non-extension of Slavery
	And willful, and haughty	being newly painted, and what to her	own interest, rather than hers.	as she sat before his sumptuously spread	as the policy of the nation. Slavery real
1 " " " 16 00	Like a spolled minx as you are:	seemed exceedingly ludicrous, its color	"If there is anything which I can do	table. Her own looked plainty and poor	quires and indefinite field for expansion,
Displayed Single-column, each inser-	So vain of your beauty, Forgetful of duty	was bright yellow, which contrasted viv-	to assist you, I shall be pleased to do it,"	ly in comparison with it.	and because the Free States have voted'
tion less than four, 3 00 Bach additional insertion, 2 00	You owe to indulgent papa.	fully with the sombre gray of the house.	said Mr. Cauldwell, rising to go. " My	After tea was served, Mr. Cauldwell	for Freedom in the Territories, they
Lach additional insertion, 2 00 Pouble-column, displayed, per annum 65 00	I am sure you can't say		place joins your's, you may have been	sang and played to her. He did this as	have broken the compact, and the Gover
" six months, 35 00	You've not had your way	she said to herself as she raised the knock-	told."	though conscious of his superior perform-	erument accordingly falls to the ground;
" three " 16 00	In each of our family broils.	er and gave a heavy rap.	Miss Leonard thanked him, but hop-	ance-for he could not help knowing	Mr. Benjamin concluded his speech with
" Gue month, 6 00	While I vow and declare	I he old people were a worthy couple	ed that she should not be obliged to	what every person was so soon assured	a piece of very great rhetoric, which drew
" per square	You've had your full share	who had served her uncle for years, and	trouble him much. So ended the young	of. But Fannie was piqued by his man-	forth the loudest apprause of the galler-
of 10 lines, each insertion under 4, 1 00 Parts of columns will be inserted at the same	Of each of the national spoils	who would look to her for a home-so	lady's first interview with her gentleman-	ner. Did he think her a novice? Did	ies, and led to the expulsion of the cheer-
rates.	Just wait for the season		ly but slightly self conceited neighbor.	he think she had never seen a plano be-	ing audience. The point of it was, that,
Administrator's or Executor's Notice, 2 00	And listen to reason,	mainder of their lives.	After this she directed her attention	fore? Evidently so, by the way that he	war might be made upon the sceeding,
Auditor's Notices, each, 1 50	Nor believe what your false lovers say ; For their prayers and their sighs,	"You are Mrs. Dearborn, I believe,"	to farming. She was persevering, and	turned from it when he had finished play.	States, and the invaders might let loose
Sheriff's Sales, per tract, 1 50	And their dattering lies	isaid hannie to the old lady, as she made	did not rest until she had her spring's	ing. Now Fannie was no mean per-	the horrors of servile atrocities, and they
Marriage Notices, each, 1 00	Will lead you to ruin some day.	her appearance, " and 1 am Miss Fannie	work done. This was accomplished some	former, and she had a voice as sweet,	might overpower Louisiand and the cther
Divorce Notices, each, 1 50 Administrator's Sales, per square for 4	Though they promise so fair,	Leonard. I have come to live with you."	time in the summer. Her harvesting	rich and clear as a song sparrow. She	States, but they could never subdue insertions, 1 50	Gay deceivers they are.	So saying, Miss Leonard walked into	would come in the dead of winter, she	could not brook Mr. Cauldwell's slight.	them Singularly enough Mr. Benjamiu Business or Professional Cards, each,	From the one whom last evening you kissed.		concluded, with the men she hired to do	"You have gratified me, I't me endea-	does not seem to think that such a connot exceding 8 lines, per year - 5 00	To Hammond and Rhett	had, indeed, and she was not timid.	her planting.	vor to repay you," said she, bowing and	flict could end otherwise than in the de-
Special and Editorial Notices, per line, 10	And chivalrous Keitt.		But her greatest pride was in her gar-	stepping toward the plano.	feat of the revolutionary States. In one
