Wednesday, Nov. 13, 1861

M. W. MCALARNEY, EDITOR.

SYNOPSIS OF WAR NEWE.

There is a report at Norfolk, and also her hold. She was run square on shore, at Richmond, to the effect that Gen. and broke in two abaft the smokestack. Beauregard has resigned the command of Capt. Garvin and eighty others were dithe Rebel army. No cause for the step vided in two parties, and sent to Fort though no official information of the fact ashore.

the Rebels, unaccountably lost eight ers alleged to be lost. bond, Gen. Heintzelman told her that he was dispatched to her.

after the most careful inquiry and anxious with our ships. riotism or personal integrity of Fremont, and another ship belonging to the fleet ed. Worn out as he is, and suffering in parting from you, I cordially exposed branches from mature or peculiarly exposed branches from is better adapted to the position. MorNothing has been heard from the fleet doubtful whether our country can receive which has protected you amidst so many the aims to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which it up together, and I have become familiar is that the expedition is successful. with the brave and generous spirits which The steamship James R Spaulding and which makes me anticipate for you a brilliant career.

Continue as you have began and give thusiastic support with which you have encouraged me. Emulate the splendid example which you have befere you, and let me remain as I am proud of the noble large Union force. army which I have thus far labored to bring together.

Soldiers! I regret to leave you, sincerely. I thank you for the regard and confidence you have invariably shown me. I the right to share with you in the joy of folk. every triumph, and trust always to be personally remembered by my companions

JOHN C. FREMONT, Maj. Gen. For a time, Fremont's men threatened an immense quantity of stores. a citizen and as a soldier, he returns with railroad as far as Charleston. the public attention may be called from night, off Hatteras. All hands were saved ment.

BY LAST NIGHTS MAIL.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 10, 1861 .-

Next day, she stood in again, when an- Retirement of Lieut. Gen. Scott other flag was hoisted. On communicating, she learned that the wreck was the United States steam-transport Union, belonging to the fleet, loaded with horses and provisions, and that she went ashore on the night of Friday, the 1st inst. All hands were saved. When she struck, NEW YORK, November 6th, 1861 .- she was badly stove, with 4 ft. of water in Macon and Raleigh as prisonert.

We have a report from Washington The beach was strewn with the cargo which says that Gen. Wool has resigned. and dead horses. She had 67, all but It rests apparently on good authority al. 15 of which were killed before going

The Rebel officers informed the officers Gen. Halleck has arrived in Washing- of the Albatross that Capt. Garvin had ton. He was presented to the President said he feared the Winfield Scott, with by Gen. McClellan, and had afterwards two regiments, had foundered and gone an interview with the Cabinet. The com- down, because she was in company shortmand to which he is destined is not yet ly before the Union struck, and suddenly disappeared.

