M. W. McALARNEY, Editor.

AS WE EXPECTED.

In our country's struggle for life against a barbarous rebellion, says the Lewisburg Star & Chronicle, it is desirable that there should be as few causes of distraction among the loyal people as possible.

How were these advances met? In a few Republican counties only, but one ticket was formed, and elected—Delaware and Huntingdon, for example.

Thus our party generally conducted the campaign on the Peace plan—conciliation, and a "masterly inactivity," giving away our own positions of honor and profit.

WHAT IS THE RESULT? While in no County do we see an aggregate Dem. gain over Foster's vote of last year, the Republicans are still more behind.

We wish every easy, good-natured, thoughtless Republican—who is so often persuaded to desert his party and his friends, by the plausible fibs of every city-tongued Democrat—had before them a pile of Demo. newspapers, filled with rampant Roosters, and the most extravagant, large type and double-columned boasts and glorifications of "Splendid Dem. Victories."

The battle is over. In the light of it, we ask all true Union Republicans whether it is either politic or just to yield, where nothing is yielded to? whether it is expedient to keep down friends, and exalt opponents who will jeer at our folly and stupidity?

So long as we do esteem ourselves right and our party safe, let us stand by each other and the Administration of whose fidelity there is no doubt.

The idea of purchasing patriotism, is preposterous. The more offices and money Arnold had, the more exacting and the more a traitor he became.

The cry that was made, a few months ago, against Gov. Curtin in regard to contracts, &c., turns out to have been without any just foundation.

LATEST WAR NEWS.

We give a large portion of our space this morning to a report of the details of the great Military and Naval Expedition to the Southern coast, which sailed on Friday last.

The Secretary of War issued instructions to Gen. Sherman, in command of the Southern Expedition, concerning the disposition he should make of fugitive slaves.

From Washington we have no especial news. Our troops occupy Vienna, and our pickets are a mile beyond Anandale.

We print this morning the orders of General Stone to Colonel E. D. Baker, under which the latter acted in the battle at Edward's Ferry.

We have from Western Virginia a short dispatch stating that General Kelly, who it will be remembered, was badly wounded in a brilliant engagement at Phillippi some time ago, left New Creek on Friday night.

We have cheering news from Missouri. On Friday, Gen. Fremont's body-guard, 300 strong, attacked 2,200 Rebels in Springfield, drove them from the town, raised the National flag on the Court House, then retired upon their rearmaments.

Lieut. Porter, of the Powhatan, who is now cruising after the Sumter, has sent home a dispatch stating that on the 19th of September that pirate was at Maranhau, on the coast of Brazil.

OUR ARMY CORRESPONDENCE.

CAMP LEWIS, Oct. 17, 1861.

EDITOR JOURNAL: Having heard that persons in our regiment have written home that they are not well fed and clothed by Uncle Sam, and knowing that such reports are calculated to disturb the quietude of many who have sons and brothers in the army, I will give you a statement of the articles drawn by each person in our regiment.

Whilst I have the pen in hand perhaps it will be of interest to some of your readers who have friends with us to know that the "boys" are well satisfied with their new situation.

After the inspection of our company we had but eighty-four men and officers remaining fit for service, consequently seventeen men more are required to fill it.

COUDERSPORT, Oct 28, 1861.

EDITOR JOURNAL: It is probably well known by your readers that some of the volunteers who went on with Captain Jones' company have returned home again.

EDWARD D. BAKER, whose death we record to-day, was born in England, of Quaker parents, who removed to Philadelphia when he was a child, but died leaving two sons, destitute.

Thanksgiving Proclamation. Whereas, Every good gift is from above, and comes down to us from the Almighty, to whom it is meet, right, and the bounden duty of every people to render thanks for His mercies: Therefore I, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do recommend to the people of this Commonwealth, that they set apart THURSDAY, 28th of NOVEMBER next as a day of solemn Thanksgiving to God, for having prepared our corn and watered our furrows, and blessed the labor of the husbandman, and crowned the year with His goodness in the increase of the ground, and the gathering in of the fruits thereof, so that our barns are filled with plenty; and for having looked favorably on this Commonwealth, and strengthened the bars of her gates, and blessed the children within her, and made men, to be of one mind, and preserved peace in her borders; beseeching Him, also, on behalf of these United States, that our beloved country may have deliverance from those great and apparent dangers wherewith she is compassed, and that He will mercifully still the outrages of perverse, violent, unruly and rebellious people, and make them clean hearts, and renew a right spirit within them, and give them grace that they may see the error of their ways and bring forth fruits meet for repentance, and hereafter, in all godliness and honesty, obediently walk in His holy commandments, and in subordination to the just and manifest authority of the Republic, so that we, leading a quiet and peaceful life, may continually offer unto Him our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND THE GREAT SEAL OF THIS STATE AT HARRISBURG, this 16th day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-sixth.