paid in advance, and no notice will be taken	(· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	home.	den; and a well stocked one it was too,	There was a wide awake flash in her	respect, however, he is like all his fellow of advertisements from a distance unloss them	Some day, all forlorn,	The morning following she went over	full of cherry trees, current bushes and	eyes, as she said this a pretty arching	revolutionists: The idea that the Fed-are accompanied by the money or satisfactory reference.	Bedraggled and torn,	the house. She was a neat, fidy person-	strawberries and blackberries. In the	of her white, sleuder neck. Mr. Caulu-	eral Government will do anything but reference.	You will knock at the door,	age herself, and consequently was not	meantime, Mr. Cauliwell watched her	well turned around with evident sur-	sond down an army, never seems to enter
	And come home once more,	pleased with what she saw. She was a	with curious eyes. He had never before	prise.	the head of these gentlemen. While
Business Cards.	Nor venture again to secode.	little nervous too; and as the old lady	in his life met with so strange and so self-	He said "he knew allss Leonard could	making a business of treason, they do not
Sustness Outus.	Now be warned of your fate	threw open doors and closets, displaying	willed a young lady. Although the	ure a gun very well, but he was not aware	perceive that if war is made, it will be a made by themselves, and that unless it.
#INITELITIESEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE	Before it's too late;	grimmy paint in one direction, and eeb	amused him, he could not help admiring	that she was a musician."	hade by themselves, and that unless the
JOHN S. MANN,	Like a dear little innocent lamb,			She did not auswer min but touching	becomes absolutely necessary, the United States will do nothing more than keep
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,	Come out of your pet, And do not forget	was obliged to exercise considerable self	pendeuce.	the keys with her nght skintul ingers,	possession of its son ports and oversise
Coudersport, Pa., will attend the several	All the kindness of good Uncle Sam.	command to keep from speaking about	But a cloud came gradually upon Miss	ran through a dimedit opera song with	possession of its sea ports, and exercise Courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All	The Palmetto tree	it. But finally, she did what was a great	Leonard's mind. This was the cloud:	the most period correctness. Then she	that control over the foreign commerce of the country, which is its right and business entrusted in his care will receive	No shalter will be	deal wiser-put on an old dress and well	Mr. Cauldwell's hens scratched in her	han units a sweet old melody, and let	its duty $-N V$ Tribung prompt attention. Office corner of West and Third streets. 10.1	When the dark clouds of anarchy lower ;	to cleaning. She looked at her hands at	garden. They had that privilege for	ther voice out, son, clear, thisming and	nis dutyIV. I. Intoanc.
	You will long for the rest	inst (she had kept them very pretty and	years, and good Mr. Dearborn did not	before and her voice was in perfect tone	LEGISLATIVE WIT While Tom Cor:
F. W. KNOX,	Of your own Eagle's nest,	delicate in spite of everything,) but a	think it could be restricted.		win was a member of the General As-
ATTORNEY AT LAW, Coudersport, Pa., will	And the strong arm of Federal power.	second giance at the paint determined	"Mr. Cauldwell must shut up his hens,"	"I like that," said Mr. Cauldwall	sembly of the State of Ohio, he brought regularly attend the Courts in Potter and	Then, dear little Sis,	Her.	Fannie said closing her pretty lips firmly	10 You and such the succession of the second	in a bill for the abolition of public pun-the adjoining Counties. 10:1	Now give me a kiss,	Now that very afternoon, Miss Fannie	together.	What may he going to say that Farrie	ishment at the whipping post. He made
ARTHUR G OLMSTED	To make up these family jars;	Leonard met with a sad mishap. She	Mr. Cauldwell was soon in possession	what was ne going to say that Fannie	a sneech thereon to which an elderly