At least one General of division in the It was at night, and this conclusion is army of the Potomac understands what much doubted. The rebels reported also are and what are not the duties of the that two vessels of the fleet were ashore armies of the United States. Widow near Charleston, and others below Hat-Triplet, who lives near Alexandria, and teras Nothing was heard of the Ocean of New York. With Fierce's aid com- my prayers to God, for this Administrawhose sympathies are believed to be with Express, or the names of any of the oth-slaves. She thought that they were with- The Spaulding has arrived from Hatin the lines of Gen. Heintzelman's com- teras. Lieut. Lowry reports that on mand, and applied to that officer for re- Wednesday morning lest heavy firing was infernal end in view, the extension of the hef. Forseeing one possible objection to heard south of that place, and news was territory for human oppression)—under Scott: the return of her chattles, she backed received that the French war steamer which our land now bleeds at every pore. her petition with a penal bond, pledging Pronna was on Ocracoke Beach. Lieut. The Election of Gen. Scott, for Presiherself not to sell them South. The Lowry, with the gunboat Underwriter, dent, would, in all human probability, less, because without a consideration .- not get nearer than three miles. Lay the last-the Old Hero Pacificator has The slaves he declined to search for or there all night, making signals. In the (like Aristides the Just) never ceased to from expressing my deep regret that your surrender, adding, that he was no "nig- morning, finding the Underwriter in a watch over the nation with a maternal so- health, shattered by long service and re ger-catcher." It is said that this reply damaged condition, returned to hatteras. licitude. His presence and his name peated wounds, received in your country's the cause of humanity, Justice and Freedom, has excited great apprehension in the At 11 o'clock the same day, the French minds of widow Triplet's slave holding steamer was seen to blow up, with a loud Capitol when it was really in the power this momentous period of our history. explosion and dense smoke. It was sup- of the Traitors. Now, physically ex- Although you are not to remain in Baron D'Reisenborg of Belgium, has posed she had been abandoned and blown hausted, he leaves the people well aroused active service, I yet hope that while I tendered his military services to the up. This and another French war-steamer have been in the neighborhood some IMPORTANT CHANGE. - The President, time, but have repelled all intercourse solicitude, removed Gen. Fremont from Before the Spaulding left, General the command in Missouri, and devolves Williams received intelligence from the it upon Gen. Hunter, who conducted one main shore that the Expedition had enof our Divisions with most success and tered Port Royal and captured the bathonor at the battle of Manassas. This teries and Beaufort. It was reported change indicates no suspicion of the patthrough the same source that Mayflower is unsullied—his personal honor, uncloudand convulsed the country for the last six months.

and convulsed the country for the last six months.

shines forth in the following official and except the above. Nothing whatever from him more of substantial benefits. trials, will improve your health and constant whether the strength and constant whether the s has been received here concerning the the fighting at Port Royal, except the been spared to us so long! May millions the fighting at Port Royal, except the been spared to us so long! May millions Headquarters Western Department. } the fighting at Port Royal, except the been spared to us so long! May millions their former happiness and prosperity. The fighting at Port Royal, except the been spared to us so long! May millions their former happiness and prosperity. Springfield, Mo., Nov. 2, 1861. first report through Norfolk, that one of youth be inspired to imitate his fidelity Agreeably to orders received this day, gunboat was disabled by the rebel guns, and unshaken zeal for the Right?—Lew-friend and servant, take leave of you. Although our army and another aground in a critical situahas been of sudden growth, we have grown tion. Excepting the wrecks, the belief you bring to the defense of your country, arrived from Hatteras Inlet this morning with the 20th Indiana Regiment.

A deserter who reached the Inlet in a to my successor the same cordial and en- small boat, stated that news had been re- horse, or walk more than a few paces at ceived on main land of taking two Rebel a time, and that with much pain. Other the post, in an order issued the evening their efforts to uphold the Union, the Constitution and new information described by the same day. May be seen in the supremacy of the same day. May be seen in the supremacy of the same day. May be seen in the supremacy of the laws. And, forts at Port Royal, and the landing of a and new infirmities, dropsy and vertigo,

No particulars had arrived, but the beyond the usual span of man. main fact corresponds with the news redeeply regret that I shall not have the ceived a few hours since from Norfolk by honor to lead you to the victory which a flag of truce. Great excitement pre- States of our so late prosperous and happy you are just about to win, but I shall claim vailed on the arrival of the news at Nor

> From the same source we have a rumor army officess retired from active service. that the railroad above Beaufort has fal-mutiny and desertion, but he did all he Five deserters, who reached Newport myself, in these momentous times, from could to pacify them. To Gen. Hunter, News this morning, state that the Rebhe confided all secret information and els up James River are in consternation, public explanation within his power.— and also brings the improbable rumor intercourse, to be patriotic, without sector to the rain and bad weather did not go tacilities for acquiring information increase more important points, Gen Fremont will The Captain of the United States gunproperly attend to his own vindication .- boat Albatros reports that he discovored for the uniform high consideration I have In the mean time, let him be assured that the Union ashore, on the 6th inst., about received at your hands, and have the he has lost no true friend—yet every such must hope that the impending batlet; but, in consequence of the heavy weather, had no communication with the the (where Lyon fell, at or near Wilson's shore until the following day, when he Creek) may prove that the President landed with a flag of truce, and learned Council, it was unanimously agreed that and Cabinet have not erred in judg- from the Captain of a Rebel company the under the circumstances the resignation following particulars:

