FROM "OUR BOYS" IN CAMP.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 8th, 1861. Dear Wife and Children: After leav ing Oswayo and its long-to-be-remembered scenes, we drove as rapidly as possible to Wellsville. About three miles out we were met by the firemen in uniform, the citizens in carriages, and a large company of horsemen extemporized for the occasion, all preceded by a band of musicians playing national airs. Banners were streaming over the streets and waving from carriages, and all was excitement, bustle and parade. After marching around the town, the soldiers and citizens who had accompanied them were furnish ed with an excellent supper by the ladies of Wellsville. The cordial greeting and grand reception and entertainment our brave boys met and received at Wellsville ject to the Relief Fund. will be long and gratefully remembered. At I o'clock A. M. Friday, we were escorted by the firemen with their torches, and accompanied by the band and many County: citizens to the depot, where we bid a final adieu to our friends and started for the scene of strife. Just as the vapors of night were receding before the rising sun we reached Elmira, when we learned that son to believe that he would not only be the cars on the Williamsport road were able to hold his position, but that, with all pre-occupied and we could not go on till next morning at 4-45. The soldiers marched to camp and found quarters for the day. In the camp I found Mr. Cranand Old Town; Price is said to hold the dall and Sawyer, the two men that used latter place.