Condersport, Pa., will attend to all business fide ity. Office on Soth-west corner of Main and Fourth streets. ARTHUR G. OLMSTED, ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW,

ISAAC BENSON. ATTORNEY AT LAW, Condersport, Pa., will attend to all business entrusted to him, with care and promptness. Office on Second st. near the Allegheny Bridge. 12:1

CHARLES REISSMANN. CABINET MAKER, having erected a new and Condersport, Nov. 8, 1859.-11-1y,

Secession shall never

most refined 'circles.

and dropped the letter which she had ing to control her laughter.

that moment, one would scarcely have her mistake. A stranger stood in the window she baue her bis calling. the of the fact. the of the f were distended half way from her head; the gentleman remarked quietly, raising and while they scattered in one direction, purse on her arm. her mouth—quite broad, but very rosy— bis eyes, " Clean water next time, if you was wide apart; her curls—a brown, silk. please." the old gun kicked her in another. Mr. Cauldwell saw the whole performance by the cattle," she said to herself. through the fence. Looking about her, Mr. Cauldwell was astounded. "He she saw that the leader of the flock was did not sell his corn folder in any such respectfully informs the citizens of the villen cluster back of either car-trembling " "Certainly, sir," answered Miss Leonas though they were at a frolie with the ard, suddenly finding her tongue.

at the back of the house, and as often as did not reply, this angered Miss Leonard full under lip.

significant nod of her head.

"Thank you !" was the cool answer.

Fannie, walking away.

"You are quite welcome, sir," retorted his game !

Two hours later her neighbor made his ter all," he retorted laughingiv "since I houskeeper, and-"

Miss Fannie Leonard turned very pale, "Mr. Dearborn !" she exclaimed, try- She concluded the sentened with a Whether a wise one or not, I leave it for real good thrashin', and he always clearsome one else to determine.

ABINET MAKER, having erected a new and convenient Shop, on the South-east corner of Third and West streets, will be happy to should not be as generous as he had been

-- that is, she should not present him with

"That would not be very generous af-of her promise. Didn't she tell him that She was caught there. How she

She made an effort to slip past him out

"How shall it be?" he asked holding

Fannie hung her head, and tried to get Cor: Asought puninade was cleaning paint in what had been her of a neatly written note which informed should interrupt him with—"Let us try uncle's room, a quaint little place with a him as politely and decisively as possible to sing together, Mr. Cauldwell?"

"The gentleman is not as old as I ani; low, wide window reaching to the ground, that his hens must be kept at home. He "Certainly," he answered biting his and has not seen so much of the practical MISCELLANY. From Ballou's Dollar Monthly. Miss Farm, and how She Managed it. BY A. M. LOVERING. Miss Cellar Monthly. BY A. M. LOVERING. Miss Charle and chapped her hands. BY A. M. LOVERING. Miss Cellar Monthly. BY A. M. LOVERING. BY A. M. LOVERING. Miss Fannie went home in a pet that operation of the system of punishment ed right out, and we never saw him any been reading, from her nerveless hands. Looking out of the window for the The next day the hens scratched in her The next day Miss Leonard's cattle more. It's the best way of getting rid gentleman last up has explained it to my

O. T. ELLISON, PRACTICING PHYSICIAN, Condersport, Pa., lage and vicinity that he will promply respond to all calls for professional services. Office on Main st., in building formerly oc-cupied by C. W. Ellis, Esq. 9:22

C. S. & E. A. JONES, DEALERS IN DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS, Oils, Fancy Articles, Stationery, Dry Goods, Groceries, &c., Main st., Coudersport, Pa. 10:1

D. E. OLMSTED, B. S. COLWELL, A. C. TAGGART. Clothing, Crockery, Groceries, &c., Main st., Coudersport, Pa. 10:1

M. W. MANN DEALER IN BOOKS & STATIONERY, MAG-AZINES and Music, N. W. corner of Main and Third sts., Condersport, Pa. 10:1 -

H. J. OLMSFED. : : : : : : : : : S. D. KELLY.

OLMSTED & KELLY, DEALER IN STOVES, TIN & SHEET IRON the world, and an occasional show of bit- as coolly as she could, and sented herself tence.

COUDERSPORT HOTEL, D. F. GLASSMIRE, Proprietor, Corner of Main and Second Streets, Coudersport, Pot-9:44ter Co., Pa.

tric relative's affairs for years, "needs the BLACKSMITH, Fourth street, between Main immediate care of some one; and it is my on the most reasonable terms. Produce" 12:39 taken in payment.