St. Louis. At the proper time, when burned to the water's edge, on Friday and perseverance.

run ashore in a sinking condition, on the the General, when the President read to 1st inst., and soon after broke in two in Scott the following: The gunboat Albatross, from the blockade front of the smoke-stack. The crew, 73 in number, and 15 horses, were saved .-

miles north of Bogue Inlet, N. C., but Winfield Scott was in company with the upon the list of retired officers of the the sea was so high she could not make Union, and the Captain of the latter ex- Army of the United States, without reher out, though a flag of truce was hoist- pressed the opinion that his consort was duction in his current pay, subsistance or lost, she having suddenly disappeared. | allowances.

great event of the week.

over half a century in his country's most bellion. dangerous service. His valor in the War of 1812, in the Black Hawk, Florida and Mexican wars-his success as peace. President and Cabinet, who had also maker on the North-Eastern frontier, and risen, as follows: with the exiled Cherokees-his aid in before the incoming of the present Ad- port of the Cabinet. ministration-are matters of history.

One of the darkest pages in our annals, is that which records the rejection and humiliation of WINFIELD SCOTT, in 1852, for, Franklin Pierce. The personal insults of Pierce's Secretary of War, Jeff. Davis, was the cause of Scott's removing lation of the Missouri Compromise, Border Ruffianism, Lecomptonism, Buchananism, and Secessionism, (all having one have crushed in the bud those enormities was lawyer enough to know to be worth- The sea was very high, and we could -our calamities. And yet-faithful to isburg Star & Chronicle.

> GEN SCOTT'S DECLINATION. Head Quarters of the Army, Washington, D. C , Oct. 31, 1861.

Hon. S. CAMERON, Secretary of War. SIR: For more than three years, I have been unable, from a hurt, to mount a admonish me that a repose of mind and body, with the appliances of surgery and more to a life already protracted much doubly painful by the unnatural and un. youthful M'CLELLAN! just rebellion now raging in the Southern Union, that I am compelled to request that my name be placed on the list of the orders of a President who has treated me with distinguished kindness and courhighly conscientious in the performance

And to you, Mr. Secretary, whom I now officially address for the last time, I beg to acknowledge my many obligations honor to remain, sir, with high respect,

Your obedient servant,

WINFIELD SCOTT. Friday morning, at a special Cabinet

PRESIDENT LINCOLN,S ORDER. On the 1st day of November, A. D.

The American people will hear with We copy the amply sufficient reasons has withdrawn from the active control of men, Capt. E. Brown, in Col. J. Richter ATTORNET AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW, Coundersport, Pa., will attend the several for the long expected withdrawal of WIN- the Army, while the President and Cabi-FIELD SCOTT from the post he has so well net express their own and the nation's adorned, together with the testimonials sympathy in his personal affliction, and of the President and of the Cabinet to their profound sense of the important his exalted merits. His retirement is the country, during his long and brilliant career, among which will ever be grate-Born in 1786, Gan. Scott entered the fully distinguished his faithful devotion army about 1808, so that he has been for to the Constitution, the Union and the Flag, when assailed by a parricidal re-ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

> GEN. SCOTT'S RESPONSE. Gen. Scott arose and addressed the checking Nullification in 1831—and his me. It overpays all services I have at- Jail Delivery, Quarter Sessious of the Peace, almost solitary faithfulness and forecast had any claims befere, they are all oblit- for the County of Potter, have issued their (among our high Officials at Washington) erated by this expression of approval by precept, bearing date the seventh day of to and for the preservation of the Nation, the President, with the unanimous sup-keeping. Their counc'ls are wise; their labors are untiring, as they are loyal; and their course is the right one.

menced that series of measures—the vio- tion, and for my country. I shall pray for it, with confidence in its success over its enemies, and that speedily.

