After the 26th inst., the old stamped envelopes are worthless.

The U. S. Marshall in Phila., stopped the sale and the transmission of the New York Daily Book and News, and suppressed the Phila. Christian Observer—three notorious Tory sheets.

We learn with regret, that Col. JOSEPH PAXTON, Ex-President of the Catawissa Rail Road, died of the heart disease, at his residence in Catawissa, on the night of the 20th inst., in the 75th year of his age.

The President of the United States has, by proclamation, appointed the last Thursday in September as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer. It is to be hoped the day will be religiously observed by all. See Proclamation and call to the clergy in another column.

Harper's Monthly and the Atlantic have been received. The latter offers inducements to subscribers in the shape of a very able list of contributors. Now is the time to subscribe for both, as they contain articles of great interest in relation to the present state of affairs in the country.

We are pleased to learn of the promotion of our fellow-citizen, LEWIS MANN, present P. M., to a Clerkship in the Treasury Department at Washington. If the offices of the Department were more generally filled by men of his character and feeling we would have less corruption and disloyalty of which to complain. We wish him success, health and happiness in his new field of labor.

There is little or no news of importance since our last issue. The Secession papers throughout the North are suffering severely—a score of them have ceased publication during the past week. Pierce Butler of Philadelphia and other prominent secessionists have been sent to Fort Lafayette for safe keeping. Great activity prevails in all the Departments at Washington—preparatory to some great and decisive move. A few slight skirmishes have occurred in which the Union troops have been generally successful.

We are indebted to Perry Martin, Esq., for late Philadelphia papers. From the same gentleman we learn that Smith's Cavalry Company have been ordered to Washington. He saw members of the Company on the cars at Baltimore. From a private letter from Mr. Rogers, received some days since, we learn that Mr. Mark French had been appointed Orderly Sergeant of the Company. The Company were sworn into service before leaving Harrisburg.—Cameron Citizen.

Capt. Dewey and Aid have been in town this week endeavoring to obtain recruits for Berdan's Regiment of Sharpshooters. The men in this Regiment receive more pay, are better clothed, and have more chance of promotion than in the Infantry. Of course the test is a difficult one, but their intended service makes it necessary. "To become a member the applicant must make a string of ten consecutive shots at a distance of 200 yards not to average over 5 inches for each shot, or a string of over 50 inches measured from the centre of the target to the centre of the ball holes. The men are to deploy in small squads to pick off the officers and artillerymen of the enemy, and is the only regiment of the kind to be formed. The men can take their own rifles, or they can have the best ones to be found." The men are clothed green in summer and gray in winter. Sharpshooters, here is a chance! Those wishing and able to join the company, will address immediately by mail, Capt. J. W. DEWEY, Harrisburg, Pa., or B. S. COREY, Ulysses, Pa., or HORACE WARNER, Wilcox P. O., Elk Co., Pa.

The two Companies of Maj. Kilbourne's Battalion will rendezvous at Oswayo and Coudersport, on the 4th of Sept., and will immediately receive from the Government subsistence. These companies are not yet full. Men from Potter should fill them. We have not as yet given our full share for the war. Will we do it? Young men of Potter, are the traitors marching to the destruction of your country and will you not strike a blow for its defence? Arouse! show yourselves men, Americans—true sons of patriot sires. Remember that with the loss of country would follow the loss of liberty and put in power an oligarchy whose first principle is the subjugating and disgrace of labor. Do you desire to be ruled by those who stigmatize you as the "mud-sills of society?" Is your love of liberty so feeble that it will not animate you to strike one blow? Be Americans—march to your country's relief. And let those among you who cry peace! submission to traitors! and who give sympathy and comfort to the Rebels be put down. Traitors at home and traitors abroad—the same end should be stretched out to both! "Fall into line." Let not a man flatter. Go now, and you will save much future trouble. If you do not, years of civil strife and bloodshed may be the result.

On Monday last a large concourse of people assembled to see the Hebron Invincibles drill. Speeches were made by Major Kilbourne and L. F. Maynard, Esq., and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Wharton township, in this county, has sent out one-fourth of her voting population—Good for Wharton! How many will follow her patriotic course?

The following are the names of the Wharton volunteers in this squad—Jack Miller, Manuel Siskney, Wm. Ross, Sylvester Baldwin, Orrin Cortright, W. F. Card, H. F. Stoner, C. A. Lamont, C. F. Ayres, Allen Jordan, T. L. Walker, Alexander Darlin, Seth McMullen, T. M. Sinsabaugh, L. E. Sinsabaugh, Duhanan Cortright.

Southern sympathizers and disappointed office-seekers, too cowardly to avow their real feelings, seek to destroy the Government by assailing its officers and crying "corruption," "fraudulent contracts," to every act executed by those in power. This extends not only to the National Administration, but to almost all the State Administrations. The last cry comes from the Pittsburgh Gazette, and charges Gov. Curtin with neglect and fraud in the fitting out of Col. Geary's regiment. Other newspapers are copying the charge and adding to it whatever their own bitter partizan or disappointed spirits may dictate. To this charge the Harrisburg Telegraph gives a brave and fearless denial. Col. Geary's regiment was not equipped by the State, but by the General Government, and Gov. Curtin had no part in it further than the regiment being accepted through him as part of the quota called for from Pennsylvania. The State Administration has ever shown the most determined spirit in reference to the war, Gov. Curtin and his officers have put their whole power and mind to the great work of furnishing men and means for the war. When the Legislature was about to adjourn, Gov. Curtin asked of it the power to raise fifteen additional regiments to be held as a reserve in case they should be needed. Some doubted the propriety or necessity of the measure, but it was granted, and see the result! After the battle of Bull Run, Washington was supposed to be in danger, and more troops were needed immediately. Pennsylvania was called upon, and it is due to the far-sightedness of our Governor that she was able to throw into the beleaguered city regiment after regiment until we could again say, "Washington is safe." Depend upon it, loyal citizens, the Administration of the Old Keystone is well able to guard its honor, and be certain of one thing, those who claim to see fraud and trickery in every act of the Government, are generally those who would, if they did but dare, go and fight for the Rebels under Jeff. Davis. As Pennsylvanians, we have cause to be proud of the noble course pursued by our officers in trust. Her men were the first to open the way to Washington, and if we remember rightly, the first to respond to the call of the President. She has done much, and will continue in the good work as long as there is need. The present State Administration came into power at a perilous time, and ever since has put its best energies to the work of supporting the General Government, and every loyal citizen may be certain of one thing, that our noble Governor will suffer no opportunity to pass for the furtherance, both of our National and State honors.

PAY OF SOLDIERS.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says: "Not a soldier anywhere in America, under Federal authority, went without his pay on the first of the month, save those whose pay-rolls were blunderingly inaccurate through the incompetency of officers. The gold was then and is now ready for every soldier in the service."