EZRA STARKWEATHER, BLACKSMITH, would inform his former customers and the public generally that he has reëstablished a shop in the building form-12:34. work.

Z. J. THOMPSON, CARRIAGE & WAGON MAKEB and RE-PAIRER, Condersport, Potter Co., Pa., takes this method of informing the pub-lic in general that he is prepared to do all work in his line with promptness, ken on account of work.

She was too vexed to apolegise, and lying dead among the cucumber vines. way," he said laughing "Ile should Miss Leonard had fallen into possess- arching her neck, she turned straight to She came to a resolution instantly. She shoot her cows if she did not keep them on of a fortune! Not a large one, ac- her work again. ion of a fortune! Not a large one, ac- her work again.

cording to the world's reckoning, but to It was not long before Mrs. Dearborn did with considerable force, and it fell at She hoped he would do so; but she her idea, one that was surprisingly vast. came to her saying that Mr. Cauldwell Cauldwell's feet. The young lady had had a rough time of was in the sitting room and wished to it with life. By this I do not mean that see her. she had ever been a street beggar ; but at "Mr. Cauldwell!" repeated Fannie, an early age she had been left fatherless blushing.

D. E. OLMSTED & CO., DEALERS IN DRY GOODS, READY-MADE and motherless—to look out and shift for work her uncle's farm for a number of well dressed fowl in his hand. ed to sink down with the ignorant masses, years past. He wanted to see her about and having quite an idea of educating it,"

it ! he thought it would be palatable .-- | ed her to ?" herself, she found she had something be- After this explanation she was as ig- He believed Mrs. Dearborn was a rare hand at cooking chickens." Miss Leonard laughed in spite of at all merciful; he went on talking resides play before her. At twenty-five norant as ever; but on entering the room hand at cooking chickens.' (for it takes time to work these changes,) she was evidently a little wiser. This she was a well informed and genteel ap- was the gentleman whom she had treated herself. She was amused, troubled and gardless of her blushes. pearing lady, and but for a certain sharp- to the contents of her wash basin, a few vexed. In an undertone, she gave vent ness which comes from hard contact with moments before. She returned his bow to her feelings in a curt French sen-

WARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court terness, which seldom finds its way into House, Coudersport, Pa. Tin and Sheet terness, which seldom finds its way into Iron Ware made to order, in good style, on short notice. 10:1 would not have suspected that her walks tell Kis business. He wandered about tell was determined to the first termine ber.

in lite had led her in any other than the from one subject to another, talking in a "Tit for tat," thought Fannic, her of the door as he said this, but he caught most refined circles. She "wished that odi- her hand.

But now Miss Leonard had a fortune fact everything, Fannie thought, but ous Mr. Cauldwell would stay at home; "How she -a farm of some forty acres but a few what he came to talk about. At last he he was the pest of her life." But she her firmly. miles removed from the pretty inland city hit upon the farm. He would let his said she "hoped he would call upon them

ALLEGANY HOUSE, SAMUEL M. MILLS, Proprietor, Coleshurg Potter Co., Pa., seven miles north of Cou-dersport on the Wellsville Road. 9:44 MILES ANY HOUSE, SAMUEL M. MILLS, Proprietor, Coleshurg of M—, among the hills of New Hamp-men carry it on fer her, if she pleased, whenever he wished anything done in whenever he wished anything done in would be very disagreeable for a gentle-quite serious," he said. "Yes or no?"

would be very disagreeable for a gentle-quite serious," he said. "Yes or no?" man to prepare his own meals." New Fannie liked, this odd neighbor "And how was that?" she asked.