SEC. CAMERON'S TESTIMONIAL. The following is the response of the Secretary of War to the letter of Gen.

War Department, Washington, Nov. 1st, 1861.

GENERAL: It was my duty to lay before the President your letter of yesterday, asking to be relieved under the recent act of Congress.

defence, should render it necessary for eudeavoring to meliorate the condition of the were worth a thousand men in saving the you to retire from your high position at oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and ento a sense of the daugers which he had continue in charge of the Department than popular, and to espouse and commend long foreseen but which he in vain urged the late President to thwart in time. He commits the Army to the charge of one ence. It has been my good fortune to the popular, and to esponse and commend to desponse and commend to the popular, and to esponse and commend to the popular commits the Army to the charge of one ence. It has been my good fortune to things incited our readers to think and judge in his opinion capable of maintaining its enjoy a personal acquaintance with you for themselves rather than adopt blindly our in his opinion capable of maintaining its interest. His noble heart throbs with patriotism to the last. He leaves the stage of action with a military reputation stage of action with a military reputation in all great questions of the young by the most general, thorough surpassed by no living man. His fame which have occupied the Department and practical Education, and to encourage from age and severe infirmities, it is press the hope that a merciful Providence too powerful foreign competition, are among

I am, General. very sincerely your

SIMON CAMERON, Sec'y of War.

To Lieutenant General WINFIELD SCOTT.

Scott's Successor. Without a dissenting voice in the Cabinet or elsewhere, the President on Friday designated GEORGE B. M'CLELLAN, clear duty, with that of every other citizen, Major General, as Chief Commander of to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen the Army of the Union. He accepted rulers, and to second with all our energies of the same day. May he so wisely con-though the Rebellion has become, through duct, and speedily and happily eonelude usurpation, deception terrorism, and spoilathe War, that the distinction of Lieuten- tion, fearfully strong, we believe the Ameri-Beaufort had also been taken by our medicine, are neccessary to add a little ant General—an honor heretofore conferred only on the incomparable WASH-imous, earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all INGTON, and the veteran Scott-may questions affecting the objects, the scope and It is under such circumstances, made also worthily adorn the brow of the duration of this mest extraordinary contest.

FROM LIEUT. CLAY.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4, 1861. As this request is founded on an abso- ter County boys' arrived in the city all elucidations of its more striking incidents.—
We shall not however remit that attention to lute right granted by a recent act of Con- right "gay and happy," on Thursday Literature, to Foreign Affairs, to Agricultural len into the possession of our troops, with gress, I am entirely at liberty to say that evening at about 61 o'clock. As it was has, already we trust, won for THE TRIBUNE to late to go out to camp and the men an honorable position among its cotemporawere without uniforms, they staid all ries. Our object is and shall be to produce a night at head quarters and Saturday ful reader may glean a vivid and faithful histo camp until Sunday morning. They with years, we trust that an improvement in a citizen and as a soldier, he returns with railroad as far as Charleston.

most of his staff and his body guard to The French frigate Calabria was of every duty, and of unrivalled activity are all very pleasantly fixed and are much that, in the variety and fullness of intelligence pleased with their new position. They afforded, we may still hope to "make each are considered very fine men and have day a critic on the last. all the elements of good soldiers in them of patronege hitherto accorded to our jourand especially as riflemen, for which ser nal. vice they are particularly fitted.

