On the seventh of September, 1861, the New York WEEKLY, TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence; the DAILY TRIBUNE being some months older and the SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhatyounger. For more than twenty years, this journal has labored in what its conductors have felt to be the cause of humanity, Justice and Freedom, eudenvoring to meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and to promote by all means the moral, intellectual, and material advancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to espouse and commend to-day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed, but, have in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its errors. To envelope the minds of the young by the most general, thorough and practical Education, and to encourage and stimulate Productive Industry through free grants of Public Lands to actual settlers and cultivators, as also the protection of im-mature or peculiarly exposed branches from too powerful foreign competition, are among the aims to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which it steadfastly commends to American patriotism and philanthropy.

As to the Civil War now devastating our country we hold it to have originated in a Rebellion more wanton, wicked, inexcusable, Having done all we could without a surrender of principle to avoid this War, and witnessed the forbearance, meekness and longsuffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear duty, with that of every other citizen, to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen rulers, and to second with all our energies their efforts to uphold the Union, the Constitution and the supremacy of the laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation, deception, terrorism, and spoila-tion, fearfully strong, we believe the Ameri-can Republic far stronger, and that the unan-imous, earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope and duration of this most extraordinary contest. we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in so grave an emergency.

In a crisis like the present our columns must be largely engrossed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with elucidations of its more striking incidents.— We shall not however remit that attention to Literature, to Foreign Affairs, to Agricultural Progress, to Crops, Markets, &c., &c., which has, already we trust, won for THE TRIBUNE ness will be obtained.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicates its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

Innoxious in all maladies in which it has in each of the following complaints, viz: In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emanciations, In Desitify, New York, Disarrhea, Dysentery, Dyspepsia, Constitution, Scrofulous Tuberculous, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruction, Whites, Chloroiu, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued disminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bedridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-ap-peared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are traits, the celebrated collection known in Eu- attested to female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaus-

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkable effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them. In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes a single box of these Chaly beafe Pilis has of-ten sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendent Costineness. In unchecked Diarrhora, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate incipient Consumption this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and ineresting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known linbilities. The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this rangly and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.