Blessing her deceased uncle for his grace. kind memory of her, and dropping a few Miss Leonard was piqued. He had possessions by thousands! His pride I have learned since that they are a guns. tears for something, she hardly knew the right of it she knew. His drainage was aroused. He was too indignant for model couple-Mr. and Mrs. Cauldwhat, Miss Fannie went about gathering explauation, and loug harangue upon pas- a moment, to answer; and too indignant well. So ended Fannie Leonard's farmup her little stock of movables which turing, together with a quantity of trash to correct the impression which he seemed ing! heretofore had included her whole stock about polatoes, oats and corn, was like to have made.

erly occupied by Benj. Rennels in Couders-port, where he will be pleased to do all of worldly goods. This was no great so much Greek to her. But she listen-kinds of Blacksmithing on the most reason-task. She had a box of books which ed to it very attentively, and bowed ber her promise. He persumed he should be her a black which is the fact when her a black which is the fact be for books which be for specified specif able terms. Lumber, Shingles, and all must be carefully packed—a black silk knowingly. when he finished speaking: be pleased to test the genuineness before ablest Senators from the Slave States, de-kinds of Produce taken in exchange for dress which must be folded so that it "You understand, I suppose?" he ques-work would not wrinkle-beyond this there tioned.

would not wrinkle—beyond this there tioned. wasn't much to care for. In a maivel "O, yes!" Fannie answered, telling the face. Fannie winced. There was announced that all possibility of conipro-so much insinuated in his quiet, but deep mise was gone, and that Louisiana would ously short space of time, she was on her as big a lie as she possibly could.

way to M——, feeling a little lonely, per-haps, but strangely independent. Whether to laugh or cry, she did not know sorely puzzled. But in the brain was sorel in a workman-like manner, and upon the know, when the coachman set her down stead, she thanked him as well as she was a sort of instinct with her. At the reason for this revolution be stated differ. Carohna thinks that Kentucky, envolved in a workman-like manner, and upon the know, when the coachman set her down stead, she thanked him is not as an in all the horrors of revolution and border' most accommodating terms. Payment for Repairing invariably required on delivery of the work. The state of th

"She could pay for the damage done entire satisfaction." The bill was passed without further discussion.

SOUTHERN REMINISCENCES OF LINcoln -- It is not generally known that the earlier years of Abraham Lincoln were spent in Virginia. From sixteen to eighteen he attended Charles Tackett's school, then a flourishing institution in Stafford county. The Hon. John L. Taylor, Harvey B. Ralls, and Meredith Eskridge were among his class mates .----The latter gentleman remembers him well "Ile hoped Miss Leonard would accept she would cook for him whenever he wisl. and speaks of him as a youth of great promise, strict integrity and untiring in-dustry, but of quick temper. Subsequently he taught school and studied law during the while, at Jeffersonton, Culpepper county, and boarded with old Mr. Luckett, who kept the village inn. Tision that they would do well to, work in partnership. He thought her a very poor farmer—he was sure he was a poor houskeeper. and—" beech trees, and near the old race track, is still known as "Linkum's Hole." He lived two years at Jeffersonton. Mr. Caleb Burnly succeeded him in his school. -Occoguan Courier.

BLACKSMITH, Fourth street, between Main and West Streets, Coudersport, Pa., is pre-pared to do all kinds of work in his line, pared to do all kinds of work in his line, on the most reasonable terms. Bredness. He smiled at the question as though the thought it an exceedingly absurd one, but proceeded to answer it with tolerable on the most reasonable terms. He smiled at the question as though the thought it an exceedingly absurd one, but proceeded to answer it with tolerable on the most reasonable terms. He smiled at the question as though the thought it an exceedingly absurd one, but proceeded to answer it with tolerable on the most reasonable terms. He smiled at the question as though the thought he did his own cooking-At Norfolk, the other day, when the. with one star erased, and fired thirty-two > COLD FEET -If you have cold feet; immerse them morning and evening in cold water, and rub with a rough towel. In one month you will be entirely relievcd. All the red pepper and mustard applications are like rum to the stomachlivered in the Senate yesterday what he relieve you to day, but leave you colder to-morrow.

> > PRENTICE ON KENTUCKY SECESSION. -"Oh, how shall I get out of this?"

1

. . .]

A Seccision Speech. Mr. Benjamin of Louisiana, one of the

This he said looking her straight in evidently regards as his final speech. He