We will not leave the city for several SEMI-WEEKLY (104 issues per annum) weeks and meantime they will keep their WEEKLY (52 issues per annum) friends posted with regard to their wel- $5; five for $11,25; ten to one address for fare &c. Part of the guns for our artillary battery are now in the city and the will be sent. For a club of forty we send could not be declined. In the afternoon, rest will be here soon. I have sent you The Daily Tribune gratis one year. The Union went ashore, or rather was the President and Cabinet waited upon this as I know the interest taken in the less for $19; and any larger number at the friends and the desire which they have being addressed to each subscriber. To clubs business public. to hear of their welfare and condition .- Twenty copies to one address for $20.00 on the North Carolina coast which arrived The men are prisoners at Fort Macon and last evening reports that on Wednesday Raleigh N C Large quantities of President of the United States Brovet in roun visibility and return to him who sends us the club. last evening, reports that on Wednesday, Raleigh, N. C. Large quantities of President of the United States, Brevet in your vicinity and return to the city. - TRIBUNE will be sent gratis for one year.

LT. CECIL CLAY.

Subscribe for the JOURNAL.

The following is the list of names

Jasper Nelson, Eulalia John Abbot, Wm. Thornton, Stewardson D. A. Cole, Hebron Samuel Scofield, Oswavo Zalmon Buchanon, H. Hanson, Roulette P. V. Green, R. McCrakin, Eulalia

COURT PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Hon. Robert G. White President Judge, and the Hons. Joseph PRESIDENT—This honor overwhelms Mann and G. G. Cortin, the Courts of Oyer & Terminer and General January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and to me directed, for holding a Court of Oyer and Term-I know the President, and this Cabi- iner and General Jail Delivery, Quarter Sesnet, well. I know that the country has sions of the Peace, Orphans' Court, and Court placed its interests, in this crisis, in safe of Common Pleas, in the Borough of Coudersport, on MONDAY, the 23rd day of Dec.

next, and to continue one week : Notice is therefore hereby given to the Coroners, Justices of the Peace and Constables President, you must excuse me. I am within the county, that they be then and there unable to stand longer to give utterance in their proper persons, at 10 o'clock A. M. of to the feelings of gratitude which oppress tions, examinations, and other remembrances, said day, with their rolls, records, inquisihis Head Quarters for a time to the city me. In my retirement, I shall offer up to do those things which to their offices appertain to be done. And those who are bound by their recognizances to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the fail of said county of Potter, are to be then and there to prosecute against them as will be just.

Dated at COUDERSPORT, Nov. 12, 1861, and the 84th year of the Independence of the United States of America.

WM. F. BURT, Sheriff.

HE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

NEW VOLUME.

On the seventh of September, 1861, the New York WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence; the DAILY In separating from you I cannot refrain TRIBUNE being some months older and the SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhaty ounger. For more than twenty years, this journal has labored in what its conductors have fell to be lectual, and material advancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather > than was ever before known-a Rebellion in the interest of the few against the many-a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression. Has been so fortunate as to secure the servi-Having done all we could without a surrender of principle to avoid this War, and wit- and mending Boots and Shoes in his nessed the forbearance, meekness and longsought to avert its horrors, we hold it our we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in so grave an emergency.

In a crisis like the present our columns must be largely engrossed with the current DEAR SIR: Our detachment of "Pot. history of the War for the Union, and with

DAILY TRIBUNE (311 issues per annum)

To Clurs-Semi-Weskly: Two copies for men from Potter County by all their rate of $1,20; each per annum, the paper the Post Offico and State should in all ca- the Register of Potter county, to whom all ses be plainly written.

Payment always in advance. Address THE TRIBUNE, No. 154 Nassau payment.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All business entrusted in his care will receive prompt attention. Office corner of West and Third streets.

ARTHUR G. OLMSTED,

ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW Condersport, Pa., will attend to all business entrusted to his care, with promptnes and fide ity. Office on Soth-west corner of Main and Fourth streets.

ISAAC BENSON.

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Coudersport, Pa., will attend to all business entrusted to him, with care and promptness. Office on Second st.; near the Allegheny Bridge.

F. W. KNOX,

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Coudersport, Pa., will regularly attend the Courts in Potter and the adjoining Counties.

