

John and County.

COUDERSPORT, JANUARY 24, 1861.

We have just printed some QUIT DEEDS which we offer to the public at 50 cents each, or 24 for $1.

We are indebted to the Tribune Association, New York for a copy of the State Almanac for 1861. It is needful for us to commend this work, further than to say that it contains its usual quantity of useful information. Price 12 cents, or one dozen copies for $1—$7 per hundred.

Our "black list" is not quite ready, but is under way. We shall show no favor in the matter; therefore those who wish to go before the world in that light, will call at our office and settle up.

J. H. Parsons, of this place, will appear on the subject of Temperance at the Hyattsville School House, on Crandall street, on Tuesday evening, Feb. 7th inst. We hope there will be a general attendance, not only of the friends of the cause, but of its enemies. The question is one of vital importance just now, and Mr. Parsons treats the subject forcibly and ably. The friends of Temperance owe themselves and the public a strong effort in behalf of the subject prior to the next election. There is danger that the temptations at work will cheat our County out of its noble position before the moral world, unless the friends of Temperance are wary and active.

Donation.—We are requested to notice that a donation visit will be given by the Rev. C. Strong at the Methodist message, on THURSDAY EVENING, Jan. 25th inst. All persons within the charge are earnestly invited to be present. The following are the Committee of Arrangements:

MOTHERS, READ THIS.—The following is an extract from a letter written by the pastor of a Baptist Church to the "Journal and Messenger," Cincinnati, Ohio, and speaks volumes in favor of that world-renowned medicine—WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN'S TEETHING.

"We see an advertisement in your columns of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Now we never said a word in favor of a patent medicine before in our life, but we feel compelled to say to your readers, that this is no humbug, we have tried it, and know it to be all that it claims. It is, probably, one of the most successful medicines of the day, because it is one of the best. And those of our readers who have babies can't do better than to lay in a supply."

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.

TONIC, DIURETIC, ANTI-DYSPEPTIC, AND INVIGORATING CORDIAL.

To the citizens of New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Apothecaries, Druggists, Grocers and Private Families.

Wolfe's Pure Cognac Brandy. Wolfe's Pure Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine. Wolfe's Pure Jamaica and St. Croix Rum. Wolfe's Pure Scotch and Irish Whisky.

ALL IN BOTTLES.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser. Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax; and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia. Geo. H. ASHTON, No. 822 Market St. Phila. Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier:

FRAGrant Business for one New York Merchant.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Market street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintage of 1838 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch, and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and are hoped in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandy and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families, who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medicinal use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors.—Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.