O. T. ELLISON,

PRACTICING PHYSICIAN, Coudersport, Pa., respectfully informs the citizens of the village and vicinity that he will promply respond to all calls for professional services; Office on Main st., in building formerly occupied by C. W. Ellis, Esq.

C. S. & E. A. JONES, DEALERS IN DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS.

Oils, Fancy Articles, Stationery, Dry Goods, Groceries, &c., Main st., Coudersport, Pa. D. E. OLMSTED,

DEALER IN DRY GOODS, READY-MADE

Clothing, Crockery, Groceries, &c., Mainst., Coudersport, Pa. M. W. MANN,

DEALER IN BOOKS & STATIONERY, MAG. AZINES and Music, N. W. corner of Main and Third sts., Coudersport, Pa. COUDERSPORT HOTEL,

F. GLASSMIRE, Proprietor, Corner of Main and Second Streets, Coudersport, Potter Co., Pa.

L. BIRD, SURVEYOR, CONVEYANCER, &c., BROOK-

LAND, Pa., (formerly Cushingville.) Office in his Store building. MARK GILLON,

TAMOR-nearly opposite the Court Housewill make all clothes intrusted to him in the latest and best styles - Prices to suit the times .- Give him a call. ANDREW SAMBERG & BRO'S. TANNERS AND CURRIERS .- Hides tanned on the shares, in the best manner. Tannery on the east side of Allegany river.

Condersport, Potter county, Pa.-Jy 17,'61

OLMSTED & KELLY, EALER IN STOVES, TIN & SHEET IRON WARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court House, Condersport, Pa. Tin and Sheet Iron Ware made to order, in good style, on short notice.

EZRA STARKWEATHER,

BLACKSMITH, would inform his former eastomers and the public generally that he has reëstablished a shop in the building formerly occupied by Benj. Rennels in Couders: port, where he will be pleased to do all kinds of Blacksmithing on the most reasonable terms. Lumber, Shingles, and all kinds of Produce taken in exchange for 12:34

LUCIEN BIRD.

PROVISIONS,

GROCERIES HARDWARE, DRY GOODS Also,

ces of THOMAS J. BAKER, who is making own unexceptionable style, with GOOD STOCK.

I have concluded to sell only for READY PAY, rom October 1, 1861. Will buy Ashes, Hides, Pelts, and some in Brookland, (formerly Cushingville.)

M. W. McAlarney, Proprietor. $1.00 PR YEAR, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE

POTTER JOURNAL

* Devoted to the cause of Republicanism, the interests of Agriculture, the advancement of Education, and the best good of Potter county. Owning no guide except that of Principle, it will endeaver to aid in the work of more fully Freedomizing our Country.

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the following rates, except where special bargains are made. 1 Square [10 lines] 1 insertion, - - -Each subsequent insertion less than 13, 1 Square three months, - - - - -" six " nine one year. Column six months, - - - - per year. - - - - - -Administrator's or Executor's Notice, Business Cards, 8 lines or less, per year 5 00 Special and Editorial Notices, per line,

All transient advertisements must be paid in advance, and no notice will be taken of advertisements from a distance, unless they are accompanied by the money or satisfactory reference.

Blanks, and Job Work of all kinds, attended to promptly and faithfully.

" THE UNION " ARCH STREET, ABOVE THIRD, Philadelphia.

UPTON S. NEWCOMER, Proprietor This Hotel is central, convenient by Passenger cars to all parts of the city, and in every particular adapted to the wants of the Terms $1 50 per day.

Administrator's Notice. OTICE is hereby given that letters of ad-Lieutenant-General Winfield Scott is orHoping you and all our friends in Potter safer than to remit Bank Bills. The name of dec'd, have been granted to the subscriber by When drafts can be procured it is much HOXIE, late of Sweden township, Potter Co., debts due to said estate and claims against the same, must be presented for settlement or J. W. BIRD, Admr.

Sweden, Sept. 2, 1861. et